PREFACE

2
3 Formal standards of judicial conduct have existed for more than 50 years. The original
4 Canons of Judicial Ethics promulgated by the American Bar Association were modified
5 and adopted in 1949 for application in California by the Conference of California Judges
6 (now the California Judges Association).

7
8 In 1969, the American Bar Association determined that current needs and problems
9 warranted revision of the canons. In the revision process, a special American Bar
10 Association committee, headed by former California Chief Justice Roger Traynor, sought 11 and considered the views of the bench and bar and other interested persons. The 12 American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct was adopted by the House of 13 Delegates of the American Bar Association August 16, 1972.

15 Effective January 5, 1975, the California Judges Association adopted a new California
16 Code of Judicial Conduct adapted from the American Bar Association 1972 Model Code.
17 The California code was recast in gender-neutral form in 1986.

19 In 1990, the American Bar Association Model Code was further revised after a lengthy 20 study. The California Judges Association again reviewed the model code and adopted a 21 revised California Code of Judicial Conduct on October 5, 1992.

23 Proposition 190 (amending Cal. Const., art. VI, § 18(m), effective March 1, 1995) created 24 a new constitutional provision that states, “The Supreme Court shall make rules for the 25 conduct of judges, both on and off the bench, and for judicial candidates in the conduct of 26 their campaigns. These rules shall be referred to as the Code of Judicial Ethics.”

28 The Supreme Court formally adopted the 1992 Code of Judicial Conduct in March 1995, 29 as a transitional measure pending further review.

31 The Supreme Court formally adopted the Code of Judicial Ethics effective January 15, 32 1996.

34 The Supreme Court has formally adopted amendments to the Code of Judicial Ethics on 35 several occasions. The Advisory Committee Commentary is published by the Supreme 36 Court Advisory Committee on the Code of Judicial Ethics.

1 PREAMBLE

3 Our legal system is based on the principle that an independent, fair, and competent 4 judiciary will interpret and apply the laws that govern us. The role of the judiciary is 5 central to American concepts of justice and the rule of law. Intrinsic to this code are the 6 precepts that judges, individually and collectively, must respect and honor the judicial 7 office as a public trust and strive to enhance and maintain confidence in our legal system.
8 The judge is an arbiter of facts and law for the resolution of disputes and a highly visible
9 member of government under the rule of law.

11 The Code of Judicial Ethics (“code”) establishes standards for ethical conduct of judges
12 on and off the bench and for candidates for judicial office.* The code consists of broad 13 declarations called canons, with subparts, and a terminology section. Following each 14 canon is a commentary section prepared by the Supreme Court Advisory Committee on 15 the Code of Judicial Ethics. The commentary, by explanation and example, provides 16 guidance as to the purpose and meaning of the canons. The commentary does not 17 constitute additional rules and should not be so construed. All members of the judiciary 18 must comply with the code. Compliance is required to preserve the integrity* of the 19 bench and to ensure the confidence of the public.

21 The canons should be read together as a whole, and each provision should be construed in 22 context and consistent with every other provision. They are to be applied in conformance
23 with constitutional requirements, statutes, other court rules, and decisional law. Nothing 24 in the code shall either impair the essential independence* of judges in making judicial 25 decisions or provide a separate basis for civil liability or criminal prosecution.

26
27 The code governs the conduct of judges and candidates for judicial office* and is binding
28 upon them. Whether disciplinary action is appropriate, and the degree of discipline to be 29 imposed, requires a reasoned application of the text and consideration of such factors as 30 the seriousness of the transgression, whether there is a pattern of improper activity, and 31 the effect of the improper activity on others or on the judicial system.

TERMINOLOGY

Terms explained below are noted with an asterisk (*) in the canons where they appear. In addition, the canons in which terms appear are cited after the explanation of each term below.

“Candidate for judicial office” is a person seeking election to or retention of judicial office. A person becomes a candidate for judicial office as soon as he or she makes a public announcement of candidacy, declares or files as a candidate with the election authority, or authorizes solicitation or acceptance of contributions or support. See Preamble and Canons 3E(2)(b)(i), 3E(3)(a), 5, 5A, 5A (Commentary), 5B(1), 5B(2), 5B(3), 5B (Commentary), 5C, 5D, and 6E.

“Fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian. See Canons 3E(5)(d), 4E(1), 4E(2), 4E(3), 4E (Commentary), 6B, and 6F (Commentary).

“Gift” denotes anything of value to the extent that consideration of equal or greater value is not received and includes a rebate or discount in the price of anything of value unless the rebate or discount is made in the regular course of business to members of the public without regard to official status. See Canons 4D(5), 4D(5) (Commentary), 4D(6), 4D(6)(a), 4D(6)(b), 4D(6)(b) (Commentary), 4D(6)(d), 4D(6)(f), 4H (Commentary), 5A (Commentary), 6D(2)(c), and 6D(7).

“Impartial,” “impartiality,” and “impartially” mean absence of bias or prejudice in favor of, or against, particular parties or classes of parties, as well as maintenance of an open mind in considering issues that may come before a judge. See Canons 1, 1 (Commentary), 2A, 2A (Commentary), 2B (Commentary), 2C (Commentary), 3, 3B(9) (Commentary), 3B(10) (Commentary), 3B(12), 3B(12) (Commentary), 3C(1), 3C(5), 3E(4)(b), 3E(4)(c), 4A(1), 4A (Commentary), 4C(3)(b) (Commentary), 4C(3)(c) (Commentary), 4D(1) (Commentary), 4D(6)(a) (Commentary), 4D(6)(b) (Commentary), 4D(6)(g) (Commentary), 4H (Commentary), 5, 5A, 5A (Commentary), 5B (Commentary), 6D(2)(a), and 6D(3)(vii).

“Impending proceeding” is a proceeding or matter that is imminent or expected to occur in the near future. The words “proceeding” and “matter” are used interchangeably, and are intended to have the same meaning. See Canons 3B(7), 3B(7)(a), 3B(9), 3B(9) (Commentary), 4H (Commentary), and 6D(6). “Pending proceeding” is defined below.

5 those established by law. See Preamble, Canons 1, 1 (Commentary), 4C(2)
6 (Commentary), 4D(6)(a) (Commentary), 4D(6)(g) (Commentary), 4H(3)
7 (Commentary), 5, 5A (Commentary), 5B (Commentary), and 6D(1).

8

9 “Integrity” means probity, fairness, honesty, uprightness, and soundness of 10 character. See Preamble, Canons 1, 1 (Commentary), 2A, 2A (Commentary), 2B

19 (Commentary), 6D(4) (Commentary), and 6D(5)(a).

20

21 “Law” denotes court rules as well as statutes, constitutional provisions, and 22 decisional law. See Canons 1 (Commentary), 2A, 2C (Commentary), 3A, 3B(2), 24 4C(3)(c) (Commentary), 4F, and 4H.

26 “Law, the legal system, or the administration of justice.” When a judge engages in 27 an activity that relates to the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, 28 the judge should also consider factors such as whether the activity upholds the 29 integrity, impartiality, and independence of the judiciary (Canons 1 and 2A),
30 whether it impairs public confidence in the judiciary (Canon 2), whether the judge
31 is allowing the activity to take precedence over judicial duties (Canon 3A), and 32 whether engaging in the activity would cause the judge to be disqualified (Canon
33 4A(4)). See Canons 4B (Commentary), 4C(1), 4C(1) (Commentary), 4C(2), 4C(2)
34 (Commentary), 4C(3)(a), 4C(3)(b) (Commentary), 4C(3)(d)(ii), 4C(3)(d)

37

38 “Member of the judge’s family” denotes a spouse, registered domestic partner,

40 judge maintains a close familial relationship. See Canons 2B(3)(c), 2B
41 (Commentary), 4C(3)(d)(i), 4D(1) (Commentary), 4D(2), 4D(5) (Commentary), 42 4E(1), and 4G (Commentary).

2 spouse or registered domestic partner and those persons who reside in the judge’s 3 household and who are relatives of the judge including relatives by marriage, or 4 persons with whom the judge maintains a close familial relationship. See Canons
5 4D(5), 4D(5) (Commentary), 4D(6), 4D(6)(b) (Commentary), 4D(6)(f) and 6 6D(2)(c).

8 “Nonprofit youth organization” is any nonprofit corporation or association, not 9 organized for the private gain of any person, whose purposes are irrevocably 10 dedicated to benefiting and serving the interests of minors and that maintains its 11 nonprofit status in accordance with applicable state and federal tax laws. See 12 Canons 2C, 2C (Commentary), and 6D(5)(b).

14 “Nonpublic information” denotes information that, by law, is not available to the 15 public. Nonpublic information may include, but is not limited to, information that 16 is sealed by statute or court order, impounded, or communicated in camera, and 17 information offered in grand jury proceedings, presentencing reports, dependency
18 cases, or psychiatric reports. See Canons 3B(11) and 6D(8)(a).

20 “Pending proceeding” is a proceeding or matter that has commenced. A 21 proceeding continues to be pending through any period during which an appeal
22 may be filed and any appellate process until final disposition. The words 23 “proceeding” and “matter” are used interchangeably, and are intended to have the 24 same meaning. See Canons 2A (Commentary), 2B(3)(a), 3B(7), 3B(9), 3B(9)
25 (Commentary), 3E(5)(a), 4H (Commentary), and 6D(6). “Impending proceeding” 26 is defined above.

28 “Political organization” denotes a political party, political action committee, or 29 other group, the principal purpose of which is to further the election or 30 appointment of candidates to nonjudicial office. See Canon 5A.

32 “Registered domestic partner” denotes a person who has registered for domestic 33 partnership pursuant to state law or who is recognized as a domestic partner
34 pursuant to Family Code section 299.2. See Canons 3E(5)(d), 3E(5)(e), 3E(5)(i), 36 6D(3)(a)(vi).

38 “Require.” Any canon prescribing that a judge “require” certain conduct of others
39 means that a judge is to exercise reasonable direction and control over the conduct
40 of those persons subject to the judge's direction and control. See Canons 3B(3), 41 3B(4), 3B(6), 3B(8) (Commentary), 3B(9), 3C(3), 6D(1), 6D(2)(a), and 6D(6).

1 “Service organization” includes any organization commonly referred to as a
2 “fraternal organization.” See Canons 3E(5)(d), 4C(2) (Commentary), 4C(3)(b), 3 4C(3)(b) (Commentary), 4C(3)(d) (Commentary), 4D(6)(j), and 6D(2)(b).
4 “Subordinate judicial officer.” A subordinate judicial officer is, for the purposes
5 of this code, a person appointed pursuant to article VI, section 22 of the California
6 Constitution, including, but not limited to, a commissioner, referee, and hearing
7 officer. See Canons 3D(3), 4G (Commentary), and 6A.

8

9 “Temporary Judge.” A temporary judge is an active or inactive member of the bar
10 who, pursuant to article VI, section 21 of the California Constitution, serves or 11 expects to serve as a judge once, sporadically, or regularly on a part-time basis
12 under a separate court appointment for each period of service or for each case
13 heard. See Canons 3E(5)(h), 4C(3)(d)(i), 4C(3)(d) (Commentary), 6A, and 6D.

15 “Third degree of relationship” includes the following persons: great-grandparent, 16 grandparent, parent, uncle, aunt, brother, sister, child, grandchild, great-
17 grandchild, nephew, and niece. See Canons 3E(5)(e), 3E(5)(i), and 6D(3)(a)(v).

