Background on the Bench-Bar Coalition

The statewide Bench-Bar Coalition (BBC) was formed in 1993 under the leadership of the California Association of Local Bars (CALB), the State Bar of California, and the Judicial Council to enhance communication and coordinate activities with the state, local, and specialty bar associations on issues of common interest to the judicial branch—particularly in the legislative arena. Securing adequate, dependable, and stable funding for the trial courts has been a primary focus for the BBC. BBC membership is open to members of the bench and bar including judges and the presidents, past-presidents, presidents-elect, executive directors, or other person(s) designated by the president, of state, local, minority or specialty bar associations; legal services organizations; or statewide organizations dedicated to improving the justice system.

The BBC is currently cochaired by Mr. Michael Johnson, Attorney, San Ramon and Ms. Jennifer Kim, Attorney, Los Angeles. Mr. Johnson represents the Northern/Central California region and Ms. Kim represents the Southern California region. Members of the BBC's Executive Committee support the cochairs in carrying out leadership responsibilities on quarterly conference calls, meetings, working groups, and related coalition activities.

In addition to its quarterly conference calls, the Bench-Bar Coalition holds meetings in conjunction with the State Bar of California and the judicial branch. The statewide BBC also participates in Day in Sacramento, in which groups of judges and bar leaders meet with their legislators to discuss issues of mutual interest, with emphasis on the judicial branch budget. Judicial Council members and leaders of special commissions and task forces also are invited to participate in this event, which is held annually in conjunction with the State of the Judiciary address by the Chief Justice of California.

The BBC has been successful in the development of strong working relationships and increased communication between the judiciary and members of the bar, as well as enhanced advocacy efforts with the legislative and executive branches. Subject areas of joint interest include the judicial branch budget and the need for stable, adequate funding; access to justice; court technology; new judgeships; and courthouse construction.

For more information about the BBC, please contact Cory Jasperson, the Judicial Council's liaison to the BBC, at (916) 323-3121 phone or email to cory.jasperson@jud.ca.gov.

Judicial Branch Legislative Priorities for 2023

The Judicial Council has adopted the following legislative priorities for 2023 to increase access to justice for court users.

- 1. Advocate for the following:
 - a. Continued investment in the judicial branch to include stable and reliable funding for courts to address annual cost increases in baseline operations and plan for the future; and
 - b. Sufficient resources to improve physical access to the courts by keeping courts open, to expand access by increasing the ability of court users to conduct branch business online, to strengthen programs and services that have been restored over the past few years, and to continue to implement innovations in programs and services;
- 2. Continue to seek an adequate number of judges and judicial officers in counties with the greatest need;
- 3. Continue to promote the availability of verbatim records of court proceedings by working collaboratively to address court reporter shortages and exploring innovations in technology;
- 4. Seek legislative authorization for the disposition of any unused courthouses, with the proceeds to be directed to the State Court Facilities Construction Fund or any other Judicial Council facilities fund authorized by the Legislature;
- 5. Continue to sponsor or support legislation to improve judicial branch operational efficiencies, including cost-savings and cost-recovery measures as well as the ability to conduct proceedings, in whole or in part, using remote technology in order to expand safe and reliable access to justice; and
- 6. Delegate authority to the Legislation Committee to represent positions on proposed legislation, administrative rules or regulations, and proposals by other bodies or agencies.

The Governor's proposed fiscal year 2023–24 budget provides $5.3 billion in operating and facility funds for the judicial branch. The proposal includes a net total of $510.2 million in new funding and reflects the priorities of Chief Justice Guerrero to maintain critical programs and services provided by the branch to advance access to justice for all Californians. Significant declines in General Fund revenues and a rise in inflationary pressures have necessitated fiscal restraint by the Governor. Therefore, the budget proposes modest reductions throughout state government to address forecasted deficits.

