Orange County Juvenile Court Administrative Order A-300-1-2014

Re: Delinquency Compliance Review and Wardship Status Review Hearings

In an effort to provide judicial officers with the opportunity to review the status of minors after they are declared wards, Compliance Review or Wardship Status Review hearings shall be set on Juvenile Delinquency cases when there are no other future scheduled hearings, excluding Financial Hearings. The intent is to ensure minors receive the necessary support to achieve rehabilitation and to avoid unnecessary delays in the closing of cases.

These will be non-appearance hearings set at the judicial officers' discretion, and shall be set no later than two (2) years after a minor is declared a ward, or from the last hearing date. Probation reports will be prepared for these hearings. The Probation Department's Information to Court (ICO) reports will be acceptable.

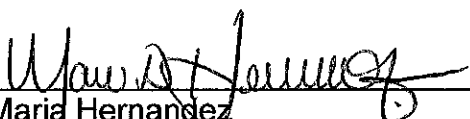

Compliance Review hearings shall be set on cases where there are commitments to Juvenile Hall or conditional orders.

Wardship Status Review hearings shall be set on cases where there are no commitments to Juvenile Hall or conditional orders.

If it is determined that Wardship should terminate prior to the Compliance Review or Wardship Status Review hearing, a Recommendation to Terminate Wardship may be submitted to the Court for consideration prior to the hearing date.

This Juvenile Court Administrative Order is to remain in effect until otherwise ordered by the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court.

Dated this 18th day of November 2014.

Maria Hernandez
Presiding Judge of Juvenile Court
