

IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOURTH APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION ONE

In re: Order of the Presiding Justice

Misc. Order No. 112812

THE COURT:

This order supersedes this court's Miscellaneous Order No. 010810. The superior court clerk is directed to permit attorneys and paralegals from Appellate Defenders Inc. (ADI) and any counsel appointed by this court to view and copy all superior court file materials (including sealed and confidential materials) relating to their clients' cases, and any related cases, to the same extent that their clients or the clients' trial counsel would be permitted to view and copy such files. Access to the superior court file materials shall be permitted to such a specified attorney or paralegal upon his or her presentation of a photographic personal identification document and either a business card showing employment with ADI or a copy of an order of this court appointing that person as counsel.

This order will apply to all criminal, juvenile dependency and juvenile delinquency cases, as well as cases concerning the commitment of mentally retarded persons under Welfare and Institutions Code section 6500 et seq., cases under the Sexually Violent Predators Act (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 6600 et seq.), all cases in which a child might be freed from parental control under Family Code section 7800 et seq., all cases in which a birth parent has petitioned to withdraw consent to an adoption under Family Code section 9005, subdivision (e), and conservatorship cases under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 5000 et seq.).

This order is effective as of the date of its filing and remains effective unless and until it is vacated or modified by subsequent order of this court.