CANON 1

A JUDGE SHALL UPHOLD THE INTEGRITY* AND INDEPENDENCE* OF THE JUDICIARY

An independent, impartial,* and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing high standards of conduct, and shall personally observe those standards so that the integrity* and independence* of the judiciary will be preserved. The provisions of this code are to be construed and applied to further that objective. A judicial decision or administrative act later determined to be incorrect legally is not itself a violation of this code.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

Deference to the judgments and rulings of courts depends upon public confidence in the integrity and independence* of judges. The integrity* and independence* of judges depend in turn upon their acting without fear or favor. Although judges should be independent, they must comply with the law* and the provisions of this code. Public confidence in the impartiality* of the judiciary is maintained by the adherence of each judge to this responsibility. Conversely, violations of this code diminish public confidence in the judiciary and thereby do injury to the system of government under law.*

The basic function of an independent, impartial, and honorable judiciary is to maintain the utmost integrity* in decision making, and this code should be read and interpreted with that function in mind.*

A JUDGE SHALL AVOID IMPROPRIETY* AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY* IN ALL OF THE JUDGE’S ACTIVITIES

A. Promoting Public Confidence

A judge shall respect and comply with the law* and shall act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity* and impartiality* of the judiciary. A judge shall not make statements, whether public or nonpublic, that commit the judge with respect to cases, controversies, or issues that are likely to come before the courts or that are inconsistent with the impartial performance of the adjudicative duties of judicial office.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct by judges.

A judge must avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety.* A judge must expect to be the subject of constant public scrutiny. A judge must therefore accept restrictions on the judge's conduct that might be viewed as burdensome by other members of the community and should do so freely and willingly.*

The prohibition against behaving with impropriety or the appearance of impropriety* applies to both the professional and personal conduct of a judge.*

The test for the appearance of impropriety is whether a person aware of the facts might reasonably entertain a doubt that the judge would be able to act with integrity,* impartiality,* and competence.*

As to membership in organizations that practice invidious discrimination, see also Commentary under Canon 2C.

As to judges making statements that commit the judge with respect to cases, controversies, or issues that are likely to come before the courts, see also Canon 3B(9) and its commentary concerning comments about pending proceedings, Canon 3E(3)(a) concerning disqualification of judges who make statements that commit the judge to a particular result, and Canon 5B(1)(a) concerning statements made during an election campaign that commit the candidate to a particular result. In addition, Code of Civil Procedure section 170.2, subdivision (b), provides that, with certain exceptions, a judge is not disqualified on the ground that the judge has, in any capacity, expressed a view on a legal or factual issue presented in the proceeding before the judge.*

3 B. Use of the Prestige of Judicial Office
4

5 (1) A judge shall not allow family, social, political, or other relationships to 6 influence the judge's judicial conduct or judgment, nor shall a judge convey or 7 permit others to convey the impression that any individual is in a special position
8 to influence the judge.

10 (2) A judge shall not lend the prestige of judicial office or use the judicial title in 11 any manner, including any oral or written communication, to advance the 12 pecuniary or personal interests of the judge or others. This canon does not 13 prohibit the following:

15 (a) A judge may testify as a character witness, provided the judge does so only 16 when subpoenaed.

18 (b) A judge may, without a subpoena, provide the Commission on Judicial 19 Performance with a written communication containing (i) factual information 20 regarding a matter pending before the commission, or (ii) information related to 21 the character of a judge who has a matter pending before the commission, 22 provided that any such factual or character information is based on personal
23 knowledge.* In commission proceedings, a judge shall provide information 24 responsive to a subpoena or when officially requested to do so by the commission.
25

26 (c) A judge may provide factual information in State Bar disciplinary proceedings 27 and shall provide information responsive to a subpoena or when officially 28 requested to do so by the State Bar.
29

30 (d) A judge may respond to judicial selection inquiries, provide recommendations 31 (including a general character reference, relating to the evaluation of persons being 32 considered for a judgeship), and otherwise participate in the process of judicial 33 selection.

35 (e) A judge may serve as a reference or provide a letter of recommendation only if 36 based on the judge's personal knowledge* of the individual. These written 37 communications may include the judge's title and may be written on stationery 38 that uses the judicial title.

40 (3) Except as permitted in subdivision (c) or otherwise authorized by law* or these 41 canons:

1 (a) A judge shall not advance the pecuniary or personal interests of the judge or 2 others by initiating communications with a sentencing judge or a representative of 3 a probation department about a proceeding pending* before the sentencing judge,
4 but may provide information in response to an official request. “Sentencing 5 judge” includes a judge who makes a disposition pursuant to Welfare and 6 Institutions Code section 725.

8 (b) A judge, other than the judge who presided over the trial of or sentenced the 9 person seeking parole, pardon, or commutation of sentence, shall not initiate 10 communications with the Board of Parole Hearings regarding parole, or the Office
11 of the Governor regarding parole, pardon, or commutation of sentence, but may 12 provide these entities with information for the record in response to an official

15 (c) A judge may initiate communications concerning a member of the judge’s 16 family* with a representative of a probation department regarding sentencing, the 17 Board of Parole Hearings regarding parole, or the Office of the Governor 18 regarding parole, pardon, or commutation of sentence, provided the judge is not 19 identified as a judge in the communication.

20
21 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

22 A strong judicial branch, based on the prestige that comes from effective 23 and ethical performance, is essential to a system of government in which the 24 judiciary functions independently of the executive and legislative branches.
25 Judges should distinguish between proper and improper use of the prestige of 26 office in all of their activities.

27 As to those communications that are permitted under this canon, a judge
28 must keep in mind the general obligations to maintain high standards of conduct, 29 as set forth in Canon 1, and to avoid any impropriety or the appearance of* 30 impropriety as set forth in Canon 2. A judge must also be mindful of Canon 2A,*
31 which requires a judge to act at all times in a manner that promotes public 32 confidence in the integrity and impartiality* of the courts.*

33 A judge must avoid lending the prestige of judicial office for the 34 advancement of the private interests of the judge or others. For example, a judge 35 must not use the judicial position to gain advantage in a civil suit involving a 36 member of the judge’s family; or use his or her position to gain deferential*
37 treatment when stopped by a police officer for a traffic offense.

38 As to the use of a judge’s title to identify a judge’s role in the presentation
39 and creation of legal education programs and materials, see Commentary to 40 Canon 4B. In contracts for publication of a judge’s writings, a judge should 41 retain control over the advertising, to the extent feasible, to avoid exploitation of 42 the judge’s office. As to the acceptance of awards, see Canon 4D(6).

1 This canon does not afford judges a privilege against testifying in response
2 to any official summons.

3 See also Canons 3D(1) and 3D(2) concerning a judge’s obligation to take 4 appropriate corrective action regarding other judges who violate any provision of 5 the Code of Judicial Ethics and attorneys who violate any provision of the Rules of 6 Professional Conduct.

7 Except as set forth in Canon 2B(3)(a), this canon does not preclude
8 consultations among judges. Additional limitations on such consultations among 9 judges are set forth in Canon 3B(7)(a).

10 C. Membership in Organizations

11
12 A judge shall not hold membership in any organization that practices invidious 13 discrimination on the basis of race, sex, gender, religion, national origin, ethnicity, 14 or sexual orientation.

16 This canon does not apply to membership in a religious organization or an official 17 military organization of the United States. So long as membership does not 18 violate Canon 4A, this canon does not bar membership in a nonprofit youth 19 organization.*

20
21 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

22 Membership of a judge in an organization that practices invidious
23 discrimination gives rise to a perception that the judge’s impartiality is impaired.*
24 This canon exempts membership in religious and military organizations and,
25 *subject to Canon 4A, does not bar membership in nonprofit youth organizations.
26 These exemptions are necessary because membership in United States military 27 organizations is subject to current valid military regulations, and religious beliefs
28 are constitutionally protected. Membership in nonprofit youth organizations is* 29 not barred to accommodate individual rights of intimate association and free
30 expression. See also Canon 3E and its Commentary concerning disqualification 31 and disclosure.

32 Canon 2C refers to the current practices of the organization. Whether an 33 organization practices invidious discrimination is often a complex question to 34 which judges should be sensitive. The answer cannot be determined from a mere 35 examination of an organization’s current membership rolls but rather depends on 36 how the organization selects members and other relevant factors, such as whether 37 the organization is dedicated to the preservation of religious, ethnic, or cultural 38 values of legitimate common interest to its members, or whether it is in fact and 39 effect an intimate, purely private organization whose membership limitations
40 could not be constitutionally prohibited. Absent such factors, an organization is 41 generally said to discriminate invidiously if it arbitrarily excludes from 42 membership on the basis of race, religion, sex, gender, national origin, ethnicity, 43 or sexual orientation persons who would otherwise be admitted to membership.

1 Although Canon 2C relates only to membership in organizations that
2 invidiously discriminate on the basis of race, sex, gender, religion, national origin,
3 ethnicity, or sexual orientation, a judge’s membership in an organization that 4 engages in any discriminatory membership practices prohibited by law also* 5 violates Canon 2 and Canon 2A and gives the appearance of impropriety. In* 6 addition, it would be a violation of Canon 2 and Canon 2A for a judge to arrange
7 a meeting at a club that the judge knows practices such invidious discrimination*
8 or for the judge to use such a club regularly. Moreover, public manifestation by a 9 judge of the judge’s knowing approval of invidious discrimination on any basis*
10 gives the appearance of impropriety under Canon 2 and diminishes public* 11 confidence in the integrity and impartiality* of the judiciary in violation of* 12 Canon 2A.

A JUDGE SHALL PERFORM THE DUTIES OF JUDICIAL OFFICE IMPARTIALLY,* COMPETENTLY, AND DILIGENTLY

A. Judicial Duties in General

All of the judicial duties prescribed by law* shall take precedence over all other activities of every judge. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply.

B. Adjudicative Responsibilities

(1) A judge shall hear and decide all matters assigned to the judge except those in which he or she is disqualified.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

Canon 3B(1) is based upon the affirmative obligation contained in Code of Civil Procedure section 170.

(2) A judge shall be faithful to the law* regardless of partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism, and shall maintain professional competence in the law.*

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

Competence in the performance of judicial duties requires the legal knowledge, skill, thoroughness, and preparation reasonably necessary to perform a judge's responsibilities of judicial office. Canon 1 provides that an incorrect legal ruling is not itself a violation of this code.*

(3) A judge shall require* order and decorum in proceedings before the judge.

(4) A judge shall be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom the judge deals in an official capacity, and shall require* similar conduct of lawyers and of all staff and court personnel under the judge's direction and control.

(5) A judge shall perform judicial duties without bias or prejudice. A judge shall not, in the performance of judicial duties, engage in speech, gestures, or other conduct that would reasonably be perceived as (1) bias or prejudice, including but not limited to bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, gender, religion, national

1 origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status, socioeconomic
2 status, or political affiliation, or (2) sexual harassment.

4 (6) A judge shall require* lawyers in proceedings before the judge to refrain from 5 manifesting, by words or conduct, bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, gender, 6 religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital 7 status, socioeconomic status, or political affiliation against parties, witnesses,
8 counsel, or others. This canon does not preclude legitimate advocacy when race,
9 sex, gender, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation,
10 marital status, socioeconomic status, political affiliation, or other similar factors
11 are issues in the proceeding.

13 (7) A judge shall accord to every person who has a legal interest in a proceeding,
14 or that person’s lawyer, full right to be heard according to law.* Unless otherwise
15 authorized by law,* a judge shall not independently investigate facts in a 16 proceeding and shall consider only the evidence presented or facts that may be 17 properly judicially noticed. This prohibition extends to information available in 18 all media, including electronic. A judge shall not initiate, permit, or consider ex
19 parte communications, that is, any communications to or from the judge outside 20 the presence of the parties concerning a pending* or impending* proceeding, and 21 shall make reasonable efforts to avoid such communications, except as follows:

23 (a) Except as stated below, a judge may consult with other judges. A judge shall 24 not engage in discussions about a case with a judge who has previously been 25 disqualified from hearing that matter; likewise, a judge who knows* he or she is or 26 would be disqualified from hearing a case shall not discuss that matter with the 27 judge assigned to the case. A judge also shall not engage in discussions with a 28 judge who may participate in appellate review of the matter, nor shall a judge who 29 may participate in appellate review of a matter engage in discussions with the 30 judge presiding over the case.

32 A judge may consult with court personnel or others authorized by law,* so long as 33 the communication relates to that person’s duty to aid the judge in carrying out the 34 judge’s adjudicative responsibilities.