The proposed budget continues to protect core operations for the judicial branch by: 1) providing an additional inflationary adjustment of 3.0 percent, which marks the third consecutive year for trial court cost increases, 2) increasing backfill for declining fines, fees, and penalty revenues that support trial court operations, 3) providing resources to implement new laws that will improve court access and case resolution, 4) providing additional support to help expand the pool of qualified court interpreters, and 5) continuing support for courthouse construction and facility modifications, including backfill for the State Court Facilities Construction Fund to ensure solvency of the fund and support of essential trial court facilities projects.

With respect to reductions for the branch, the budget proposes a one-time pull back of unencumbered facilities maintenance funding and decreased funding for Court Appointed Special Advocate programs.

The breakdown of the proposed 2023–24 Governor's Budget for all judicial branch entities is detailed in the chart below.

Judicial Branch Funding for Fiscal Year 2023-24

Judicial Branch Entity	Total Funding ($ in millions)
Supreme Court	$54.3 m
Courts of Appeal	$281.1 m
Trial Courts	$3,973.5 m
Judicial Council	$393.9 m
Judicial Branch Facility Program	$590.8 m
Habeas Corpus Resource Center	$19.4 m
Subtotal, Operational Budget	$5,313.0 m
Offset from Local Property Tax Revenue	-$247.6 m
Adjusted Operational Budget	$5,065.4 m
Less Nonstate Funds ¹	-$207.7 m
Adjusted Operational Budget, State Funds	$4,857.7 m
Court Construction Projects ²	$261.7 m
Total Funding	$5,327.1 m
(Sum of Adjusted Operational Budget & Court Construction Projects) ³

Some totals will not be exact due to rounding.

Trial Courts and Judicial Entities at the State Level

Inflationary Adjustment for Trial Court Operations: $74.1 million ongoing General Fund to provide a 3.0 percent funding increase in recognition of trial court operational cost pressures due to rising inflation. This funding is intended to benefit all trial courts.

Trial Court Trust Fund Revenue Backfill: $109.3 million General Fund backfill for the Trial Court Trust Fund to address the continued decline in civil fee and criminal fine and penalty revenues expected in 2023–24. In addition, the annual loss of $944,000 in telephonic appearance revenue due to the enactment of Senate Bill (SB) 233: Civil Actions in Appearance by Telephone (Ch. 979, Stats. of 2022) will be included in the backfill calculation.

³ Includes General Fund; special, bond, federal, and non-governmental cost funds; and reimbursements.

Community Assistance, Recovery, and Empowerment (CARE) Act Support: $29.9 million General Fund in 2023–24, $72.4 million in 2024–25, and $100 million ongoing to fund the statewide implementation of the CARE Act. This funding will address costs to the judicial branch to conduct additional hearings, expand self-help centers, support program administration at the trial courts, update court case management systems, and provide legal representation.

Trial Court Employee Costs: $19.6 million ongoing General Fund for trial court employee health benefits and retirement costs.

Language Access Efforts: An increase of $200,000 in Court Interpreters Fund resources beginning in 2023–24 for five fiscal years to address the shortage of qualified interpreters by providing trainings for near passers of the bilingual interpreting examination. Budget bill language is also proposed to authorize yearly adjustments to the expenditure authority, as needed, to help expand the court interpreter pool.

Extension of Sunset for Various Fees: Trailer bill language to extend the sunset date for various fees that support trial court base allocations for a period of five years until June 30, 2028. Currently due to expire June 30, 2023, these fees have generated estimated revenue averaging $36.7 million over the last five years. Absent this extension, there will be a reduced allocation to trial courts which will impact court operations and access to justice.

State Level Judiciary Employee and Judicial Officers Costs: $32.5 million to adjust retirement, salary, and benefit costs previously approved in the Budget Act of 2022 for employees of the Supreme Court ($1.4 million), Courts of Appeal ($7.3 million), Judicial Council ($7.7 million), and Habeas Corpus Resource Center ($605,000), and for compensation for superior court judges ($14.9 million) and temporary assigned judges ($587,000).

Appellate Court Security: $1.4 million in Appellate Court Trust Fund resources beginning in 2023–24 for three fiscal years to support four additional California Highway Patrol Judicial Protection Section officers at four of the seven single-officer courthouses within the state to improve the safety of court employees, court users, and the public.

