

The judge may need to set your hearing for another day.

This happens when:

- You were not able to get your temporary restraining order served or
- The other person asked for time to get a lawyer or prepare an answer or
- You need to meet with a Family Court mediator about child custody or visitation

If your hearing gets changed to another day, follow these steps:

- Fill out Form DV-125.
- Ask the judge to sign it and give you a new hearing date. In some courts, you must give your form to the clerk for the judge’s signature. Ask your court clerk for information on the local process.
- File the form with the clerk. The clerk will make 5 copies for you. Ask the clerk to stamp “Filed” on your copies.
- Attach 1 “filed” copy of Form DV-125 to your other court papers (Forms DV-100 and DV-110). Get them served on the restrained person. Do this right away. Now your orders will last until the new hearing date.
- The clerk will have your restraining order entered in CLETS, a statewide computer system that lets police know about your order.
- Bring all your papers back to the next court hearing.
