SPACE IS LIMITED!

A multidisciplinary statewide conference focusing on meaningful and equal access to the justice system. Sessions will address core legal issues and related social issues in juvenile law, criminal law, probate guardianship and conservatorship, domestic violence, collaborative courts, ICWA and tribal issues, veterans and military families, incarceration and reentry, mental health, education, immigration, human trafficking, trauma-informed practice, community engagement, and racial justice.

You are invited to a special screening of Tribal Justice, a documentary film by Anne Makepeace. Two Native American judges reach back to traditional concepts of justice in order to reduce incarceration rates, foster greater safety for their communities, and create a more positive future for their youth.