Legal Support for Court Rules and User-Friendly Forms: $838,000 General Fund in 2023–24 and $1.6 million ongoing to implement new laws through rules of court and forms. This funding will provide user-friendly forms and tools that advance the judicial branch's commitment to remove barriers to court access and case resolution.

Rent Costs: $6.1 million General Fund adjustment to account for lowered rent costs in buildings occupied by the Supreme Court, Courts of Appeal, Judicial Council, and Habeas Corpus Resource Center.

Judicial Officers, Court Administrators, and Employees of the Judicial Branch January 10, 2023 Page 4

Budget Solutions

Deferred Maintenance: $49.5 million General Fund reduction from the $188 million for deferred maintenance approved in the Budget Act of 2021. This reflects the unspent amount that is available to return to the General Fund due to a decline in state revenues.

Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) Funding: $20 million General Fund reduction in 2023–24 and 2024–25, for a total reduction of $40 million, for support of CASA programs throughout the state. This reduction reflects the amount of unspent funding that is available to return to the General Fund due to a decline in state revenues.

Enacted Legislation

Jury Duty Pilot and Juror Reimbursement Increase (Assembly Bill [AB] 1981): $14.8 million General Fund in 2023–24 and $13.3 million General Fund in 2024–25 to conduct a two-year pilot program in at least six courts to study whether increases in juror compensation and mileage reimbursement rates increase juror diversity and participation as required by AB 1981 (Ch. 326, Stats. of 2022). In addition, the budget includes $4.2 million ongoing General Fund to fund increases for juror mileage and public transit reimbursements as required by this legislation. While the juror reimbursement increases became effective on January 1, 2023, the funding is effective on July 1, 2023, upon enactment of the budget.

Community Mental Health Services Data Collection (SB 929): $3.8 million General Fund in 2023–24, $3.3 million General Fund in 2024–25, and $2 million ongoing General Fund beginning in 2025–26 to comply with data collection requirements pursuant to SB 929 (Ch. 539, Stats. of 2022) related to community mental health services.

Signage for Charles James Ogletree, Jr. Courthouse (AB 2268): $440,000 one-time General Fund in 2023–24 to fund the design, fabrication, and installation of new signage to rename the Superior Court of Merced County's main courthouse as the Charles James Ogletree, Jr. Courthouse pursuant to AB 2268 (Ch. 410, Stats. of 2022).

Courthouse Lactation Facilities (AB 1576): The Administration proposes trailer bill language to make the implementation of AB 1576 (Ch. 200, Stats. of 2022) subject to an appropriation. AB 1576 requires the Judicial Council to expand access to courthouse lactation facilities for court users.

Judicial Branch Facilities

State Court Facilities Construction Fund Solvency: $89.5 million General Fund in 2023–24, increasing to $174.5 million in 2025–26 and ongoing to address the structural deficit in the State Court Facilities Construction Fund (SCFCF) and maintain existing service levels. Of this amount, $55.5 million ongoing General Fund is to backfill trial court operations costs that are currently funded by the SCFCF. The balance of $34 million, increasing to $119 million in 2025–26 and ongoing, will backfill the SCFCF to cover the remaining obligations and ensure an adequate fund balance.

Facility Operations and Maintenance: $6 million ongoing General Fund for increased trial court facilities operations and maintenance costs in seven newly constructed courthouses projected to be opened in 2023–24, and an additional $27 million in reimbursement authority for the SCFCF to cover increased costs for facility modification and deferred maintenance.