36 In any discussion with judges or court personnel, the judge shall make reasonable 37 efforts to avoid receiving factual information that is not part of the record or an 38 evaluation of that factual information. In such consultations, the judge shall not 39 abrogate the responsibility personally to decide the matter.

40
41 For purposes of Canon 3B(7)(a), “court personnel” includes bailiffs, court
42 reporters, court externs, research attorneys, courtroom clerks, and other employees

1 of the court, but does not include the lawyers in a proceeding before a judge,
2 persons who are appointed by the court to serve in some capacity in a proceeding,
3 or employees of other governmental entities, such as lawyers, social workers, or 4 representatives of the probation department.

6
7 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

8 Regarding communications between a judge presiding over a matter and a 9 judge of a court with appellate jurisdiction over that matter, see also Government
10 Code section 68070.5

11 Though a judge may have ex parte discussions with appropriate court
12 personnel, a judge may do so only on matters that are within the proper
13 performance of that person's duties. For example, a bailiff may inform the judge
14 of a threat to the judge or to the safety and security of the courtroom, but may not 15 tell the judge ex parte that a defendant was overheard making an incriminating
16 statement during a court recess. A clerk may point out to the judge a technical 17 defect in a proposed sentence, but may not suggest to the judge that a defendant 18 deserves a certain sentence.

19 A sentencing judge may not consult ex parte with a representative of the 20 probation department about a matter pending before the sentencing judge.

21 This canon prohibits a judge from discussing a case with another judge
22 who has already been disqualified. A judge also must be careful not to talk to a 23 judge whom the judge knows would be disqualified from hearing the matter.*

24
25 (b) A judge may initiate, permit, or consider ex parte communications, where 26 circumstances require, for scheduling, administrative purposes, or emergencies 27 that do not deal with substantive matters provided:

28
29 (i) the judge reasonably believes that no party will gain a procedural or 30 tactical advantage as a result of the ex parte communication, and

31
32 (ii) the judge makes provision promptly to notify all other parties of the 33 substance of the ex parte communication and allows an opportunity to 34 respond.

36 (c) A judge may initiate, permit, or consider any ex parte communication when 37 expressly authorized by law* to do so or when authorized to do so by stipulation 38 of the parties.

40 (d) If a judge receives an unauthorized ex parte communication bearing upon the 41 substance of a matter, the judge shall make provision promptly to notify the parties
42 of the substance of the communication and provide the parties with an opportunity 43 to respond.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

An exception allowing a judge, under certain circumstances, to obtain the advice of a disinterested expert on the law has been eliminated from Canon 3B(7) because consulting with legal experts outside the presence of the parties is inconsistent with core tenets of the adversarial system. Therefore, a judge shall not consult with legal experts outside the presence of the parties. Evidence Code section 730 provides for the appointment of an expert if a judge determines that expert testimony is necessary. A court may also invite the filing of amicus curiae briefs.*

An exception allowing a judge to confer with the parties separately in an effort to settle the matter before the judge has been moved from this canon to Canon 3B(12).

This canon does not prohibit court personnel from communicating scheduling information or carrying out similar administrative functions.

A judge is statutorily authorized to investigate and consult witnesses informally in small claims cases. Code of Civil Procedure section 116.520, subdivision (c).

(8) A judge shall dispose of all judicial matters fairly, promptly, and efficiently. A judge shall manage the courtroom in a manner that provides all litigants the opportunity to have their matters fairly adjudicated in accordance with the law.*

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

The obligation of a judge to dispose of matters promptly and efficiently must not take precedence over the judge's obligation to dispose of the matters fairly and with patience. For example, when a litigant is self-represented, a judge has the discretion to take reasonable steps, appropriate under the circumstances and consistent with the law and the canons, to enable the litigant to be heard. A judge should monitor and supervise cases so as to reduce or eliminate dilatory practices, avoidable delays, and unnecessary costs.*

Prompt disposition of the court's business requires a judge to devote adequate time to judicial duties, to be punctual in attending court and expeditious in determining matters under submission, and to require that court officials, litigants, and their lawyers cooperate with the judge to that end.*

(9) A judge shall not make any public comment about a pending* or impending* proceeding in any court, and shall not make any nonpublic comment that might substantially interfere with a fair trial or hearing. The judge shall require* similar abstention on the part of staff and court personnel subject to the judge's direction and control. This canon does not prohibit judges from making statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining the procedures of the court, and does not apply to proceedings in which the judge is a litigant in a personal

1 capacity. Other than cases in which the judge has personally participated, this 2 canon does not prohibit judges from discussing in legal education programs and 3 materials, cases and issues pending in appellate courts. This educational 4 exemption does not apply to cases over which the judge has presided or to 5 comments or discussions that might interfere with a fair hearing of the case.
6

7 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

8 The requirement that judges abstain from public comment regarding a 9 pending or impending* proceeding continues during any appellate process and* 10 until final disposition. A judge shall make reasonable efforts to ascertain whether 11 a case is pending or impending* before commenting on it. This canon does not* 12 prohibit a judge from commenting on proceedings in which the judge is a litigant 13 in a personal capacity, but in cases such as a writ of mandamus where the judge is 14 a litigant in an official capacity, the judge must not comment publicly.

15 “Making statements in the course of their official duties” and “explaining 16 the procedures of the court” include providing an official transcript or partial 17 official transcript of a court proceeding open to the public and explaining the 18 rules of court and procedures related to a decision rendered by a judge.

19 Although this canon does not prohibit a judge from commenting on cases 20 that are not pending or impending* in any court, a judge must be cognizant of* 21 the general prohibition in Canon 2 against conduct involving impropriety or the* 22 appearance of impropriety. A judge should also be aware of the mandate in* 23 Canon 2A that a judge must act at all times in a manner that promotes public
24 confidence in the integrity and impartiality* of the judiciary. In addition, when* 25 commenting on a case pursuant to this canon, a judge must maintain high 26 standards of conduct, as set forth in Canon 1.

27 *Although a judge is permitted to make nonpublic comments about pending 28 or impending cases that will not substantially interfere with a fair trial or* 29 hearing, the judge should be cautious when making any such comments. There is 30 always a risk that a comment can be misheard, misinterpreted, or repeated. A 31 judge making such a comment must be mindful of the judge’s obligation under 32 Canon 2A to act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the 33 integrity and impartiality* of the judiciary. When a judge makes a nonpublic* 34 comment about a case pending before that judge, the judge must keep an open* 35 mind and not form an opinion prematurely or create the appearance of having 36 formed an opinion prematurely.

37
38 (10) A judge shall not commend or criticize jurors for their verdict other than in a 39 court order or opinion in a proceeding, but may express appreciation to jurors for 40 their service to the judicial system and the community.

41 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

1 Commending or criticizing jurors for their verdict may imply a judicial 2 expectation in future cases and may impair a juror’s ability to be fair and
3 impartial in a subsequent case.*
4

5 (11) A judge shall not disclose or use, for any purpose unrelated to judicial duties,
6 nonpublic information* acquired in a judicial capacity.

7
8 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

9 This canon makes it clear that judges cannot make use of information from 10 affidavits, jury results, or court rulings, before they become public information, in 11 order to gain a personal advantage.
12

13 (12) A judge may participate in settlement conferences or in other efforts to 14 resolve matters in dispute, including matters pending before the judge. A judge 15 may, with the express consent of the parties or their lawyers, confer separately
16 with the parties and/or their lawyers during such resolution efforts. At all times 17 during such resolution efforts, a judge shall remain impartial* and shall not engage 18 in conduct that may reasonably be perceived as coercive.

19
20 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

21 While the judge plays an important role in overseeing efforts to resolve 22 disputes, including conducting settlement discussions, a judge should be careful 23 that efforts to resolve disputes do not undermine any party’s right to be heard 24 *according to law.

25 The judge should keep in mind the effect that the judge’s participation in 26 dispute resolution efforts may have on the judge’s impartiality or the appearance*
27 of impartiality if the case remains with the judge for trial after resolution efforts*
28 are unsuccessful. Accordingly, a judge may wish to consider: (1) whether the 29 parties or their counsel have requested or objected to the participation by the trial 30 judge in such discussions; (2) whether the parties and their counsel are relatively 31 sophisticated in legal matters or the particular legal issues involved in the case;
32 (3) whether a party is unrepresented; (4) whether the case will be tried by the 33 judge or a jury; (5) whether the parties will participate with their counsel in 34 settlement discussions and, if so, the effect of personal contact between the judge 35 and parties; and (6) whether it is appropriate during the settlement conference for 36 the judge to express an opinion on the merits or worth of the case or express an 37 opinion on the legal issues that the judge may later have to rule upon.

38 If a judge assigned to preside over a trial believes participation in 39 resolution efforts could influence the judge’s decision making during trial, the 40 judge may decline to engage in such efforts.

41 Where dispute resolution efforts of any type are unsuccessful, the judge
42 should consider whether, due to events that occurred during the resolution efforts,

1 the judge may be disqualified under the law from presiding over the trial. See,*
2 e.g., Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1, subdivision (a)(6)(A).

4 C. Administrative Responsibilities

6 (1) A judge shall diligently discharge the judge’s administrative responsibilities 7 impartially,* on the basis of merit, without bias or prejudice, free of conflict of 8 interest, and in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity* of the 9 judiciary. A judge shall not, in the performance of administrative duties, engage 10 in speech, gestures, or other conduct that would reasonably be perceived as (i) bias
11 or prejudice, including but not limited to bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, 12 gender, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, 13 marital status, socioeconomic status, or political affiliation, or (ii) sexual 14 harassment.

16 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

17 In considering what constitutes a conflict of interest under this canon, a 18 judge should be informed by Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1, subdivision 19 (a)(6).

20 (2) A judge shall maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and 21 shall cooperate with other judges and court officials in the administration of court 22 business.

24 (3) A judge shall require* staff and court personnel under the judge’s direction and 25 control to observe appropriate standards of conduct and to refrain from 26 manifesting bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, gender, religion, national 27 origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status, socioeconomic 28 status, or political affiliation in the performance of their official duties.

30 (4) A judge with supervisory authority for the judicial performance of other judges
31 shall take reasonable measures to ensure the prompt disposition of matters before 32 them and the proper performance of their other judicial responsibilities.

34 (5) A judge shall not make unnecessary court appointments. A judge shall 35 exercise the power of appointment impartially,* on the basis of merit, without bias
36 or prejudice, free of conflict of interest, and in a manner that promotes public 37 confidence in the integrity* of the judiciary. A judge shall avoid nepotism and 38 favoritism. A judge shall not approve compensation of appointees above the 39 reasonable value of services rendered.

41 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

42 Appointees of a judge include assigned counsel and officials such as 43 referees, commissioners, special masters, receivers, and guardians. Consent by

1 the parties to an appointment or an award of compensation does not relieve the 2 judge of the obligation prescribed by Canon 3C(5).

3
4 D. Disciplinary Responsibilities

5
6 (1) Whenever a judge has reliable information that another judge has violated any 7 provision of the Code of Judicial Ethics, the judge shall take appropriate corrective 8 action, which may include reporting the violation to the appropriate authority.
9 (See Commentary following Canon 3D(2).)

11 (2) Whenever a judge has personal knowledge,* or concludes in a judicial 12 decision, that a lawyer has committed misconduct or has violated any provision of 13 the Rules of Professional Conduct, the judge shall take appropriate corrective 14 action, which may include reporting the violation to the appropriate authority.

15
16 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

17 Appropriate corrective action could include direct communication with the 18 judge or lawyer who has committed the violation, other direct action, such as a 19 confidential referral to a judicial or lawyer assistance program, or a report of the 20 violation to the presiding judge, appropriate authority, or other agency or body.
21 Judges should note that in addition to the action required by Canon 3D(2),
22 California law imposes mandatory additional reporting requirements on judges
23 regarding lawyer misconduct. See Business and Professions Code section 6086.7.
24 “Appropriate authority” denotes the authority with responsibility for 25 initiation of the disciplinary process with respect to a violation to be reported.

