

California on My Honor: Court Connections Workshop

A one day workshop designed for K–12 teachers in Contra Costa County

March 9, 2011

9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Superior Court of California, County of Contra Costa
Alhambra Training Center, 917 Alhambra Ave, Martinez, CA 94553
2nd Floor

Participate in a workshop focused on the judicial branch of government with K–12 teachers, judges, and attorneys. Learn new and exciting ways to bring your civics-related social science program to life through the use of available resources. Meet law-related personnel who are interested in working with you to make connections between the Contra Costa Superior Court and your classroom.

	Courts in Action: Visit the courtroom to witness the judicial process.		Speakers: Hear from judges about the differences and challenges of criminal, civil, family and juvenile law.
	Program Sharing: Learn about current program offerings related to the law and California State Standards.		Curriculum Sharing: Receive resources and lesson plans designed for your grade level.
	Lunch: Enjoy lunch with law-related personnel who share a passion for education.		Opportunity Trip: Enter the chance to join other teachers in the state for a free trip to San Francisco to tour the Supreme Court of California and the Administrative Office of the Courts.

This professional development opportunity is offered free of charge to 20 competitively selected teachers; districts will be compensated for substitutes.