Court Construction: $19.2 million General Fund and $153 million Public Buildings Construction Fund in 2023–24 to fund two new projects and continue the next phase of previously approved projects:

New Projects:

- Nevada County New Nevada City Courthouse $8.1 million for Acquisition
- Santa Clara County Court of Appeal, New Sixth Appellate District Courthouse $2.8 million for Performance Criteria

Additional Funding for Previously Approved Projects:

- Monterey County New Fort Ord Courthouse $153 million for Design-Build
- San Bernardino County Juvenile Dependency Courthouse Addition and Renovation –
 $8.3 million for Construction

Next Steps on Judicial Branch Budget

This proposed budget sets the stage for the next phase of the state's budget development cycle for the 2023–24 fiscal year that begins on July 1, 2023. This will include further discussions with the Administration, legislative hearings, meetings with legislators and their staff, a May Revision to the Governor's Budget, and an intensive period of legislative activity to pass a balanced budget by the June 15 constitutional deadline.

The proposed 2023–24 Governor's Budget may be reviewed in its entirety at: www.ebudget.ca.gov.

You have asked Legal Services to provide an information sheet setting forth the ethical principles that pertain to judicial officers who participate in legislative activities that can be distributed to judicial officers who engage in Bench-Bar Coalition legislative outreach activities. To assist judicial officers, this memorandum provides the following information: (1) the applicable canons from the California Code of Judicial Ethics; (2) an analysis of a recent formal opinion from the Supreme Court's Committee on Judicial Ethics Opinions; and (3) relevant excerpts from David M. Rothman's California Judicial Conduct Handbook.

Relevant Canons¹

Governmental Activities

The canon most directly on point for judges who wish to participate in legislative activity is canon 4C(1), which prohibits a judge from appearing at a public hearing or consulting with an executive or legislative body or a public official except on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice. In deciding whether to engage in such activities, a judge must also consider whether that conduct would violate any other provision of the Code of Judicial Ethics. For example, the activity must uphold the integrity, impartiality, and independence of the judiciary (canons 1 and 2A), and it must not cause the judge to be disqualified (canon 4A(4)).

Political Activity

Canon 5 provides that judges may not be involved in political activity that is inconsistent with the independence, integrity, or impartiality of the judiciary or that creates the appearance of political bias or impropriety. Canon 5D states that a judge is not permitted to engage in political activity unless it is related to the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice.

Extrajudicial Activities, Appearance of Impropriety, Lending the Prestige of Office

There are several other canons that should be considered when a judge is involved in legislative activity. Canon 4A states that a judge must conduct any extrajudicial activity so that such activity does not (1) interfere with judicial duties, (2) cast doubt on the judge's impartiality, or (3) lead to frequent disqualification. Canon 2 provides that a judge must not engage in conduct that creates the appearance of impropriety. Canon 2A prohibits a judge from making any statement that commits the judge with respect to cases, controversies, or issues that are likely to come before the courts. Finally, canon 2B(2) states that a judge must not lend the prestige of judicial office to advance the pecuniary or personal interests of the judge or others.

CJEO Formal Opinion No. 2014-006

The Supreme Court's Committee on Judicial Ethics Opinions issued a formal opinion on October 2, 2014, entitled "Judicial Comment at Public Hearings and Consultation with Public Officials and Other Branches of Government." The opinion addressed the circumstances under which a judge may appear at a public hearing or officially consult with executive or legislative bodies on "matters concerning the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice." (See canon 4C(1), Appendix, p. 1.) The committee concluded that canon 4C(1) allows comment and consultation concerning the court system or matters of judicial administration. The canon permits a judge to appear before or consult with representatives of the other two branches of government "when the subject of the appearance or consultation is one with respect to which the judge's experience and perspective as a judge gives him or her unique qualifications to assist the other branches of the government in fulfilling their responsibilities to the public." (CJEO Formal Opn. 2014-006, p. 2, emphasis in original.)

² The full opinion can be found on the CJEO website at http://www.judicialethicsopinions.ca.gov/sites/default/files/CJEO Formal Opinion 2014-006.pdf.

The committee stated that based on the reference in canon 4C(1) to matters concerning the administration of justice, judges may testify or advocate at public hearings only on behalf of the legal system, i.e., focusing on court users, the courts, or the administration of justice. (CJEO Formal Opn. 2014-006, supra, at p. 7.) There are situations in which a judge may comment about substantive legal issues where the purpose is to benefit the law and legal system itself rather than any particular cause or group and when the comment or consultation is made from a judicial perspective. (Ibid.) Thus, any comments from a legal knowledge/experience perspective should be provided by attorneys, not judges. (Ibid.) Where a judge has both judicial and attorney experience to draw from (or only attorney experience) in a particular area of law, the judge's comments or consultation should be presented from a purely judicial perspective. (Ibid.)