26
27 (3) A judge shall promptly report in writing to the Commission on Judicial 28 Performance when he or she is charged in court by misdemeanor citation, 29 prosecutorial complaint, information, or indictment, with any crime in the United 30 States as specified below. Crimes that must be reported are: (1) all crimes, other 31 than those that would be considered misdemeanors not involving moral turpitude
32 or infractions under California law; and (2) all misdemeanors involving violence 33 (including assaults), the use or possession of controlled substances, the misuse of 34 prescriptions, or the personal use or furnishing of alcohol. A judge also shall 35 promptly report in writing upon conviction of such crimes.

37 If the judge is a retired judge serving in the Assigned Judges Program, he or she 38 shall promptly report such information in writing to the Chief Justice rather than to 39 the Commission on Judicial Performance. If the judge is a subordinate judicial 40 officer,* he or she shall promptly report such information in writing to both the 41 presiding judge of the court in which the subordinate judicial officer* sits and the 42 Commission on Judicial Performance.

1 (4) A judge shall cooperate with judicial and lawyer disciplinary agencies.

2
3 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

4 See Government Code section 68725, which requires judges to cooperate
5 with and give reasonable assistance and information to the Commission on 6 Judicial Performance, and rule 104 of the Rules of the Commission on Judicial 7 Performance, which requires a respondent judge to cooperate with the 8 commission in all proceedings in accordance with section 68725.
9

10 (5) A judge shall not retaliate, directly or indirectly, against a person known* or 11 suspected to have assisted or cooperated with an investigation of a judge or a 12 lawyer.

14 E. Disqualification and Disclosure

15
16 (1) A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in any proceeding in which 17 disqualification is required by law.*
18

19 (2) In all trial court proceedings, a judge shall disclose on the record as follows:
20

21 (a) Information relevant to disqualification

22 A judge shall disclose information that is reasonably relevant to the question of 23 disqualification under Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1, even if the judge 24 believes there is no actual basis for disqualification.
25

26 (b) Campaign contributions in trial court elections
27

28 (i) Information required to be disclosed
29

30 In any matter before a judge who is or was a candidate for judicial office* in a trial
31 court election, the judge shall disclose any contribution or loan of $100 or more 32 from a party, individual lawyer, or law office or firm in that matter as required by 33 this canon, even if the amount of the contribution or loan would not require 34 disqualification. Such disclosure shall consist of the name of the contributor or 35 lender, the amount of each contribution or loan, the cumulative amount of the 36 contributor's contributions or lender's loans, and the date(s) of each contribution
37 or loan. The judge shall make reasonable efforts to obtain current information 38 regarding contributions or loans received by his or her campaign and shall disclose 39 the required information on the record.
40

41 (ii) Manner of disclosure

1
2 The judge shall ensure that the required information is conveyed on the record to 3 the parties and lawyers appearing in the matter before the judge. The judge has 4 discretion to select the manner of disclosure, but the manner used shall avoid the 5 appearance that the judge is soliciting campaign contributions.
6

7 (iii) Timing of disclosure
8

9 Disclosure shall be made at the earliest reasonable opportunity after receiving each 10 contribution or loan. The duty commences no later than one week after receipt of 11 the first contribution or loan, and continues for a period of two years after the 12 candidate takes the oath of office, or two years from the date of the contribution or 13 loan, whichever event is later.
14

15 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

16 Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1(a)(9)(C) requires a judge to 17 “disclose any contribution from a party or lawyer in a matter that is before the 18 court that is required to be reported under subdivision (f) of Section 84211 of the 19 Government Code, even if the amount would not require disqualification under 20 this paragraph.” This statute further provides that the “manner of disclosure 21 shall be the same as that provided in Canon 3E of the Code of Judicial Ethics.”
22 Canon 3E(2)(b) sets forth the information the judge must disclose, the manner for 23 making such disclosure, and the timing thereof.

24 “Contribution” includes monetary and in-kind contributions. See Cal.
25 Code Regs., tit. 2, § 18215, subd. (b)(3). See generally Government Code section 26 84211(f).

27 Disclosure of campaign contributions is intended to provide parties and 28 lawyers appearing before a judge during and after a judicial campaign with easy 29 access to information about campaign contributions that may not require 30 disqualification but could be relevant to the question of disqualification of the 31 judge. Depending upon the circumstances, the judge may conclude that the most 32 effective and efficient manner of providing disclosure is to state the required
33 information on the record in open court. In the alternative, a judge may determine 34 that it is more appropriate to disclose on the record that parties and lawyers may 35 obtain the required information at an easily accessible location in the courthouse,
36 and provide an opportunity for the parties and lawyers to review the available
37 information.

38 In addition to the disclosure obligations set forth in Canon 3E(2)(b), a
39 judge must, pursuant to Canon 3E(2)(a), disclose on the record any other 40 information that may be relevant to the question of disqualification. As examples, 41 such an obligation may arise as a result of contributions or loans of which the 42 judge is aware made by a party, lawyer, or law office or firm appearing before the

1 judge to a third party in support of the judge or in opposition to the judge's
2 opponent; a party, lawyer, or law office or firm's relationship to the judge or role
3 in the campaign; or the aggregate contributions or loans from lawyers in one law
4 office or firm.

5 Canon 3E(2)(b) does not eliminate the obligation of the judge to recuse
6 where the nature of the contribution or loan, the extent of the contributor's or 7 lender's involvement in the judicial campaign, the relationship of the contributor
8 or lender, or other circumstance requires recusal under Code of Civil Procedure
9 section 170.1, and particularly section 170.1, subdivision (a)(6)(A).

10
11 (3) Judges shall disqualify themselves in accordance with the following:

12
13 (a) Statements that commit the judge to a particular result

14
15 A judge is disqualified if the judge, while a judge or candidate for judicial office,* 16 has made a statement, other than in a court proceeding, judicial decision, or 17 opinion, that a person aware of the facts might reasonably believe commits the 18 judge to reach a particular result or rule in a particular way in a proceeding.

20 (b) Bond ownership

21
22 Ownership of a corporate bond issued by a party to a proceeding and having a fair
23 market value exceeding $1,500 is disqualifying. Ownership of government bonds 24 issued by a party to a proceeding is disqualifying only if the outcome of the 25 proceeding could substantially affect the value of the judge's bond. Ownership in 26 a mutual or common investment fund that holds bonds is not a disqualifying 27 financial interest.

28
29 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

30 The distinction between corporate and government bonds is consistent with 31 the Political Reform Act (see Gov. Code, § 82034), which requires disclosure of 32 corporate bonds, but not government bonds. Canon 3E(3) is intended to assist
33 judges in complying with Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1, subdivision
34 (a)(3) and Canon 3E(5)(d).

36 (4) An appellate justice shall disqualify himself or herself in any proceeding if for 37 any reason:

38
39 (a) the justice believes his or her recusal would further the interests of justice; or

40
41 (b) the justice substantially doubts his or her capacity to be impartial;* or

1 (c) the circumstances are such that a reasonable person aware of the facts would 2 doubt the justice's ability to be impartial.*

3
4 (5) Disqualification of an appellate justice is also required in the following 5 instances:

7 (a) The appellate justice has appeared or otherwise served as a lawyer in the 8 pending* proceeding, or has appeared or served as a lawyer in any other 9 proceeding involving any of the same parties if that other proceeding related to the 10 same contested issues of fact and law as the present proceeding, or has given 11 advice to any party in the present proceeding upon any issue involved in the 12 proceeding.

13
14 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

15 Canon 3E(5)(a) is consistent with Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1, 16 subdivision (a)(2), which addresses disqualification of trial court judges based on

18
19 (b) Within the last two years, (i) a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director or 20 trustee thereof, either was a client of the justice when the justice was engaged in 21 the private practice of law or was a client of a lawyer with whom the justice was 22 associated in the private practice of law; or (ii) a lawyer in the proceeding was 23 associated with the justice in the private practice of law.

25 (c) The appellate justice represented a public officer or entity and personally 26 advised or in any way represented such officer or entity concerning the factual or 27 legal issues in the present proceeding in which the public officer or entity now 28 appears.

30 (d) The appellate justice, or his or her spouse or registered domestic partner,* or a 31 minor child residing in the household, has a financial interest or is a fiduciary* 32 who has a financial interest in the proceeding, or is a director, advisor, or other 33 active participant in the affairs of a party. A financial interest is defined as 34 ownership of more than a 1 percent legal or equitable interest in a party, or a legal 35 or equitable interest in a party of a fair market value exceeding $1,500.
36 Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities does not 37 itself constitute a financial interest; holding office in an educational, religious, 38 charitable, service,* or civic organization does not confer a financial interest in the 39 organization's securities; and a proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual 40 insurance company or mutual savings association or similar interest is not a 41 financial interest unless the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect 42 the value of the interest. A justice shall make reasonable efforts to keep informed

1 about his or her personal and fiduciary* interests and those of his or her spouse or 2 registered domestic partner* and of minor children living in the household.

3
4 (e) The justice or his or her spouse or registered domestic partner,* or a person
5 within the third degree of relationship* to either of them, or the spouse or 6 registered domestic partner* thereof, is a party or an officer, director, or trustee of 7 a party to the proceeding, or a lawyer or spouse or registered domestic partner* of 8 a lawyer in the proceeding is the spouse, registered domestic partner,* former 9 spouse, former registered domestic partner,* child, sibling, or parent of the justice 10 or of the justice's spouse or registered domestic partner,* or such a person is 11 associated in the private practice of law with a lawyer in the proceeding.

13 (f) The justice (i) served as the judge before whom the proceeding was tried or 14 heard in the lower court, (ii) has personal knowledge* of disputed evidentiary 15 facts concerning the proceeding, or (iii) has a personal bias or prejudice
16 concerning a party or a party's lawyer.

18 (g) A temporary or permanent physical impairment renders the justice unable 19 properly to perceive the evidence or conduct the proceedings.

21 (h) The justice has a current arrangement concerning prospective employment or 22 other compensated service as a dispute resolution neutral or is participating in, or,
23 within the last two years has participated in, discussions regarding prospective 24 employment or service as a dispute resolution neutral, or has been engaged in such 25 employment or service, and any of the following applies:

26
27 (i) The arrangement is, or the prior employment or discussion was, with a 28 party to the proceeding;

29
30 (ii) The matter before the justice includes issues relating to the enforcement
31 of either an agreement to submit a dispute to an alternative dispute
32 resolution process or an award or other final decision by a dispute
33 resolution neutral;

35 (iii) The justice directs the parties to participate in an alternative dispute 36 resolution process in which the dispute resolution neutral will be an 37 individual or entity with whom the justice has the arrangement, has 38 previously been employed or served, or is discussing or has discussed the 39 employment or service; or 40

41 (iv) The justice will select a dispute resolution neutral or entity to conduct 42 an alternative dispute resolution process in the matter before the justice, and 43 among those available for selection is an individual or entity with whom the

1 justice has the arrangement, with whom the justice has previously been
2 employed or served, or with whom the justice is discussing or has discussed
3 the employment or service.
4

5 For purposes of Canon 3E(5)(h), “participating in discussions” or “has participated 6 in discussions” means that the justice solicited or otherwise indicated an interest in 7 accepting or negotiating possible employment or service as an alternative dispute
8 resolution neutral or responded to an unsolicited statement regarding, or an offer 9 of, such employment or service by expressing an interest in that employment or 10 service, making any inquiry regarding the employment or service, or encouraging 11 the person making the statement or offer to provide additional information about 12 that possible employment or service. If a justice’s response to an unsolicited 13 statement regarding, a question about, or offer of, prospective employment or 14 other compensated service as a dispute resolution neutral is limited to responding 15 negatively, declining the offer, or declining to discuss such employment or 16 service, that response does not constitute participating in discussions.
17

18 For purposes of Canon 3E(5)(h), “party” includes the parent, subsidiary, or other 19 legal affiliate of any entity that is a party and is involved in the transaction, 20 contract, or facts that gave rise to the issues subject to the proceeding.

22 For purposes of Canon 3E(5)(h), “dispute resolution neutral” means an arbitrator, 23 a mediator, a temporary judge* appointed under section 21 of article VI of the 24 California Constitution, a referee appointed under Code of Civil Procedure section 25 638 or 639, a special master, a neutral evaluator, a settlement officer, or a 26 settlement facilitator.

