S215614 KILBY (NYKEYA) v. CVS
PHARMACY, INC.

Supplemental briefing ordered

The court invites the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (DLSE) to serve and file an amicus curiae brief expressing its views on the certified questions of law before us concerning section 14(A) of California Wage Orders 4-2001 and 7-2001 (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11040, subd. 14(A), 11070, subd. 14(A)). Those questions are:

1. Does the phrase “nature of the work” refer to an individual task or duty that an employee performs during the course of his or her workday, or should courts construe “nature of the work” holistically and evaluate the entire range of an employee’s duties?
 - a. If the courts should construe “nature of the work” holistically, should the courts consider the entire range of an employee’s duties if more than half of an employee’s time is spent performing tasks that reasonably allow the use of a seat?
2. When determining whether the nature of the work “reasonably permits” the use of a seat, should courts consider any or all of the following: the employer’s business judgment as to whether the employee should stand, the physical layout of the workplace, or the physical characteristics of the employee?
3. If an employer has not provided any seat, does a plaintiff need to prove what would constitute “suitable seats” to show the employer has violated Section 14(A)?

The DLSE’s brief is to be filed and served on or before August 21, 2015. The parties may serve and file answer briefs no more than 20 days after the DLSE’s brief is filed under this or any subsequent order of the court.
