Chief Justice to Deliver Address to State Bar Annual Meeting

WHAT: California Chief Justice Ronald M. George will reflect on his service to the courts and the accomplishments and challenges of the judicial branch during his final address to the State Bar of California at its annual meeting. The Chief Justice announced on July 14, 2010, that he is not seeking reconfirmation to his office in the November 2010 election, after 38 years on the bench and 45 years in public service. His last day in office will be January 2, 2011.

WHEN: Saturday, September 25, 2010
Speech to start at approximately 11:00 a.m.

WHERE: California Judges Association/State Board of Governors
Joint Swearing-in Ceremony
Hyatt Regency Monterey
One Old Golf Course Road, Monterey

OTHER EVENTS: Chief Justice George spoke this morning at the Bench-Bar Coalition fall 2010 meeting, and later today will speak and present awards at events honoring the bar's Public Lawyer of the Year and Pro Bono Award winners. On Saturday, he will make remarks and present awards at the Diversity Awards Reception.