28 (i) The justice’s spouse or registered domestic partner or a person within the third 29 degree of relationship to the justice or his or her spouse or registered domestic 30 partner,* or the person’s spouse or registered domestic partner,* was a witness in 31 the proceeding.

33 (j) The justice has received a campaign contribution of $5,000 or more from a 34 party or lawyer in a matter that is before the court, and either of the following 35 applies:

37 (i) The contribution was received in support of the justice’s last election, if 38 the last election was within the last six years; or 39

40 (ii) The contribution was received in anticipation of an upcoming election.
41

42 Notwithstanding Canon 3E(5)(j), a justice shall be disqualified based on a 43 contribution of a lesser amount if required by Canon 3E(4).

2 The disqualification required under Canon 3E(5)(j) may be waived if all parties
3 that did not make the contribution agree to waive the disqualification.

4
5 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

6 Canon 3E(1) sets forth the general duty to disqualify applicable to a judge
7 of any court. Sources for determining when recusal or disqualification is 8 appropriate may include the applicable provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 9 other provisions of the Code of Judicial Ethics, the Code of Conduct for United 10 States Judges, the American Bar Association’s Model Code of Judicial Conduct, 11 and related case law.

12 The decision whether to disclose information under Canon 3E(2) is a 13 decision based on the facts of the case before the judge. A judge is required to 14 disclose only information that is related to the grounds for disqualification set 15 forth in Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1.

16 Canon 3E(4) sets forth the general standards for recusal of an appellate 17 justice. The term “appellate justice” includes justices of both the Courts of 18 Appeal and the Supreme Court. Generally, the provisions concerning 19 disqualification of an appellate justice are intended to assist justices in 20 determining whether recusal is appropriate and to inform the public why recusal 21 may occur.

22 However, the rule of necessity may override the rule of disqualification.
23 For example, a judge might be required to participate in judicial review of a 24 judicial salary statute, or might be the only judge available in a matter requiring 25 judicial action, such as a hearing on probable cause or a temporary restraining
26 order. In the latter case, the judge must promptly disclose on the record the basis 27 for possible disqualification and use reasonable efforts to transfer the matter to 28 another judge as soon as practicable.

29 In some instances, membership in certain organizations may have the 30 potential to give an appearance of partiality, although membership in the 31 organization generally may not be barred by Canon 2C, Canon 4, or any other
32 specific canon. A judge holding membership in an organization should disqualify 33 himself or herself whenever doing so would be appropriate in accordance with 34 Canon 3E(1), 3E(4), or 3E(5) or statutory requirements. In addition, in some 35 circumstances, the parties or their lawyers may consider a judge’s membership in 36 an organization relevant to the question of disqualification, even if the judge
37 believes there is no actual basis for disqualification. In accordance with this 38 canon, a judge should disclose to the parties his or her membership in an 39 organization, in any proceeding in which that information is reasonably relevant 40 to the question of disqualification under Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1, 41 even if the judge concludes there is no actual basis for disqualification.

6

A JUDGE SHALL SO CONDUCT THE JUDGE’S QUASI-JUDICIAL AND EXTRAJUDICIAL ACTIVITIES AS TO MINIMIZE THE RISK OF CONFLICT WITH JUDICIAL OBLIGATIONS

8

A. Extrajudicial Activities in General

9 A judge shall conduct all of the judge’s extrajudicial activities so that they do not

- 10
11 (1) cast reasonable doubt on the judge’s capacity to act impartially;*
- 12
13 (2) demean the judicial office;
- 14
15 (3) interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties; or
- 16
17 (4) lead to frequent disqualification of the judge.

18

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

20
21 Complete separation of a judge from extrajudicial activities is neither

22 possible nor wise; a judge should not become isolated from the community in

23 which he or she lives. Expressions of bias or prejudice by a judge, even outside

24 the judge’s judicial activities, may cast reasonable doubt on the judge’s capacity

25 to act impartially as a judge. Expressions that may do so include inappropriate*

26 use of humor or the use of demeaning remarks. See Canon 2C and accompanying

27 Commentary.

28 Because a judge’s judicial duties take precedence over all other activities

29 (see Canon 3A), a judge must avoid extrajudicial activities that might reasonably

30 result in the judge being disqualified.

32

B. Quasi-Judicial and Avocational Activities

33 A judge may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in activities concerning 34 legal and nonlegal subject matters, subject to the requirements of this code.

36

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

37 As a judicial officer and person specially learned in the law, a judge is in*

38 a unique position to contribute to the improvement of the law, the legal system,

39 and the administration of justice, including revision of substantive and*

40 procedural law and improvement of criminal and juvenile justice. To the extent*

41 that time permits, a judge may do so, either independently or through a bar or

42 judicial association or other group dedicated to the improvement of the law. It*

43 may be necessary to promote legal education programs and materials by

1 identifying authors and speakers by judicial title. This is permissible, provided
2 such use of the judicial title does not contravene Canons 2A and 2B.

3 Judges are not precluded by their office from engaging in other social,
4 community, and intellectual endeavors so long as they do not interfere with the 5 obligations under Canons 2C and 4A.

7 C. Governmental, Civic, or Charitable Activities

8
9 (1) A judge shall not appear at a public hearing or officially consult with an 10 executive or legislative body or public official except on matters concerning the 11 law, the legal system, or the administration of justice* or in matters involving the 12 judge’s private economic or personal interests.

14 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

15 When deciding whether to appear at a public hearing or whether to consult 16 with an executive or legislative body or public official on matters concerning the 17 law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, a judge should consider* 18 whether that conduct would violate any other provisions of this code. For a list of 19 factors to consider, see the explanation of “law, the legal system, or the 20 administration of justice” in the terminology section. See also Canon 2B
21 regarding the obligation to avoid improper influence.

22
23 (2) A judge shall not accept appointment to a governmental committee or 24 commission or other governmental position that is concerned with issues of fact or 25 policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the 26 administration of justice.* A judge may, however, serve in the military reserve or 27 represent a national, state, or local government on ceremonial occasions or in 28 connection with historical, educational, or cultural activities.

30 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

31 Canon 4C(2) prohibits a judge from accepting any governmental position 32 except one relating to the law, legal system, or administration of justice as* 33 authorized by Canon 4C(3). The appropriateness of accepting extrajudicial 34 assignments must be assessed in light of the demands on judicial resources and 35 the need to protect the courts from involvement in extrajudicial matters that may 36 prove to be controversial. Judges shall not accept governmental appointments 37 that are likely to interfere with the effectiveness and independence of the* 38 judiciary, or that constitute a public office within the meaning of the California
39 Constitution, article VI, section 17.

40 Canon 4C(2) does not govern a judge’s service in a nongovernmental
41 position. See Canon 4C(3) permitting service by a judge with organizations 42 devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of 43 justice and with educational, religious, charitable, service,* or civic*

1 organizations not conducted for profit. For example, service on the board of a 2 public educational institution, other than a law school, would be prohibited under 3 Canon 4C(2), but service on the board of a public law school or any private
4 educational institution would generally be permitted under Canon 4C(3).

5
6 (3) Subject to the following limitations and the other requirements of this code,

7
8 (a) a judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or nonlegal advisor of an 9 organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the 10 legal system, or the administration of justice* provided that such position does not 11 constitute a public office within the meaning of the California Constitution, article
12 VI, section 17;

14 (b) a judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or nonlegal advisor of an 15 educational, religious, charitable, service,* or civic organization not conducted for 16 profit;

17
18 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

19 Canon 4C(3) does not apply to a judge's service in a governmental position 20 unconnected with the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the 21 administration of justice. See Canon 4C(2).*

22 Canon 4C(3) uses the phrase, "Subject to the following limitations and the 23 other requirements of this code." As an example of the meaning of the phrase, a 24 *judge permitted by Canon 4C(3) to serve on the board of a service organization
25 may be prohibited from such service by Canon 2C or 4A if the institution practices
26 invidious discrimination or if service on the board otherwise casts reasonable 27 doubt on the judge's capacity to act impartially as a judge.*

28 Service by a judge on behalf of a civic or charitable organization may be
29 governed by other provisions of Canon 4 in addition to Canon 4C. For example, a 30 judge is prohibited by Canon 4G from serving as a legal advisor to a civic or 31 charitable organization.

32 Service on the board of a homeowners' association or a neighborhood
33 protective group is proper if it is related to the protection of the judge's own 34 economic interests. See Canons 4D(2) and 4D(4). See Canon 2B regarding the 35 obligation to avoid improper use of the prestige of a judge's office.

36
37 (c) a judge shall not serve as an officer, director, trustee, or nonlegal advisor if it is 38 likely that the organization

40 (i) will be engaged in judicial proceedings that would ordinarily come 41 before the judge, or 42

1 (ii) will be engaged frequently in adversary proceedings in the court of 2 which the judge is a member or in any court subject to the appellate
3 jurisdiction of the court of which the judge is a member.
4

5 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

6 The changing nature of some organizations and of their relationship to the 7 law makes it necessary for the judge regularly to reexamine the activities of each* 8 organization with which the judge is affiliated to determine if it is proper for the 9 judge to continue the affiliation. Some organizations regularly engage in 10 litigation to achieve their goals or fulfill their purposes. Judges should avoid a 11 leadership role in such organizations as it could compromise the appearance of 12 *impartiality.

13
14 (d) a judge as an officer, director, trustee, or nonlegal advisor, or as a member or 15 otherwise

17 (i) may assist such an organization in planning fundraising and may 18 participate in the management and investment of the organization's funds.
19 However, a judge shall not personally participate in the solicitation of funds 20 or other fundraising activities, except that a judge may privately solicit 21 funds for such an organization from members of the judge's family* or 22 from other judges (excluding court commissioners, referees, retired judges, 23 court-appointed arbitrators, hearing officers, and temporary judges*);
24

25 (ii) may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting 26 organizations on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal 27 system, or the administration of justice;*

28
29 (iii) shall not personally participate in membership solicitation if the 30 solicitation might reasonably be perceived as coercive or if the membership 31 solicitation is essentially a fundraising mechanism, except as permitted in 32 Canon 4C(3)(d)(i);
33

34 (iv) shall not permit the use of the prestige of his or her judicial office for 35 fundraising or membership solicitation but may be a speaker, guest of 36 honor, or recipient of an award for public or charitable service provided the 37 judge does not personally solicit funds and complies with Canons 4A(1), 38 (2), (3), and (4).

40 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

41 A judge may solicit membership or endorse or encourage membership
42 efforts for an organization devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal 43 system, or the administration of justice, or a nonprofit educational, religious,*

1 charitable, service, or civic organization as long as the solicitation cannot*
2 reasonably be perceived as coercive and is not essentially a fundraising
3 mechanism. Solicitation of funds or memberships for an organization similarly 4 involves the danger that the person solicited will feel obligated to respond
5 favorably if the solicitor is in a position of influence or control. A judge must not 6 engage in direct, individual solicitation of funds or memberships in person, in 7 writing, or by telephone except in the following cases: (1) a judge may solicit 8 other judges (excluding court commissioners, referees, retired judges, court- 9 appointed arbitrators, hearing officers, and temporary judges) for funds or* 10 memberships; (2) a judge may solicit other persons for membership in the 11 organizations described above if neither those persons nor persons with whom 12 they are affiliated are likely ever to appear before the court on which the judge
13 serves; and (3) a judge who is an officer of such an organization may send a 14 general membership solicitation mailing over the judge’s signature.

15 When deciding whether to make recommendations to public and private 16 fund-granting organizations on projects and programs concerning the law, the 17 legal system, or the administration of justice, a judge should consider whether* 18 that conduct would violate any other provision of this code. For a list of factors to 19 consider, see the explanation of “law, the legal system, or the administration of 20 justice” in the terminology section.

