READ this Notice
carefully!

On #3, write the date of your last fee waiver court order.

Notice: The court may order you to answer questions about your finances and later order you to pay back the waived fees. If this happens and you do not pay, the court can make you pay the fees and also charge you collection fees. If there is a change in your financial circumstances during this case that increases your ability to pay fees and costs, you must notify the trial court within five days. (Use form FW-010.) If you win your case, the trial court may order the other side to pay the fees. If you settle your civil case for $10,000 or more, the trial court will have a lien on the settlement in the amount of the waived fees. The trial court may not dismiss the case until the lien is paid.

4 My financial situation has changed since I last asked the court to waive my fees. I ask the court to do the following:

a. End my fee waiver because my financial situation has improved and I can now afford to pay the costs that are due after (date): _____

b. Review my updated financial information in the attached Request to Waive Court Fees. I believe I am still eligible for a fee waiver. (Complete form FW-001 and attach to this form.)

Check #4 if your finances have improved. Then, Check #4a if you can now afford the court fees and write the date when you can start paying them.
Check #4b if you still need a fee waiver.

5 My case has settled for _____

a. I (check one) have received the money from the settlement.

b. The money from the settlement will be paid to _____

Check #5 if your case settled and check the right box depending on how much you settled for.
In #5a, check the right box telling the court if you got the the money from the settlement.
In #5b, write the name and address of the party
who will pay the settlement.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information above is true and correct.
