Court of Appeal to Hold Special Session at Southwestern Law School

Los Angeles—Students from Southwestern Law School will hear oral arguments before the Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, Division Four, at 9 a.m. on Thursday, February 8, 2007, Presiding Justice Norman Epstein announced today. The public is invited to attend.

This visit is designed to introduce first-year law students to the appellate court system. Case summaries prepared by the court will be distributed before oral argument.

As part of the educational program, the justices will attend a luncheon with students.

The program arrangements are a collaborative effort of Presiding Justice Epstein; Associate Justices Thomas Willhite, Nora Manella, and Steven Suzukawa of the Court of Appeal; Greg Mohrman, president of the Student Bar Association; and Bryant Garth, dean of Southwestern Law School.
