Traffic Law: Appearance in Court for Infractions without Deposit of Bail (Action Required)

The Rules and Projects Committee recommends that the Judicial Council adopt a new rule of court to state that courts must allow traffic infraction defendants to appear as promised for arraignment and trial without prior deposit of bail unless certain specified exceptions apply, and must provide defendants with notice of the option to appear in court for arraignment and trial without the deposit of bail in any instructions or other materials regarding bail provided by the court to the public. The rule was developed on an urgency basis at the request of Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye in response to recent concerns about court procedures for deposit of bail when defendants challenge infraction citations in court.
