Closed Circuit TV Broadcast Of Supreme Court Arguments This Week

San Francisco – Bay Area news media may observe a closed circuit television broadcast of the California Supreme Court's oral argument session today and tomorrow in the court's Witkin Conference Room, Earl Warren Building, 350 McAllister Street.

The oral argument session is being held in the Supreme Court's Courtroom in the Ronald Reagan Building in Los Angeles.

Members of the media who wish to view the oral argument should proceed to the Supreme Court Clerk's Office and request permission to do so. The Clerk's Office is located on the main floor of the Earl Warren Building in San Francisco. A deputy clerk will escort media representatives to the Witkin Room. This is a pilot program designed to increase access to the court's oral argument sessions.

The Supreme Court's oral argument calendar may be viewed at this link: <http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/courts/calendars/documents/SAPRA09.PDF>.
