9.  Petitioner/plaintiff  Respondent/defendant  Other parent/party has read, understands, and has signed the Advisement and Waiver of Rights for Stipulation (Governmental) (form FL-694). He or she gives up those rights and freely agrees that a judgment may be entered in accordance with these findings.

10. a. Guideline support amount: $

b. This order  is  is not based on the guideline.

c.  The attached Guideline Findings Attachment (Governmental) (form FL-693) is incorporated into these findings.

d.  A printout, which shows the calculation of child support payable, is attached and must become the court's findings.

e.  The child support agreed to by the parents is  below  above the statewide child support guideline.
 The amount of support that would have been ordered under the guideline formula is: $ _____ per month. The parties have been fully informed of their rights concerning child support. Neither party is acting out of duress or coercion. Neither party is receiving public assistance, and no application for public assistance is pending. The needs of the children will be adequately met by this agreed-upon amount of child support. The order is in the best interest of the children. If the order is below the guideline, no change of circumstance will be required for the court to modify this order. If the order is above the guideline, a change of circumstance will be required for the court to modify this order.

f.  The low-income adjustment applies.
 The low-income adjustment does not apply because (specify reasons):

14. f.  For a total of: $ _____ payable on the: _____ day of each month beginning (date): _____
- g.  The low-income adjustment applies.
 The low-income adjustment does not apply because (specify reasons): _____
- h. Any support ordered will continue until further order of court, unless terminated by operation of law.
- i. When a person who has been ordered to pay child support is in jail or prison or is involuntarily institutionalized for any period of more than 90 days in a row, the child support order is temporarily stopped. However, the child support order will not be stopped if the person who owes support has the financial ability to pay that support while in jail, prison, or an institution. It will also not be stopped if the reason the person is in jail, prison, or an institution is because the person didn't pay court ordered child support or committed domestic violence against the supported person or child. The child support order starts again on the first day of the month after the person is released from jail, prison, or an institution.
15.  The parent ordered to pay support  The parent receiving support must (1) provide and maintain health insurance coverage for the children if available at no or reasonable cost and keep the local child support agency informed of the availability of the coverage (the cost is presumed to be reasonable if it does not exceed 5 percent of gross income to add a child); (2) if health insurance is not available, provide coverage when it becomes available; (3) within 20 days of the local child support agency's request, complete and return a health insurance form; (4) provide to the local child support agency all information and forms necessary to obtain health-care services for the children; (5) present any claim to secure payment or reimbursement to the other parent or caretaker who incurs costs for health-care services for the children; and (6) assign any rights to reimbursement to the other parent or caretaker who incurs costs for health-care services for the children. The parent ordered to provide health insurance must seek continuation of coverage for the child after the child attains the age when the child is no longer considered eligible for coverage as a dependent under the insurance contract, if the child is incapable of self-sustaining employment because of a physically or mentally disabling injury, illness, or condition and is chiefly dependent upon the parent providing health insurance for support and maintenance.
16.  The parent ordered to pay support may claim the children for tax purposes as long as all child support payments are current as of the last day of the year for which the exemptions are claimed.
17.  Petitioner/plaintiff  Respondent/defendant  Other parent/party must pay to  petitioner/plaintiff respondent/defendant  other parent/party
