

Update of Juvenile Dependency Quick Guide for Attorneys
Representing Parents and Children (DOGBOOK)
RFP-CFCC22-119RB

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

1) Will the bidder be expected to bear ancillary costs, such as editing, indexing, and publishing?

No. The JCC is anticipating a second public solicitation for editing and indexing.

2) How much internal JCC/CFCC staff time will be dedicated to assisting with this project? And can your answer distinguish between admin and attorney time?

The JCC/CFCC staff time dedicated to this project will be limited. A JCC attorney will be assigned for project management to answer questions and review materials. No administrative staff will be provided by the JCC.