21 Use of an organization letterhead for fundraising or membership
22 solicitation does not violate Canon 4C(3)(d), provided the letterhead lists only the 23 judge’s name and office or other position in the organization, and designates the 24 judge’s judicial title only if other persons whose names appear on the letterhead
25 have comparable designations. In addition, a judge must also make reasonable 26 efforts to ensure that the judge’s staff, court officials, and others subject to the 27 judge’s direction and control do not solicit funds on the judge’s behalf for any 28 purpose, charitable or otherwise.

29
30 (e) A judge may encourage lawyers to provide pro bono publico legal services.

31
32 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

33 In addition to appointing lawyers to serve as counsel for indigent parties in 34 individual cases, a judge may promote broader access to justice by encouraging
35 lawyers to participate in pro bono publico legal services, as long as the judge 36 does not employ coercion or abuse the prestige of judicial office.

37
38 D. Financial Activities

39
40 (1) A judge shall not engage in financial and business dealings that

41
42 (a) may reasonably be perceived to exploit the judge’s judicial position, or

1 (b) involve the judge in frequent transactions or continuing business relationships
2 with lawyers or other persons likely to appear before the court on which the judge 3 serves.

4
5 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

6 The Time for Compliance provision of this code (Canon 6F) postpones the 7 time for compliance with certain provisions of this canon in some cases.

8 A judge must avoid financial and business dealings that involve the judge in 9 frequent transactions or continuing business relationships with persons likely to 10 appear either before the judge personally or before other judges on the judge's 11 court. A judge shall discourage members of the judge's family from engaging in* 12 dealings that would reasonably appear to exploit the judge's judicial position or 13 that involve family members in frequent transactions or continuing business
14 relationships with persons likely to appear before the judge. This rule is 15 necessary to avoid creating an appearance of exploitation of office or favoritism
16 and to minimize the potential for disqualification.

17 Participation by a judge in financial and business dealings is subject to the 18 general prohibitions in Canon 4A against activities that tend to reflect adversely
19 on impartiality, demean the judicial office, or interfere with the proper*
20 performance of judicial duties. Such participation is also subject to the general
21 prohibition in Canon 2 against activities involving impropriety or the* 22 appearance of impropriety and the prohibition in Canon 2B against the misuse of* 23 the prestige of judicial office.

24 In addition, a judge must maintain high standards of conduct in all of the 25 judge's activities, as set forth in Canon 1.

26
27 (2) A judge may, subject to the requirements of this code, hold and manage 28 investments of the judge and members of the judge's family,* including real 29 estate, and engage in other remunerative activities. A judge shall not participate 30 in, nor permit the judge's name to be used in connection with, any business 31 venture or commercial advertising that indicates the judge's title or affiliation with 32 the judiciary or otherwise lend the power or prestige of his or her office to 33 promote a business or any commercial venture.

35 (3) A judge shall not serve as an officer, director, manager, or employee of a 36 business affected with a public interest, including, without limitation, a financial 37 institution, insurance company, or public utility.

38
39 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

40 Although participation by a judge in business activities might otherwise be 41 permitted by Canon 4D, a judge may be prohibited from participation by other 42 provisions of this code when, for example, the business entity frequently appears 43 before the judge's court or the participation requires significant time away from

1 judicial duties. Similarly, a judge must avoid participating in any business activity
2 if the judge's participation would involve misuse of the prestige of judicial office.
3 See Canon 2B.

4
5 (4) A judge shall manage personal investments and financial activities so as to 6 minimize the necessity for disqualification. As soon as reasonably possible, a 7 judge shall divest himself or herself of investments and other financial interests 8 that would require frequent disqualification.

9
10 (5) Under no circumstance shall a judge accept a gift,* bequest, or favor if the 11 donor is a party whose interests have come or are reasonably likely to come before 12 the judge. A judge shall discourage members of the judge's family residing in the 13 judge's household* from accepting similar benefits from parties who have come or 14 are reasonably likely to come before the judge.

15
16 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

17 *In addition to the prohibitions set forth in Canon 4D(5) regarding gifts,
18 other laws may be applicable to judges, including, for example, Code of Civil* 19 Procedure section 170.9 and the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Gov. Code, § 20 81000 et seq.).

21 Canon 4D(5) does not apply to contributions to a judge's campaign for 22 judicial office, a matter governed by Canon 5.

23 Because a gift, bequest, or favor to a member of the judge's family* 24 residing in the judge's household might be viewed as intended to influence the* 25 judge, a judge must inform those family members of the relevant ethical 26 constraints upon the judge in this regard and urge them to take these constraints 27 into account when making decisions about accepting such gifts, bequests, or* 28 favors. A judge cannot, however, reasonably be expected to know or control all of 29 the financial or business activities of all family members residing in the judge's 30 *household.

31 The application of Canon 4D(5) requires recognition that a judge cannot 32 reasonably be expected to anticipate all persons or interests that may come before 33 the court.

34
35 (6) A judge shall not accept and shall discourage members of the judge's family
36 residing in the judge's household* from accepting a gift,* bequest, favor, or loan 37 from anyone except as hereinafter set forth, provided that acceptance would not 38 reasonably be perceived as intended to influence the judge in the performance of 39 judicial duties:

40
41 (a) a gift,* bequest, favor, or loan from a person whose preexisting relationship
42 with a judge would prevent the judge under Canon 3E from hearing a case
43 involving that person;

1 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

2 Upon appointment or election as a judge or within a reasonable period of 3 time thereafter, a judge may attend an event honoring the judge’s appointment or 4 election as a judge provided that (1) the judge would otherwise be disqualified
5 from hearing any matter involving the person or entity holding or funding the 6 event, and (2) a reasonable person would not conclude that attendance at the 7 *event undermines the judge’s integrity, * impartiality, * or independence. **

8

9 (b) a gift* for a special occasion from a relative or friend, if the gift* is fairly 10 commensurate with the occasion and the relationship;

11

12 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

13 A gift to a judge, or to a member of the judge’s family residing in the* 14 *judge’s household, * that is excessive in value raises questions about the judge’s* 15 impartiality and the integrity* of the judicial office and might require* 16 disqualification of the judge where disqualification would not otherwise be

18

19 (c) commercial or financial opportunities and benefits, including special pricing 20 and discounts, and loans from lending institutions in their regular course of 21 business, if the same opportunities and benefits or loans are made available on the 22 same terms to similarly situated persons who are not judges;

23

24 (d) any gift* incidental to a public testimonial, or educational or resource materials
25 supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use, or an invitation 26 to the judge and the judge’s spouse or registered domestic partner* or guest to 27 attend a bar-related function or an activity devoted to the improvement of the law, 28 the legal system, or the administration of justice;*

29

30 (e) advances or reimbursement for the reasonable cost of travel, transportation, 31 lodging, and subsistence that is directly related to participation in any judicial,
32 educational, civic, or governmental program or bar-related function or activity 33 devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of 34 justice;*

35

36 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

37 Acceptance of an invitation to a law-related function is governed by Canon 38 4D(6)(d); acceptance of an invitation paid for by an individual lawyer or group of 39 lawyers is governed by Canon 4D(6)(g). See also Canon 4H(2) and 40 accompanying Commentary.

42 (f) a gift,* award, or benefit incident to the business, profession, or other separate 43 activity of a spouse or registered domestic partner* or other member of the judge’s

1 family residing in the judge’s household,* including gifts,* awards, and benefits
2 for the use of both the spouse or registered domestic partner* or other family
3 member and the judge;

4
5 (g) ordinary social hospitality;

6
7 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

8 Although Canon 4D(6)(g) does not preclude ordinary social hospitality, a 9 judge should carefully weigh acceptance of such hospitality to avoid any 10 appearance of impropriety or bias or any appearance that the judge is misusing*
11 the prestige of judicial office. See Canons 2 and 2B. A judge should also consider 12 whether acceptance would affect the integrity, impartiality,* or independence* of* 13 the judiciary. See Canon 2A.

15 (h) a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms and based on the same 16 criteria applied to other applicants;

18 (i) rewards and prizes given to competitors or participants in random drawings, 19 contests, or other events that are open to persons who are not judges;

21 (j) an invitation to the judge and the judge’s spouse, registered domestic partner,*
22 or guest to attend an event sponsored by an educational, religious, charitable, 23 service,* or civic organization with which the judge is associated or involved, if 24 the same invitation is offered to persons who are not judges and who are similarly 25 engaged with the organization.

26
27 E. Fiduciary* Activities

28
29 (1) A judge shall not serve as executor, administrator, or other personal 30 representative, trustee, guardian, attorney in fact, or other fiduciary,* except for 31 the estate, trust, or person of a member of the judge’s family,* and then only if 32 such service will not interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties.

33
34 (2) A judge shall not serve as a fiduciary* if it is likely that the judge as a 35 fiduciary* will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before the 36 judge, or if the estate, trust, or minor or conservatee becomes engaged in contested 37 proceedings in the court on which the judge serves or one under its appellate 38 jurisdiction.

40 (3) The same restrictions on financial activities that apply to a judge personally
41 also apply to the judge while acting in a fiduciary* capacity.

1 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

2 The Time for Compliance provision of this code (Canon 6F) postpones the
3 time for compliance with certain provisions of this canon in some cases.

4 The restrictions imposed by this canon may conflict with the judge's
5 obligation as a fiduciary. For example, a judge shall resign as trustee if* 6 detriment to the trust would result from divestiture of trust holdings the retention
7 of which would place the judge in violation of Canon 4D(4).

8
9 F. Service as Arbitrator or Mediator

10
11 A judge shall not act as an arbitrator or mediator or otherwise perform judicial 12 functions in a private capacity unless expressly authorized by law.*

13
14 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

15 Canon 4F does not prohibit a judge from participating in arbitration, 16 mediation, or settlement conferences performed as part of his or her judicial 17 duties.

18
19 G. Practice of Law

20
21 A judge shall not practice law.

22

24 This prohibition refers to the practice of law in a representative capacity
25 and not in a pro se capacity. A judge may act for himself or herself in all legal 26 matters, including matters involving litigation and matters involving appearances 27 before or other dealings with legislative and other governmental bodies.
28 However, in so doing, a judge must not abuse the prestige of office to advance the 29 interests of the judge or member of the judge's family. See Canon 2B.*

30 This prohibition applies to subordinate judicial officers, magistrates,*
31 special masters, and judges of the State Bar Court.

32
33 H. Compensation, and Reimbursement, and Honoraria

34
35 A judge may receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses as provided by 36 law* for the extrajudicial activities permitted by this code, if the source of such 37 payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge's performance of 38 judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety.*

39
40 (1) Compensation shall not exceed a reasonable amount nor shall it exceed what a 41 person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

1 (2) Expense reimbursement shall be limited to the actual cost of travel, food,
2 lodging, and other costs reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate
3 to the occasion, by the judge’s spouse or registered domestic partner* or guest.
4 Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.
5

6 (3) No judge shall accept any honorarium. “Honorarium” means any payment 7 made in consideration for any speech given, article published, or attendance at any 8 public or private conference, convention, meeting, social event, meal, or like 9 gathering. “Honorarium” does not include earned income for personal services
10 that are customarily provided in connection with the practice of a bona fide 11 business, trade, or profession, such as teaching or writing for a publisher, and does 12 not include fees or other things of value received pursuant to Penal Code section 13 94.5 for performance of a marriage. For purposes of this canon, “teaching” shall 14 include presentations to impart educational information to lawyers in events
15 qualifying for credit under Mandatory Continuing Legal Education, to students in 16 bona fide educational institutions, and to associations or groups of judges.
17

18 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

19 Judges should not accept compensation or reimbursement of expenses if 20 acceptance would appear to a reasonable person to undermine the judge’s
21 integrity, impartiality,* or independence.