The committee noted that even if the exception in canon 4C(1) applies, the judge must ensure that the appearance or consultation does not violate any other canons, such as those set forth in the appendix to this memorandum.

The opinion provides the following illustrative examples:

- A judge may comment or consult about the judicial branch's budget, or a bond measure for court construction, or a bill proposing to replace court reporters with electronic recording.
- Regarding a proposed constitutional amendment to replace the death penalty with life without parole, a judge may comment on the dysfunction of the present system from a judicial perspective, but advocacy for or against the death penalty as a policy matter would violate canon 4C(1).
- A judge who was an environmental attorney may express his or her views in support of a new CEQA settlement process, but only from the viewpoint of a judge who is, for example, seeking to unburden the court's docket by resolving CEQA cases earlier in the judicial process.
- A judge who was a prosecutor but has no judicial experience in criminal law may express support for proposed legislation to reduce the number of peremptory challenges in misdemeanor cases, but those views should be expressed in terms of how the law would affect the legal system or the administration of justice by improving juror satisfaction, enhancing jury diversity, and saving court costs, while still providing the full panoply of due process.
- A judge may not appear at a public hearing of a legislative committee to advocate for longer sentences for certain drug offenders because, even though such comments are about a matter "concerning the law," advocacy for longer sentences for only a particular type of offender could undermine public confidence in the impartiality of the judiciary, thus violating canons 1 (upholding the integrity and independence of the judiciary), 2A (promoting public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary), 3B(9) (commenting publicly on pending cases), and 4A(1) (casting doubt on the judge's capacity to act impartially). The judge could, however, discuss the impact of such sentences on the courts or the adjudicatory process.

- Based on the judge's expertise, a judge may advocate for improvements in the administration of justice that would seek to reduce recidivism by providing information about collaborative court programs the judge had presided over or administered that employ alternative sentencing or probation periods for drug offenders.
- A judge may advocate for statewide use of alternative programs based on the judge's experience, but must not comment on the outcome of cases involving particular offenders and must not imply that the judge will be ruling in a particular way in a class of cases.
- Judicial advocacy for specific legislation on proposed death penalty or collective bargaining measures could violate the prohibition in canon 2A against making statements that commit a judge with respect to cases, controversies, or issues that are likely to come before the court or that are inconsistent with the impartial performance of duties. But a judge may appear before a public body to explain, from a judicial perspective, the effects of proposed laws on the judicial process or judicial administration.

Rothman, California Judicial Conduct Handbook

In the California Judicial Conduct Handbook (3d ed. 2007), Judge Rothman addresses judicial involvement in executive and legislative matters:

[§11.03] Appearances at Public Hearings and Participation in Executive or Legislative Matters

Ethics rules on the subject. A judge . . . must . . . draw the distinction between inappropriate involvement with the legislative and executive branch in what could be called "political" matters as opposed to appropriate involvement in matters that concern the law, legal system, and administration of justice. Thus, for example, a judge may endorse legislation that would provide the court with facilities and services, because such matters deal with the administration of justice.

Recognition of the separation of powers—urging moderation in advocacy by judges. Judges have frequently been active in advocating positions before the legislative and executive branches on a variety of subjects. The Code of Judicial Ethics does not prohibit this activity so long as the activity is limited to issues related to the law, the legal system, and administration of justice. The boundary, however, of this limitation is often stretched.

I am not alone in the belief that judges should greatly limit advocacy of issues before the legislative and executive branches to only the clearest and most urgent of circumstances. Where judges frequently engage in such advocacy, they may be perceived as encroaching on legislative and executive prerogatives. When judges do so they should not be surprised if the legislative and executive branches feel comfortable in doing the same in the judicial arena.

