(Note: This form may be used only in cases brought under Civil Code section 1708.85.)

1. To protect personal privacy issues, parties who bring an action under Civil Code section 1708.85 for distribution of sexually explicit material may use a pseudonym in place of the true name of the plaintiff and may exclude or redact from all pleadings and documents other identifying characteristics. See Civil Code, section 1708.85(f)(1). Papers filed by other parties must be worded so as to protect the name or other identifying characteristics of the plaintiff from public revelation. See Civil Code, section 1708.85(f)(2).
2. A plaintiff who uses a pseudonym must file this confidential information form with the court at the time of filing the complaint, with items 2 and 3 completed, in order to provide his or her true name to the court. Plaintiff must also serve the form on defendant along with the complaint and summons. Counsel for a party filing under a pseudonym may provide the pseudonym for the name of the represented party in the attorney/party information box at the top of the form.
3. Any party who redacts identifying characteristics from any pleading or document filed with the court other than a complaint must file with the court and serve on all parties this confidential information form, with items 2 and 4 completed, providing any identifying characteristics that have been redacted from the pleading or document and stating where the information was redacted.
4. "Identifying characteristics" that may be redacted include, but are not limited to, name or any part thereof, address or any part thereof, city or unincorporated area of residence, age, marital status, relationship to defendant, and race or ethnic background. See Civil Code section 1708.85(f)(3).
5. If more space is needed to describe all the redactions in a pleading or document, form MC-025 may be attached, with information provided in the same format as in item 4.
6. A copy of this form should be completed each time a pleading or document redacted under Civil Code section 1708.85 is filed and should be served and filed along with the redacted document.
