

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA

COURT LANGUAGE ACCESS SUPPORT PROGRAM

Following is a list of organizations that periodically host conferences, workshops, or events that may assist existing and aspiring court interpreters to further develop their court interpreting skills. These web sites also provide information to additional resources.

American Translators Association

www.atanet.org/

California Court Interpreters Association (CCIA)

www.ccia.org/

California Federation of Interpreters (CFI)

www.calinterpreters.org/category/seminars/

www.calinterpreters.org/conference//

Consortium for Language Access in the Courts (CLAC)

http://www.ncsconline.org/D_Research/CIEventsWorkshops.html

www.ncsc.org/

National Association of Judiciary Interpreters and Translators (NAJIT)

www.najit.org/

University of Arizona

National Center for Interpretation

www.nci.arizona.edu/

Registry for Interpreters for the Deaf (RID)

www.rid.org/

Note: The California Administrative Office of the Courts is providing this information as a courtesy and does not endorse program content or guarantee that the program listed is approved for continuing education credit for existing interpreters. The external link provided is for informational purposes only.