

IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOURTH APPELLATE DISTRICT
DIVISION ONE

In re: Order of the Presiding Justice

Misc. Order No. 091515

THE COURT:

This order supersedes this court's Misc. Order No. 090308 filed September 3, 2008.

I. Records in Juvenile Dependency Appeals

In all appeals under Welfare and Institutions Code section 395, the juvenile court shall prepare a reporter's transcript containing the following:

- (a) For appeals from a dispositional order in proceedings under Welfare and Institutions Code section 300, all hearings from the start of the detention hearing through the dispositional order;
- (b) For appeals from a review hearing or other appealable order after the original dispositional order (such as an order on a Welf. & Inst. Code, § 388 petition), all hearings during the period from the dispositional order, or when applicable the last review hearing, through the order or judgment being appealed from;
- (c) For appeals from a judgment under Welfare and Institutions Code section 366.26 or any other appealable order after the order referring the case for a permanent plan hearing (such as an order on a Welf. & Inst. Code, § 388 petition), all hearings from the referral order through the judgment or order being appealed; and
- (d) For appeals from orders after a judgment under Welfare and Institutions Code section 366.26 (such as an order in a post-permanency planning review hearing under Welfare and Institutions Code section 366.3) – all hearings after the section 366.26 hearing and judgment.

In all appeals under Welfare and Institutions Code section 395, the juvenile court shall prepare a clerk's transcript containing the following:

All documents in the juvenile dependency file, including all documentary exhibits admitted in evidence or refused, when creating the record for this court. The appellate record must also include the petition, response and the court's opinion in any writ proceeding that occurred in the case.

II. Records in Juvenile Dependency Writs

In all writ proceedings filed under California Rules of Court, Rules 8.452 and 8.454, the juvenile court shall include in the record prepared under California Rules of Court, rule 8.450(h) a reporter's transcript of the oral proceedings at the detention hearing.