22 A judge must assure himself or herself that acceptance of reimbursement or 23 fee waivers would not appear to a reasonable person to undermine the judge’s
24 independence, integrity,* or impartiality.* The factors a judge should consider* 25 when deciding whether to accept reimbursement or a fee waiver for attendance at 26 a particular activity include:

27
28 (a) whether the sponsor is an accredited educational institution or bar
29 association rather than a trade association or a for-profit entity;

30
31 (b) whether the funding comes largely from numerous contributors rather 32 than from a single entity, and whether the funding is earmarked for 33 programs with specific content;

34
35 (c) whether the content is related or unrelated to the subject matter of a 36 pending or impending* proceeding before the judge, or to matters that are* 37 likely to come before the judge;

38
39 (d) whether the activity is primarily educational rather than recreational, 40 and whether the costs of the event are reasonable and comparable to those 41 associated with similar events sponsored by the judiciary, bar associations, 42 or similar groups;

1 (e) whether information concerning the activity and its funding sources is 2 available upon inquiry;

3
4 (f) whether the sponsor or source of funding is generally associated with 5 particular parties or interests currently appearing or likely to appear in the 6 judge's court, thus possibly requiring disqualification of the judge;

7
8 (g) whether differing viewpoints are presented;

9
10 (h) whether a broad range of judicial and nonjudicial participants are 11 invited; and

12
13 (i) whether the program is designed specifically for judges.

14
15 Judges should be aware of the statutory limitations on accepting gifts.*

CANON 5

A JUDGE OR CANDIDATE FOR JUDICIAL OFFICE* SHALL NOT ENGAGE IN POLITICAL OR CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY THAT IS INCONSISTENT WITH THE INDEPENDENCE*, INTEGRITY*, OR IMPARTIALITY* OF THE JUDICIARY

Judges and candidates for judicial office* are entitled to entertain their personal views on political questions. They are not required to surrender their rights or opinions as citizens. They shall, however, not engage in political activity that may create the appearance of political bias or impropriety.* Judicial independence,* impartiality,* and integrity* shall dictate the conduct of judges and candidates for judicial office.*

Judges and candidates for judicial office* shall comply with all applicable election, election campaign, and election campaign fundraising laws* and regulations.

A. Political Organizations*

Judges and candidates for judicial office* shall not

- (1) act as leaders or hold any office in a political organization;*
- (2) make speeches for a political organization* or candidate for nonjudicial office or publicly endorse or publicly oppose a candidate for nonjudicial office; or
- (3) personally solicit funds for a political organization* or nonjudicial candidate; or make contributions to a political party or political organization* or to a nonjudicial candidate in excess of $500 in any calendar year per political party or political organization* or candidate, or in excess of an aggregate of $1,000 in any calendar year for all political parties or political organizations* or nonjudicial candidates.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

The term “political activity” should not be construed so narrowly as to prevent private comment.

This provision does not prohibit a judge or a candidate for judicial office from signing a petition to qualify a measure for the ballot, provided the judge does not use his or her official title.*

In judicial elections, judges are neither required to shield themselves from campaign contributions nor are they prohibited from soliciting contributions from

1 anyone, including attorneys. Nevertheless, there are necessary limits on judges
2 facing election if the appearance of impropriety* is to be avoided. In soliciting 3 campaign contributions or endorsements, a judge shall not use the prestige of 4 judicial office in a manner that would reasonably be perceived as coercive. See
5 Canons 1, 2, 2A, and 2B. Although it is improper for a judge to receive a gift*
6 from an attorney subject to exceptions noted in Canon 4D(6), a judge's campaign
7 may receive attorney contributions.

8 Although attendance at political gatherings is not prohibited, any such 9 attendance should be restricted so that it would not constitute an express public 10 endorsement of a nonjudicial candidate or a measure not affecting the law, the 11 legal system, or the administration of justice* otherwise prohibited by this canon.

12 Subject to the monetary limitation herein to political contributions, a judge 13 or a candidate for judicial office* may purchase tickets for political dinners or 14 other similar dinner functions. Any admission price to such a political dinner or 15 function in excess of the actual cost of the meal shall be considered a political 16 contribution. The prohibition in Canon 5A(3) does not preclude judges from 17 contributing to a campaign fund for distribution among judges who are candidates 18 for reelection or retention, nor does it apply to contributions to any judge or 19 candidate for judicial office.*

20 Under this canon, a judge may publicly endorse a candidate for judicial 21 office.* Such endorsements are permitted because judicial officers have a special 22 obligation to uphold the integrity,* impartiality,* and independence* of the 23 judiciary and are in a unique position to know the qualifications necessary to 24 serve as a competent judicial officer.

25 Although family members of the judge or candidate for judicial office* are 26 not subject to the provisions of this code, a judge or candidate for judicial office*
27 shall not avoid compliance with this code by making contributions through a 28 spouse or registered domestic partner* or other family member.

30 B. Conduct During Judicial Campaigns and Appointment Process

31
32 (1) A candidate for judicial office* or an applicant seeking appointment to judicial 33 office shall not:

34
35 (a) make statements to the electorate or the appointing authority that commit the 36 candidate or the applicant with respect to cases, controversies, or issues that are 37 likely to come before the courts, or

38
39 (b) knowingly,* or with reckless disregard for the truth, misrepresent the identity, 40 qualifications, present position, or any other fact concerning himself or herself or 41 his or her opponent or other applicants.

1 (2) A candidate for judicial office* shall review and approve the content of all
2 campaign statements and materials produced by the candidate or his or her
3 campaign committee before their dissemination. A candidate shall take 4 appropriate corrective action if the candidate learns of any misrepresentations
5 made in his or her campaign statements or materials. A candidate shall take 6 reasonable measures to prevent any misrepresentations being made in his or her
7 support by third parties. A candidate shall take reasonable measures to ensure that 8 appropriate corrective action is taken if the candidate learns of any 9 misrepresentations being made in his or her support by third parties.

10
11 (3) Every candidate for judicial office* shall complete a judicial campaign ethics
12 course approved by the Supreme Court no earlier than one year before or no later 13 than 60 days after either the filing of a declaration of intention by the candidate, 14 the formation of a campaign committee, or the receipt of any campaign
15 contribution, whichever is earliest. This requirement does not apply to judges who 16 are unopposed for election and will not appear on the ballot. This requirement 17 also does not apply to appellate justices who have not formed a campaign 18 committee.

19
20 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

21 The purpose of Canon 5B is to preserve the integrity of the appointive and* 22 elective process for judicial office and to ensure that the public has accurate
23 information about candidates for judicial office. Compliance with these* 24 provisions will enhance the integrity, impartiality,* and independence* of the* 25 judiciary and better inform the public about qualifications of candidates for 26 *judicial office.

27 This code does not contain the “announce clause” that was the subject of 28 the United States Supreme Court’s decision in Republican Party of Minnesota v.
29 White (2002) 536 U.S. 765. That opinion did not address the “commit clause,” 30 which is contained in Canon 5B(1)(a). The phrase “appear to commit” has been 31 deleted because, although candidates for judicial office cannot promise to take a* 32 particular position on cases, controversies, or issues prior to taking the bench and 33 presiding over individual cases, the phrase may have been overinclusive.

34 Canon 5B(1)(b) prohibits making knowing misrepresentations, including 35 false or misleading statements, during an election campaign because doing so 36 would violate Canons 1 and 2A, and may violate other canons.

37 Candidates for judicial office must disclose campaign contributions in* 38 accordance with Canon 3E(2)(b).

39 The time limit for completing a judicial campaign ethics course in Canon
40 5B(3) is triggered by the earliest of either the filing of a declaration of intention,
41 formation of a campaign committee, or receipt of any campaign contribution. A 42 financial contribution by a candidate for judicial office to his or her own*
43 campaign constitutes receipt of a campaign contribution.

C. Speaking at Political Gatherings

Candidates for judicial office* may speak to political gatherings only on their own behalf or on behalf of another candidate for judicial office.*

D. Measures to Improve the Law

A judge or candidate for judicial office* may engage in activity in relation to measures concerning improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice,* only if the conduct is consistent with this code.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

When deciding whether to engage in activity relating to measures concerning the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, such as commenting publicly on ballot measures, a judge must consider whether the conduct would violate any other provisions of this code. See explanation of “law, the legal system, or the administration of justice” in the terminology section.*

COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE OF JUDICIAL ETHICS

A. Judges

Anyone who is an officer of the state judicial system and who performs judicial functions, including, but not limited to, a subordinate judicial officer,* magistrate, court-appointed arbitrator, judge of the State Bar Court, temporary judge,* and special master, is a judge within the meaning of this code. All judges shall comply with this code except as provided below.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

For the purposes of this canon, if a retired judge is serving in the Assigned Judges Program, the judge is considered to “perform judicial functions.” Because retired judges who are privately retained may perform judicial functions, their conduct while performing those functions should be guided by this code.

B. Retired Judge Serving in the Assigned Judges Program

A retired judge who has filed an application to serve on assignment, meets the eligibility requirements set by the Chief Justice for service, and has received an acknowledgment of participation in the Assigned Judges Program shall comply with all provisions of this code, except for the following:

4C(2)—Appointment to governmental positions

4E—Fiduciary* activities

C. Retired Judge as Arbitrator or Mediator

A retired judge serving in the Assigned Judges Program is not required to comply with Canon 4F of this code relating to serving as an arbitrator or mediator, or performing judicial functions in a private capacity, except as otherwise provided in the Standards and Guidelines for Judicial Assignments promulgated by the Chief Justice.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

In California, article VI, section 6 of the California Constitution provides that a “retired judge who consents may be assigned to any court” by the Chief Justice. Retired judges who are serving in the Assigned Judges Program pursuant to the above provision are bound by Canon 6B, including the requirement of Canon 4G barring the practice of law. Other provisions of California law, and*

1 standards and guidelines for eligibility and service set by the Chief Justice, further
2 define the limitations on who may serve on assignment.

3
4 D. Temporary Judge,* Referee, or Court-Appointed Arbitrator¹

5
6 A temporary judge,* a person serving as a referee pursuant to Code of Civil 7 Procedure section 638 or 639, or a court-appointed arbitrator shall comply only 8 with the following code provisions:

9
10 (1) A temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator shall comply with 11 Canons 1 [integrity* and independence* of the judiciary], 2A [promoting public
12 confidence], 3B(3) [order and decorum], 3B(4) [patient, dignified, and courteous 13 treatment], 3B(6) [require* lawyers to refrain from manifestations of any form of 14 bias or prejudice], 3D(1) [action regarding misconduct by another judge], and 15 3D(2) [action regarding misconduct by a lawyer], when the temporary judge,* 16 referee, or court-appointed arbitrator is actually presiding in a proceeding or 17 communicating with the parties, counsel, or staff or court personnel while serving 18 in the capacity of a temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator in the 19 case.

20
21 (2) A temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator shall, from the time
22 of notice and acceptance of appointment until termination of the appointment:

23
24 (a) Comply with Canons 2B(1) [not allow family or other relationships to 25 influence judicial conduct], 3B(1) [hear and decide all matters unless disqualified],
26 3B(2) [be faithful to and maintain competence in the law*], 3B(5) [perform 27 judicial duties without bias or prejudice], 3B(7) [accord full right to be heard to 28 those entitled; avoid ex parte communications, except as specified], 3B(8) [dispose 29 of matters fairly and promptly], 3B(12) [remain impartial* and not engage in 30 coercive conduct during efforts to resolve disputes], 3C(1) [discharge 31 administrative responsibilities without bias and with competence and 32 cooperatively], 3C(3) [require* staff and court personnel to observe standards of 33 conduct and refrain from bias and prejudice], and 3C(5) [make only fair, 34 necessary, and appropriate appointments];

35
36 (b) Not personally solicit memberships or donations for religious, service,*
37 educational, civic, or charitable organizations from the parties and lawyers
38 appearing before the temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator;
39

1 (c) Under no circumstance accept a gift,* bequest, or favor if the donor is a party,
2 person, or entity whose interests are reasonably likely to come before the 3 temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator. A temporary judge,*
4 referee, or court-appointed arbitrator shall discourage members of the judge's
5 family residing in the judge's household* from accepting benefits from parties
6 who are reasonably likely to come before the temporary judge,* referee, or court-
7 appointed arbitrator.

