5 Findings

a. [] The court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the following are true:

- (1) The Restrained Person poses a significant danger of causing personal injury to himself or herself or another person by having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving firearms, ammunition, or magazines.
(2) A gun violence restraining order is necessary to prevent personal injury to the Restrained Person or to another person because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and found to be ineffective, or have been determined to be inadequate or inappropriate for the current circumstances.
(3) [] The court has received credible information that the Restrained Person owns or possesses one or more firearms, ammunition, or one or more magazines.
(4) [] The facts as stated in the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) and supporting documents submitted at the time of the hearing, which are incorporated here by reference, and for the reasons set forth below, establish sufficient grounds for the issuance of this Order.

Horizontal lines for providing reasons or details for the findings.

6 Ordera. Order Prohibiting All Firearms, Ammunition, and Magazines

- (1) You cannot have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any firearm, ammunition, or magazine (any ammunition feeding device).
- (2) You must:
- (a) Surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines in your custody or control or that you possess or own. If a law enforcement officer orders you to surrender all of your firearms, ammunition, and magazines to him or her, you must do so immediately. If no order to surrender is made by a law enforcement officer, you must dispose of all of your firearms, ammunition, and magazines within 24 hours of receiving notice of this order. You may do so by either: (1) surrendering all of your firearms, ammunition, and magazines in a safe manner to the local law enforcement agency; or (2) selling all of your firearms, ammunition, and magazines to a licensed gun dealer; or (3) storing all of your firearms, ammunition, and magazines with a licensed gun dealer for as long as this order is in effect.
- (b) Within 48 hours of receiving this order, or if the court is closed, then on the next business day, file a receipt with the court that proves that all of your guns or firearms, ammunition, and magazines have been turned in, sold, or stored. (You may use Form GV-800, Proof of Firearms, Ammunition, and Magazines Turned In, Sold, or Stored for the receipt.) You must also file a copy of the receipt with the law enforcement agency that served you with this order. FAILURE TO FILE THIS RECEIPT IS A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER.

b. Order dissolving (terminating) Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order.

The court dissolves (terminates) the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) originally issued on (date): _____ as of (date of hearing): _____.

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Party

This order is valid until the expiration date and time noted on page 1. If you have not done so already, you must surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that you own or possess in accordance with Section 18120 of the Penal Code. You may not have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any firearms, ammunition, or magazines while this Order is in effect. Pursuant to section 18185, you have the right to request one hearing to terminate this Order at any time during its effective period. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the order.

This is a Court Order.

Violation of this Order is a misdemeanor punishable by a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for six months or both. (Pen. Code, §§ 19, 18205.) If you violate this Order, you will be prohibited from having in your custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, any firearm, ammunition, or magazine for a period of five years. This Order must be enforced by any law enforcement officer in the State of California who is aware of or shown a copy of this Order. The Order remains enforceable regardless of the acts of the parties; it may be terminated only by an order of the court.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask the Restrained Person if he or she has any firearms, ammunition, or magazines in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control that have not already been turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines to him or her.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that he or she has surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use Form GV-200 for this purpose.
- Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Duties of Agency on Surrender of Firearms, Ammunition, and Magazines

The law enforcement agency that has received surrendered firearms, ammunition, or magazines must do the following:

- Retain the firearms, ammunition, or magazines until the expiration of this Order or of any other gun violence restraining order issued by the court.
- On the expiration of this order or of any later gun violence restraining order issued by the court, return the firearms and ammunition to the Restrained Person as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850). Firearms, ammunition, or magazines that are not claimed are subject to the requirements of section 34000.
- If someone other than the Restrained Person claims title to any of the firearms, ammunition, or magazines surrendered, determine whether that person is the lawful owner. If so, return the firearms, ammunition, and magazines to him or her as provided by Chapter 2 of Division 11 of Title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850).

Enforcing This Order

The law enforcement officer should determine if the Restrained Person had notice of the order. Consider the Restrained Person "served" (given notice) if:

- The officer sees a copy of the proof of service or confirms that the proof of service is on file;
- The Restrained Person was informed of the order by an officer; or
- Item 7a is checked, the Restrained Person attended the hearing.

This is a Court Order.

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the respondent cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it (see above: Duties of Officer Serving This Order).

The provisions in this Gun Violence Restraining Order After Hearing on EPO-002 do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in another existing protective order remain in effect.