Examples abound of an increasing comfort on the part of the legislature in tinkering with the judicial branch. This may be the result of a basic lack of understanding and appreciation of basic concepts of our form of government. Separation of powers and preservation of the independence of the judiciary require judges to ration their advocacy.

Special position of juvenile and family court judges. The special demands of juvenile and family court assignments frequently involve judges in proactive efforts to improve the law. The above caution is less urgent for these judges because they are expected to regularly make recommendations concerning civil procedure and the development of programs to help children.

Examples of issues concerning appropriate advocacy. Is it proper for a judge to be involved in writing a statute that increases or reduces child support, or deals with the length of sentences in juvenile or criminal cases? Judges regularly advocate for additional judicial officers, but would it be improper for them to advocate for additional police officers?

Judges do not agree on the answers to these questions. Some believe that such activity is part of the judicial function and is permissible. Others, however, believe that the test is whether such advocacy could "cast reasonable doubt on the judge's capacity to act impartially."

It would be proper for a judge to endorse a bond measure that increases county revenues, which would increase funding for judicial-related activities as well as increasing revenues for non-legal system county projects, provided the endorsement was carefully phrased to focus on judicial needs, while avoiding endorsement of nonjudicial issues. Because of the Trial Court Funding Act, local judicial-related funding advocacy would be very limited, if any, at the local level.

A judge may write a letter to the legislature regarding a bill proposing to replace court reporters with electronic recording as this plainly concerns the administration of justice. A judge, however, who was formerly a member of the legislature, should not be further involved in legislation or consult with legislators or others except on legislation and other matters concerning the law, the legal system or the administration of justice.

(Rothman, California Judicial Conduct Handbook, 3d ed. [California Judges Association, 2007] pp. 569–571.)

Judge Rothman also discusses judicial support of or opposition to ballot measures in the context of inappropriate political activity:

[§11.24] Supporting or Opposing Ballot Measures

Measures not related to improvement of the law, legal system or administration of justice. Although one might argue that anything on the ballot relates to the improvement of the law, such is not the case. For example, it would be improper for a judge to draft, promote, or be listed publicly as supporting a school bond ballot proposal as such a proposal would not fit the limited purpose related to improvement of the legal system. A judge may not sign a ballot statement, essentially a public endorsement, for an ordinance advocating criminal penalties for violation of a law/ordinance.

Appropriate ballot measures for comment by judges. Appropriate judicial activity related to ballot measures would include public support of a tax override measure or other ballot proposition that would provide revenue for court operations or jail construction, since the objects of the funding pertain to the administration of justice. A court and its judges may also take a public position on a ballot proposition that affects judicial funding and the administration of justice. A judge may support or oppose a ballot measure dealing with the unification of the court.

A judge may speak and take a public stance against a ballot measure that would take away the power to appoint and retain the chief probation officer from the courts and place it in the hands of the board of supervisors.

A judge may act in support of political goals that directly relate to improvement of the judicial system such as jail construction or renovation of a juvenile detention facility.

A judge may participate in a newspaper ad concerning a ballot measure that concerns the law, legal system or administration of justice.

(Rothman, supra, at pp. 578–579.)

Disqualification and Disclosure

Judges who are involved in legislative activity should be aware of the disqualification and disclosure implications if it appears that the judge cannot be impartial in ruling on a matter concerning the issue with which the judge was involved. Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1(a)(6)(A)(iii) provides that a judge is disqualified if "[a] person aware of the facts might reasonably entertain a doubt that the judge would be able to be impartial." A judge is not disqualified, however, if the judge "[h]as as a lawyer or public official participated in the drafting of laws or in the effort to pass or defeat laws, the meaning, effect or application of which is in issue in the proceeding unless the judge believes that his or her prior involvement was so well known as to raise a reasonable doubt in the public mind as to his or her capacity to be impartial." (Code Civ. Proc., § 170.2(c).)

Judge Rothman addresses this issue:

[A] judge's expression of opinions outside of the context of judicial decision may raise disclosure and disqualification issues.

