The email field is needed and in some libraries may be required. If you want to receive a complete transcript of your session with the librarian, including all chat and links to web sites visited, you must enter an accurate email address. If you do not have an email address, or do not wish to have a transcript sent to you, you may be able to leave that field blank if your library has not made it a required field.
If you are using Internet Explorer, or Netscape 4.79 or below , and have "session cookies" enabled in your browser, the librarian should be able to take you to various websites to show you the answers. We will be able to "chat" with you in real time and send you Web pages via your browser during the session.	Your Question:
If you are using Netscape 7, we recommend that you end this session and return using Internet Explorer!
