THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA

Effective April 6, 2011, the new Judicial Council internal committee on California Case Management System (CCMS) is established. It oversees the council's policies concerning CCMS, including CCMS governance and advisory committees. The committee is responsible for ensuring that council policies are complied with, and that the project proceeds on schedule and within budget. The committee seeks reports and recommendations from the CCMS Executive Committee and the Administrative Director of the Courts. It ensures that CCMS reports to the council are clear, comprehensive, and provide relevant options so that the council can make effective final policy decisions about CCMS. The committee advises the council on CCMS policy decisions. The committee reports on CCMS at each Judicial Council meeting.

Effective April 6, 2011, the following appointments are made to this internal council committee:
