Subject: Comment on the SEC Report

While I truly appreciate all of the comments regarding caution on immediately moving forward with the SEC recommendations, reforms are way over due. I whole-heartedly endorse immediately moving forward with the recommendations. There has already been much discussion over the last few years on what to do with the problems besetting our judiciary. We must not wait any longer. In the movie, The Shawshank Redemption, Andy tells Red, "It comes down to a simple choice, get busy living or get busy dying." We are dying as the third branch of government. We need to get busy living.