8
9 (3) A temporary judge* shall, from the time of notice and acceptance of 10 appointment until termination of the appointment, disqualify himself or herself in 11 any proceeding as follows:

12
13 (a) A temporary judge*—other than a temporary judge solely conducting 14 settlement conferences—is disqualified to serve in a proceeding if any one or more 15 of the following is true:

17 (i) the temporary judge* has personal knowledge* (as defined in Code of 18 Civil Procedure section 170.1, subdivision (a)(1)) of disputed evidentiary 19 facts concerning the proceeding;

20
21 (ii) the temporary judge* has served as a lawyer (as defined in Code of 22 Civil Procedure section 170.1, subdivision (a)(2)) in the proceeding;

23
24 (iii) the temporary judge,* within the past five years, has given legal advice
25 to, or served as a lawyer (as defined in Code of Civil Procedure section 26 170.1, subdivision (a)(2), except that this provision requires disqualification 27 if the temporary judge* represented a party in the past five years rather than 28 the two-year period specified in section 170.1, subdivision (a)(2)) for a 29 party in the present proceeding;

30
31 (iv) the temporary judge* has a financial interest (as defined in Code of 32 Civil Procedure sections 170.1, subdivision (a)(3) and 170.5) in the subject 33 matter in the proceeding or in a party to the proceeding;

34
35 (v) the temporary judge,* or the spouse or registered domestic partner* of 36 the temporary judge,* or a person within the third degree of relationship* of 37 either of them, or the spouse or registered domestic partner* of such a 38 person is a party to the proceeding or is an officer, director, or trustee of a 39 party;

40
41 (vi) a lawyer or a spouse or registered domestic partner* of a lawyer in the 42 proceeding is the spouse, former spouse, registered domestic partner,* 43 former registered domestic partner,* child, sibling, or parent of the

1 temporary judge* or the temporary judge's spouse or registered domestic 2 partner,* or if such a person is associated in the private practice of law with 3 a lawyer in the proceeding; or 4

5 (vii) for any reason:

6
7 (A) the temporary judge* believes his or her recusal would further the 8 interests of justice;

9
10 (B) the temporary judge* believes there is a substantial doubt as to his or 11 her capacity to be impartial;* or 12

13 (C) a person aware of the facts might reasonably entertain a doubt that the 14 temporary judge* would be able to be impartial.* Bias or prejudice toward 15 an attorney in the proceeding may be grounds for disqualification.
16

17 (viii) the temporary judge* has received a campaign contribution of $1,500 18 or more from a party or lawyer in a matter that is before the court and the 19 contribution was received in anticipation of an upcoming election.
20

21 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

22 *The application of Canon 6D(3)(a)(iii), providing that a temporary judge
23 is disqualified if he or she has given legal advice or served as a lawyer for a party 24 to the proceeding in the past five years, may depend on the type of assignment and 25 the amount of time available to investigate whether the temporary judge has* 26 previously represented a party. If time permits, the temporary judge must* 27 conduct such an investigation. Thus, if a temporary judge is privately* 28 compensated by the parties or is presiding over a particular matter known in* 29 advance of the hearing, the temporary judge is presumed to have adequate time*
30 to investigate. If, however, a temporary judge is assigned to a high volume* 31 calendar, such as traffic or small claims, and has not been provided with the 32 names of the parties prior to the assignment, the temporary judge may rely on his* 33 or her memory to determine whether he or she has previously represented a party.
34

35 (b) A temporary judge* before whom a proceeding was tried or heard is 36 disqualified from participating in any appellate review of that proceeding.
37

38 (c) If the temporary judge* has a current arrangement concerning prospective 39 employment or other compensated service as a dispute resolution neutral or is 40 participating in, or, within the last two years has participated in, discussions 41 regarding prospective employment or service as a dispute resolution neutral, or has 42 been engaged in such employment or service, and any of the following applies:
43

1 (i) The arrangement or current employment is, or the prior employment or 2 discussion was, with a party to the proceeding.

3
4 (ii) The temporary judge* directs the parties to participate in an alternative 5 dispute resolution process in which the dispute resolution neutral will be an 6 individual or entity with whom the temporary judge* has the arrangement,
7 is currently employed or serves, has previously been employed or served,
8 or is discussing or has discussed the employment or service.

9
10 (iii) The temporary judge* will select a dispute resolution neutral or entity 11 to conduct an alternative dispute resolution process in the matter before the 12 temporary judge,* and among those available for selection is an individual 13 or entity with whom the temporary judge* has the arrangement, is currently 14 employed or serves, has previously been employed or served, or is 15 discussing or has discussed the employment or service.

17 For the purposes of canon 6D(3)(c), the definitions of “participating in 18 discussions,” “has participated in discussions,” “party,” and “dispute resolution
19 neutral” are set forth in Code of Civil Procedure section 170.1, subdivision (a)(8), 20 except that the words “temporary judge” shall be substituted for the word “judge” 21 in such definitions.

22
23 (d) A lawyer is disqualified from serving as a temporary judge* in a family law or 24 unlawful detainer proceeding if in the same type of proceeding:

25
26 (i) the lawyer holds himself or herself out to the public as representing 27 exclusively one side; or

28
29 (ii) the lawyer represents one side in 90 percent or more of the cases in 30 which he or she appears.

31
32 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

33 Under Canon 6D(3)(d), “one side” means a category of persons such as 34 landlords, tenants, or litigants exclusively of one gender.

35
36 (4) After a temporary judge* who has determined himself or herself to be 37 disqualified from serving under Canon 6D(3)(a)–(d) has disclosed the basis for his 38 or her disqualification on the record, the parties and their lawyers may agree to 39 waive the disqualification and the temporary judge* may accept the waiver. The 40 temporary judge* shall not seek to induce a waiver and shall avoid any effort to 41 discover which lawyers or parties favored or opposed a waiver.

1 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

2 Provisions addressing waiver of mandatory disqualifications or limitations,
3 late discovery of grounds for disqualification or limitation, notification of the 4 court when a disqualification or limitation applies, and requests for 5 disqualification by the parties are located in rule 2.818 of the California Rules of 6 Court. Rule 2.818 states that the waiver must be in writing, must recite the basis
7 for the disqualification or limitation, and must state that it was knowingly made.*
8 It also states that the waiver is effective only when signed by all parties and their 9 attorneys and filed in the record.

10
11 (5) A temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator shall, from the time
12 of notice and acceptance of appointment until termination of the appointment:

13
14 (a) In all proceedings, disclose in writing or on the record information as required 15 by law,* or information that is reasonably relevant to the question of 16 disqualification under Canon 6D(3), including personal or professional 17 relationships known* to the temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed 18 arbitrator, that he or she or his or her law firm has had with a party, lawyer, or law 19 firm in the current proceeding, even though the temporary judge,* referee, or 20 court-appointed arbitrator concludes that there is no actual basis for 21 disqualification; and

22
23 (b) In all proceedings, disclose in writing or on the record membership of the 24 temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator, in any organization that 25 practices invidious discrimination on the basis of race, sex, gender, religion,
26 national origin, ethnicity, or sexual orientation, except for membership in a
27 religious or an official military organization of the United States and membership
28 in a nonprofit youth organization* so long as membership does not violate Canon
29 4A [conduct of extrajudicial activities].

30
31 (6) A temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator, from the time of 32 notice and acceptance of appointment until the case is no longer pending in any 33 court, shall not make any public comment about a pending* or impending*
34 proceeding in which the temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator 35 has been engaged, and shall not make any nonpublic comment that might 36 substantially interfere with such proceeding. The temporary judge,* referee, or 37 court-appointed arbitrator shall require* similar abstention on the part of staff and 38 court personnel subject to his or her control. This canon does not prohibit the 39 following:

40
41 (a) Statements made in the course of the official duties of the temporary judge,* 42 referee, or court-appointed arbitrator; and

1 (b) Explanations about the procedures of the court.

2
3 (7) From the time of appointment and continuing for two years after the case is no
4 longer pending* in any court, a temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed 5 arbitrator shall under no circumstances accept a gift,* bequest, or favor from a 6 party, person, or entity whose interests have come before the temporary judge,*
7 referee, or court-appointed arbitrator in the matter. The temporary judge,* referee, 8 or court-appointed arbitrator shall discourage family members residing in the 9 household of the temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator from 10 accepting any benefits from such parties, persons or entities during the time period
11 stated in this subdivision. The demand for or receipt by a temporary judge,* 12 referee, or court-appointed arbitrator of a fee for his or her services rendered or to 13 be rendered shall not be a violation of this canon.

14
15 (8) A temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator shall, from time of 16 notice and acceptance of appointment and continuing indefinitely after the 17 termination of the appointment:

18
19 (a) Comply with Canon 3B(11) [no disclosure of nonpublic information* acquired 20 in a judicial capacity] (except as required by law*);

21
22 (b) Not commend or criticize jurors sitting in a proceeding before the temporary 23 judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator for their verdict other than in a court 24 order or opinion in such proceeding, but may express appreciation to jurors for 25 their service to the judicial system and the community; and

26
27 (c) Not lend the prestige of judicial office to advance his, her, or another person's 28 pecuniary or personal interests and not use his or her judicial title in any written 29 communication intended to advance his, her, or another person's pecuniary or 30 personal interests, except to show his, her, or another person's qualifications.

31
32 (9)(a) A temporary judge* appointed under rule 2.810 of the California Rules of 33 Court, from the time of appointment and continuing indefinitely after the 34 termination of the appointment, shall not use his or her title or service as a 35 temporary judge* (1) as a description of the lawyer's current or former principal 36 profession, vocation, or occupation on a ballot designation for judicial or other 37 elected office, (2) in an advertisement about the lawyer's law firm or business, or 38 (3) on a letterhead, business card, or other document that is distributed to the 39 public identifying the lawyer or the lawyer's law firm.

40
41 (b) This canon does not prohibit a temporary judge* appointed under rule 2.810 of 42 the California Rules of Court from using his or her title or service as a temporary 43 judge* on an application to serve as a temporary judge,* including an application

1 in other courts, on an application for employment or for an appointment to a 2 judicial position, on an individual resume or a descriptive statement submitted in 3 connection with an application for employment or for appointment or election to a 4 judicial position, or in response to a request for information about the public
5 service in which the lawyer has engaged.

6
7 (10) A temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator shall comply with 8 Canon 6D(2) until the appointment has been terminated formally or until there is 9 no reasonable probability that the temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed 10 arbitrator will further participate in the matter. A rebuttable presumption that the 11 appointment has been formally terminated shall arise if, within one year from the 12 appointment or from the date of the last hearing scheduled in the matter, 13 whichever is later, neither the appointing court nor counsel for any party in the 14 matter has informed the temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed arbitrator
15 that the appointment remains in effect.

17 (11) A lawyer who has been a temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed 18 arbitrator in a matter shall not accept any representation relating to the matter
19 without the informed written consent of all parties.

20
21 (12) When by reason of serving as a temporary judge,* referee, or court-appointed 22 arbitrator in a matter, he or she has received confidential information from a party, 23 the person shall not, without the informed written consent of the party, accept 24 employment in another matter in which the confidential information is material.

25
26 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

27 Any exceptions to the canons do not excuse a judicial officer's separate 28 statutory duty to disclose information that may result in the judicial officer's 29 recusal or disqualification.

30
31 E. Judicial Candidate

32
33 A candidate for judicial office* shall comply with the provisions of Canon 5.

34
35 F. Time for Compliance

40 period of one year.

1 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

2 If serving as a fiduciary when selected as a judge, a new judge may,*
3 notwithstanding the prohibitions in Canon 4E, continue to serve as fiduciary but* 4 only for that period of time necessary to avoid adverse consequences to the 5 beneficiary of the fiduciary relationship and in no event longer than one year.*

21 5—Engaging in political activity (including soliciting and accepting campaign 22 contributions for the other public office).

23
24 ADVISORY COMMITTEE COMMENTARY

25 These exceptions are applicable only during the time the judge is on leave
26 while running for other public office. All of the provisions of this code will 27 become applicable at the time a judge resumes his or her position as a judge.
28 Conduct during elections for judicial office is governed by Canon 5.
