Executive Summary

The 2002 Judicial Council Court Statistics Report is published on the California Courts Web site by the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) to facilitate access to and enhance the usability of state court workload data. The report contains 10-year statewide trend data as well as fiscal year 2000–2001 data for individual counties. (With a few exceptions, this binder contains only statewide data. The online version contains both statewide and individual county data.)

The statistical report is a companion to the 2002 Judicial Council Annual Report, which summarizes programs to improve public access, fairness, and court administration. It was published in March 2002.

The Court Statistics Report and the Judicial Council Annual Report are available at www.courtinfo.ca.gov/reference/1_annualreports.htm/. Printed copies can be obtained by writing to pubinfo@jud.ca.gov or by calling the California Courts Infoline at 800-900-5980.

The 2002 Judicial Council Court Statistics Report is prepared pursuant to the provisions of section 6 of article VI of the California Constitution, which requires the Judicial Council to survey the condition of business in state courts and to report and make recommendations to the Governor and Legislature.

Principal Findings

Court filing and disposition data represent key measures of court workload, but other factors also must be considered. For example, the filing of a complex case may result in numerous court appearances and actions, while a simple case may be resolved in a single appearance of a few minutes. Yet both types of cases are counted as filings and thus appear equal statistically in terms of their impacts on the court. Examples of complex, high-workload cases include felonies, personal injury lawsuits, and family relations matters such as custody and juvenile delinquency cases.

Following are summaries of the principal findings for the Supreme Court, Courts of Appeal, superior courts, and judicial assignments.

Supreme Court

- Total filings fell from 9,071 in 1999–2000 to 8,891 in 2000–2001, a 2 percent decrease and within the range seen in the late 1990s.
- Total dispositions increased by 2 percent, from 8,880 to 9,047.
- Eleven automatic appeals (death penalty cases) were disposed of in 2000–2001, slightly fewer than in 1999–2000. This number represents a decrease from the five-year average of 14.
- Filings of original proceedings decreased by 11 percent to late 1990s levels, falling from 3,114 in 1999–2000 to 2,779 in 2000–2001.
- The number of written opinions decreased in 2000–2001 to 103, close to its five-year average, from an all-time high of 124 the previous year.
- Habeas corpus filings rose dramatically from 157 in 1999–2000 to 190 in 2000–2001, a 21 percent increase.

Courts of Appeal

- A total of 23,382 records of appeal and original proceedings were filed in the Courts of Appeal in 2000–2001, a 7 percent drop from the previous year and a return to the levels of the early 1990s.
- Filings of records of appeal dropped from 16,143 in 1999–2000 to 14,728 in 2000–2001. Criminal record of appeal filings fell by 9 percent, and civil filings decreased by 11 percent. Juvenile filings held steady.
- Total filings of original proceedings remained relatively stable during 2000–2001, increasing by approximately 200 cases. Civil original proceedings declined by 8 percent, whereas criminal remained relatively stable, rising by only 10 cases. Juvenile filings rose by 3 percent.
- Total dispositions decreased by 3 percent from the previous year. Written opinions remained fairly stable, falling by approximately 4 percent, with a publication rate of 6 percent.

Superior Courts

- Superior court filings decreased to 8,112,446 in 2000–2001, a 5 percent drop from the year before.
- Dispositions decreased slightly to 7,703,788 in 2000–2001, approximately 325,000 fewer than in 1999–2000.
- Civil case filings fell slightly, by 1.3 percent, from 1999–2000 levels.
- Personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death filings increased by almost 9 percent, from 71,141 in 1999–2000 to 77,205 in 2000–2001.
- Domestic-related filings (family law, juvenile dependency, and other civil petitions) decreased by 4 percent, from 512,849 in 1999–2000 to 490,864 in 2000–2001. The decrease is largely driven by a 31 percent decline in "other" civil petitions from a high of 433,416 in 1995–1996.<sup>1</sup>
- Filings in juvenile delinquency cases dropped slightly over the last fiscal year, from 93,649 to 92,536.
- Criminal case filings fell by approximately 6 percent in 2000–2001, from 6,846,062 to 6,459,351.
- "Other" civil complaints rose in the past year, from 128,115 in 1999–2000 to 130,792 in 2000–2001. Over the past five years, "other" civil complaint filings have risen by 13 percent.
- Jury trials declined by 10 percent, from 14,663 to 13,173, in 2000–2001. Specifically, felony jury trials decreased by 10 percent during that same period, while misdemeanor jury trials rose by 3 percent and civil petition jury trials rose by nearly 58 percent.
- Civil case processing time continued to decrease in the past year. Sixty-four percent of general civil unlimited cases, as well as 85 percent of limited civil cases, in fiscal year 2000–2001 were disposed of within one year.
- Criminal case processing time remained steady over the past year, with 92 percent of all felonies being disposed of in less than 12 months.

Judicial Assignments

- In 2000–2001, a total of 24,319 days of judicial assistance were provided by retired judges, Court of Appeal justices, and trial court judges, a 7 percent decrease from the previous fiscal year.
- Ninety-seven percent of the judicial assistance came from retired judges.
- Approximately 97 percent of judicial assistance was received by the superior courts. The remaining 3 percent went to the Courts of Appeal.

