

SUPREME COURT MINUTES
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2015
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

S004605

PEOPLE v. STANLEY
(GERALD FRANK)

Supplemental briefing ordered

It has come to the court's attention that on September 30, 2011, the superior court, pursuant to an order of the United States District Court of the Eastern District of California granting partial habeas corpus relief, issued an order concluding a retrospective competency hearing and finding that Appellant Stanley was mentally competent at the time of the penalty phase of his 1983 murder trial. In these circumstances, it appears that a new automatic appeal should be initiated, limited to issues regarding the retrospective competency proceedings and the superior court's determination. (See People v. Lightsey (2012) 54 Cal.4th 668; People v. Lightsey, S226760.) Appellant's appointed counsel in this court, Frank Hagie, Jr., the Attorney General, and Attorney Joseph Schlesinger are directed to serve and file, within 21 days of this order, simultaneous letter briefs addressing whether an automatic appeal should be initiated. Attorneys Hagie and Schlesinger may file a joint letter brief if they choose to do so. Responses may be served and filed within 14 days after the date of filing of the letter briefs. The court will defer consideration of the "Request for Leave to File a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus in Excess of 14,000 Words," filed on July 2, 2015, by Attorney Schlesinger, seeking to file a petition on appellant's behalf challenging the retrospective competency proceeding, pending the court's determination of whether an automatic appeal should be initiated. Should the court determine that an automatic appeal is mandated, Attorney Schlesinger may then seek leave of the court to withdraw, without prejudice to Appellant Stanley, his request to file the overlength petition.

S220187 C074264 Third Appellate District

IN RE ABBIGAIL A.

Supplemental briefing ordered

The court invites the United States to serve and file an amicus curiae brief in this case on the question whether rules 5.482(c) and 5.484(c)(2) of the California Rules of Court are preempted to the extent those rules purport to require California courts to apply the Indian Child Welfare Act (25 U.S.C. § 1901 et seq.) (ICWA) in child custody proceedings involving a minor who is not an "Indian child" as defined in ICWA. (See 25 U.S.C. § 1903(4); cf. id., §§ 1902 & 1921.) The court requests the brief be filed by October 16, 2015, or any later date specified in a subsequent order granting a request by the United States for an extension of time. The parties may serve and file answer briefs no more than 20 days after the United States' amicus curiae brief is filed.

Referee appointed

Based on the record in this matter and good cause appearing:

The Honorable William C. Ryan, Judge of the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, is appointed to serve as a referee in this proceeding. He will take evidence and make findings of fact on the following questions regarding the case of People v. James Robinson, Jr. (Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles No. PA007095, Judge Ronald S. Coen):

- 1) During the guilt phase deliberations, did any jurors discuss the possible sentences petitioner faced if he were convicted? If such discussions occurred, which jurors participated in the discussions, and what was the extent and context of any discussion about the possible sentences?
- 2) Assuming for the purposes of answering the following question that Evidence Code section 1150 does not apply, during guilt phase deliberations did any jurors agree to vote to convict petitioner of the charged crimes in exchange for voting against a death verdict during the penalty phase?
- 3) Assuming for the purposes of answering the following question that Evidence Code section 1150 does not apply, was Juror Nancy Gronewold biased against petitioner due to his race?
- 4) If Juror Nancy Gronewold was biased against petitioner due to his race, did she fail to disclose her bias on her juror questionnaire and during voir dire at petitioner's trial? If she did, was the nondisclosure intentional and deliberate?

It is further ordered that the referee prepare and submit to this court a report of the proceedings conducted pursuant to this appointment, of the evidence adduced, and the findings of fact made. Petitioner's "Motion for Discovery," filed in this court on March 13, 2015, is referred to the referee for disposition. All future requests for discovery in this matter must be addressed to the referee.

If petitioner believes additional funds are required for investigator or expert services, he should apply in the first instance to the referee. The referee is instructed to consider the investigation petitioner has already undertaken and to decide - bearing in mind that any further investigation must be pertinent to the questions this court has posed in this order, and considering what is normally paid for comparable investigation pretrial - whether petitioner reasonably needs additional funds to prepare for and conduct the evidentiary hearing, and if so, how much. The referee will then make a recommendation concerning any further funding to this court, which will make the final decision.
