

IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
SIXTH APPELLATE DISTRICT

Misc. Order 12-4

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that effective May 1, 2012, in lieu of an original and four paper copies, all parties filing or opposing any writ petition, except petitions filed pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 366.26 and 366.28, shall file an original and two paper copies of all writ related filings and submit one electronic copy through the court's website at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/6dca.htm>. Writ related filings include, but are not limited to, any form, petition, informal response, preliminary opposition, return filed in this court, traverse, briefs, or declaration filed in support or opposition of the requested writ relief.

Effective May 1, 2012, in addition to lodging an original with the court, parties shall also submit the record supporting a writ petition in electronic form through the court's website. Should the record exceed the size limitations of the website, a party may elect to submit the record in multiple parts or provide the court with the record in digital format.

Self-represented parties may, but are not required to, comply with this order. If this order causes undue hardship or significant prejudice to any party, the party shall not be required to comply with this order and may file a third unbound paper copy in lieu of the electronic copy.