- (B) These cases have not come directly to the Supreme Court since fiscal year 1990–91. They are now treated similarly to other disciplinary filings in that initial review is performed by the State Bar Court. Therefore, most cases that would have appeared in this category are now included in the categories below.
- (E) Or recommendations not noted on docket.
- (a) Sum of rows 1 through 6. Filings include State Bar Court recommendations for disciplinary action and reports of attorneys' criminal convictions as well as the admissions of attorneys, requests for rule proposals, and other administrative matters relating to the State Bar.

The Supreme Court granted extensions of time in the following cases:

People v. Deen, S092615 (Imperial Co. Superior Court no. CF-5338)

The court granted the request of the superior court executive officer for an extension of time to complete the clerk's transcript because of illness of personnel responsible for the preparation of the record.

People v. Peoples, S090602 (Alameda Co. Superior Court no. 135280)

This case was a change of venue from San Joaquin County. The court granted the Superior Court of San Joaquin County court reporter's request for an extension of time to complete the reporter's transcript, which was over 21,000 pages long.

Courts of Appeal

FIGURE 1—Ratio of Pending Fully Briefed Appeals per 100 Appeals Disposed Of by Written Opinion For Appeals Pending as of June 30, 2001, and Disposed Of in Fiscal Year 2000–01

- The ratio of pending fully briefed appeals to appeals disposed of by written opinion is a measure of pending workload as well as judicial productivity. The ratio is an estimate of the time a court needs to dispose of pending fully briefed appeals. A ratio of 100 is equivalent to one year, 50 is equivalent to six months, and so forth. The estimate is based on the assumption that the court will decide the same number of appeals in 2001–02 as in 2000–01.
- The Second District had 24 fully briefed appeals per 100 appeals disposed of by opinions in 2000– 01, the lowest ratio among the six appellate districts. Given the assumption just noted, it would take three months for the court to dispose of its pending fully briefed appeals.
- The Fifth District had 62 pending fully briefed appeals per 100 appeals disposed of by opinion, the highest ratio among the six appellate districts.
- The statewide average of pending fully briefed appeals per 100 appeals disposed of by opinion decreased from 44 in 1999–00 to 39 in 2000–01.

SOURCE: TABLE 1  $100 \times (C/E)$

- The Fifth District reported the highest number of pending fully briefed appeals per authorized justice, 77.
- The First District reported the lowest number of pending fully briefed appeals per authorized justice, 27.

FIGURE 3

- "Judge equivalent" refers to the number of authorized justices—adjusted for judicial vacancies, assistance given to other courts, and judicial assistance received.
- The statewide average opinions per judge equivalent were 134 in 2000–01, compared to 147 in 1999–00.
- The Fifth District reported the highest rate, 149 opinions per judge equivalent— 11 percent higher than the statewide average.
- The First District reported the lowest opinion rate, 106 per judge equivalent. However, the First District had the lowest number of pending fully briefed appeals per authorized justice. The lower disposition rate may reflect that fewer cases are available for the justices.
- Beyond an optimum number of opinions (not yet identified), high rates of disposition indicate overload and a need for additional judgeships.

Filing of Opinion for Civil Appeals

FIGURE 4A

- The white portions of the bars represent the medians. The entire length of each bar (white and dark portions) represents the 90th percentile. "Median time" refers to the value at which half of the cases fall above and half below. The 90th percentile time is the value at which 10 percent of the cases fall above and 90 percent fall below.
- The statewide median time from appeal to filing of opinion for civil appeals was 483 days in 2000–01, compared to 489 days in 1999–00; the statewide 90th percentile time was 869 days in 2000– 01, compared to 865 days in 1999–00.
- Division Three of the Fourth District reported 1,306 days, the longest 90th percentile time from notice of appeal to filing of opinion for civil appeals disposed of in 2000–01.
- Division Five of the First District had the shortest 90th percentile time from notice of appeal to opinion for civil appeals, 506 days.

FIGURE 4B

- The statewide median time from appeal to filing of opinions for criminal appeals was 440 days in 2000–01, compared to 450 days in 1999–00; the statewide 90th percentile time was 738 days in 2000– 01, compared to 724 days in 1999–00.
- Division Three of the Fourth District had the longest 90th percentile time from notice of appeal to filing of opinion for criminal appeals disposed of in 2000–01, 903 days.
- Division Five of the Second District had the shortest 90th percentile time for criminal appeals, 499 days.

Column Key:

(A) Sum of B through H.

- (B) Due to trial court unification, AOC reporting practice no longer treats criminal appearances in superior courts as filings separate from the appearance of the same defendant in preliminary proceedings at the former municipal courts. This has resulted in the reporting of fewer criminal filings than would have been reported under the previous practice. Dispositions exclude certified pleas and defendants held to answer at the lower court level.
- (I) Parking functions, except for parking appeals, were transferred to local government in the early 1990s.

Under regulations adopted pursuant to the Chief Justice's constitutional authority (Cal. Const., art. VI, § 6), California trial courts are required to submit Summary Reports 1A and 2A, Addendum 1D and 1E reports, Form 2C, and Report of Assistance to the Judicial Council on a monthly basis. Judicial Position Reports are required each quarter. Summary reports contain case filing and disposition data—1A for general-jurisdiction cases and 2A for limited-jurisdiction cases. Addendum reports and Form 2C are used to calculate case processing time for general- and limited-jurisdiction cases, respectively. The Report of Assistance and Judicial Position Report are used to calculate judicial position equivalents.