Drafting or advocating concerning laws. Although there can be an argument that the use of the term "public official" is not intended to encompass a judge, subdivision (c) of section 170.2 above appears to allow a judge (i.e., a "public official") to participate in the drafting of or advocacy concerning laws that the judge may later have to interpret. Judges have been involved on many occasions in such activities although, as noted in the concluding language of subdivision (c), such involvement has the potential of requiring disqualification.

(Rothman, California Judicial Conduct Handbook, 3d ed. [California Judges Association, 2007] pp. 368–369.)

Judges should also be aware of canon 4A(4), which states that a judge must conduct all of the judge's extrajudicial activities so that they do not lead to frequent disqualification of the judge.

Contact Information for Questions

If judicial officers have questions about whether their own conduct would violate any provision of the Code of Judicial Ethics, they may contact the Supreme Court's Committee on Judicial Ethics Opinions at judicial.ethics@jud.ca.gov or 855-854-5366, or the California Judges Association's Judicial Ethics Hotline at 866-432-1252. For more general information about ethical constraints discussed in this memorandum, they may contact Senior Attorney Mark Jacobson at 415-865-7898 or mark.jacobson@jud.ca.gov.

Appendix

Canon 2

A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge's activities.

Canon 2A

A. Promoting Public Confidence

A judge shall respect and comply with the law and shall act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary. A judge shall not make statements, whether public or nonpublic, that commit the judge with respect to cases, controversies, or issues that are likely to come before the courts or that are inconsistent with the impartial performance of the adjudicative duties of judicial office.

Canon 2B(2) states:

A judge shall not lend the prestige of judicial office or use the judicial title in any manner, including any oral or written communication, to advance the pecuniary or personal interests of the judge or others.

Canon 4A

A. Extrajudicial Activities in General

A judge shall conduct all of the judge's extrajudicial activities so that they do not

- (1) cast reasonable doubt on the judge's capacity to act impartially;
- (2) demean the judicial office;
- (3) interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties; or
- (4) lead to frequent disqualification of the judge.

Canon 4C(1)

A judge shall not appear at a public hearing or officially consult with an executive or legislative body or public official except on matters concerning the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice or in matters involving the judge's private economic or personal interests.

Advisory Committee Commentary to Canon 4C(1) (added January 1, 2013)

When deciding whether to appear at a public hearing or whether to consult with an executive or legislative body or public official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, a judge should consider whether that conduct would violate any other provisions of this code. For a list of factors to consider, see the explanation of "law, the legal system, or the administration of justice" in the Terminology section. See also Canon 2B regarding the obligation to avoid improper influence.

Canon 5

A judge or candidate for judicial office shall not engage in political or campaign activity that is inconsistent with the independence, integrity, or impartiality of the judiciary.

Judges and candidates for judicial office are entitled to entertain their personal views on political questions. They are not required to surrender their rights or opinions as citizens. They shall, however, not engage in political activity that may create the appearance of political bias or impropriety. Judicial independence, impartiality, and integrity shall dictate the conduct of judges and candidates for judicial office.

Canon 5D

A judge or candidate for judicial office may engage in activity in relation to measures concerning the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, only if the conduct is consistent with this code.

Advisory Committee Commentary to Canon 5D (added January 1, 2013)

When deciding whether to engage in activity relating to measures concerning the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, such as commenting publicly on ballot measures, a judge must consider whether the conduct would violate any other provisions of this code. See explanation of "law, the legal system, or the administration of justice" in the terminology section.

Explanation of "law, the legal system, or the administration of justice" from the Terminology section (added January 1, 2013)

When a judge engages in an activity that relates to the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, the judge should also consider factors such as whether the activity upholds the integrity, impartiality, and independence of the judiciary (Canons 1 and 2A), whether it impairs public confidence in the judiciary (Canon 2), whether the judge is allowing the activity to take precedence over judicial duties (Canon 3A), and whether engaging in the activity would cause the judge to be disqualified (Canon 4A(4)).
