

Case Number:

- c. I have not previously requested that the court terminate the Order.
 The Order has been renewed. I have not previously requested that the court terminate the Order since it was renewed.

(You may only request termination of a firearms restraining order once during the initial period while the order is in effect and once during any period of renewal. If the court denies your request, you may not request termination again unless the order is renewed for another year.)

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information above is true and correct.
