Executive Summary and Origin

The Civil and Small Claim Advisory Committee recommends the adoption and revision of numerous gun violence restraining order forms. These new and revised forms (1) implement a new law permitting additional categories of individuals to petition for gun violence restraining orders, (2) bring the language describing firearm parts on gun violence restraining order forms in line with other protective order forms, (3) include new forms that can be used to request continuance of a hearing to renew a gun violence protective order, and (4) clarify that no additional proof of service is required if the respondent attends the hearing where the order was issued remotely.

Background

Assembly Bill 2870

On September 20, 2022, the Governor Gavin Newsom signed Assembly Bill 2870 (Stats. 2022, ch. 974).¹ The bill allows additional categories of individuals to petition for gun violence restraining orders.² Specifically, an individual who has a child in common with the subject of the restraining order and an individual who has a dating relationship with the subject of the restraining order may now bring these petitions. Additionally, the new statute explicitly provides that a roommate of the respondent may petition for a restraining order if certain requirements are met. Before the enactment of AB 2870, a roommate of the respondent could bring a petition because the definition of "immediate family member" in the statute included a roommate. AB 2870, however, separates roommates into their own statutory subdivision and amends the definition of "immediate family member." The new family member definition does not include roommates and now includes any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the 4th degree who has had substantial and regular interactions with the subject for at least one year.

Firearm Parts

In 2021 the Legislature enacted Assembly Bill 1057 (Stats. 2021, ch. 682)³ which added "the frame or receiver of the weapon" to the definition of firearm in Penal Code section 16520 and thus required individuals restrained under gun violence restraining orders to relinquish and not possess firearm parts (including what are known as ghost guns). The advisory committee recommended revisions to gun violence restraining order forms to implement AB 1057, which the council approved in September 2022.⁴

Last summer, Assembly Bill 1621 (Stats. 2022, ch. 76)⁵ further modified the definition of firearm under Penal Code 16520 to refer to "firearm precursor part" as defined in Penal Code section 16531, which was also modified to include any item that "may readily be . . . converted to be used as the frame or receiver of a functional firearm, or that is marketed or sold to the public to become or be used as the frame or receiver of a functional firearm." Additionally, AB 1621 applied the new definition of firearm to other civil protective orders for the first time. As noted above, given other changes needed for gun violence restraining order forms, the council approved the advisory committee's changes to gun violence restraining orders to include language about firearm parts based on the provisions of AB 1057 in September. That same month, the advisory committee's proposal to add the same language about firearm parts to the other civil restraining order forms was posted for public comment during a special comment period. Based on comments received on the later proposal, the committee recommended and the council approved revisions to the other civil restraining order forms with slightly different language to describe firearm parts than was earlier approved in the gun violence restraining orders.⁶

The Proposal

This proposal is urgently needed to address four distinct issues:

- Implementation of recently enacted AB 2870;
- Use of consistent language across protective orders to describe firearm parts;
- The need for new forms to request continuance of a hearing to renew a gun violence protective order; and
- Clarification that no additional proof of service is required if the respondent attended the hearing where the order was issued remotely.

The last two issues are being addressed jointly with the Family and Juvenile Advisory Committee across all domestic violence and civil protective order form sets (see discussion below and footnotes 11 and 12), but because other changes are needed to the Gun Violence forms as well, the proposed GV forms relating to those issues are included here.

Implementation of AB 2870

The form revisions recommended to implement AB 2870 are straightforward. The proposed petition, notice of hearing, and order forms contain the additional categories of people who may bring a gun violence restraining order, as do any other forms in which the relationship of petitioner to respondent is identified. (See the first item in forms GV-100, GV-109, GV-110, GV-130, GV-160, GV, 700, GV-710, and GV-730.) The information sheets also describe the new categories of people who may bring the petition and include the expanded meaning of "immediate family member." (See GV-100-INFO and GV-120-INFO.)

In addition, given that the type of petitioner is not relevant to a request to continue a hearing, this proposal eliminates the description of the relationship between petitioner and respondent on form GV-115 and replaces it with "person asking for the protective order or law enforcement officer/law enforcement agency". The proposal carries that structure onto proposed new form GV-715 (the request to continue a hearing on a request for continuance) as well.

⁶ See Judicial Council of Cal., Advisory Com. Rep., Protective Orders: Civil Protective Order Forms Implementing Assembly Bill 1621 (Nov. 2, 2022), https://jcc.legistar.com/View.ashx?M=F&ID=11461123&GUID=89F39689-D073-494C-9390-2A55F4C5AEC0.

Description of firearm parts

This proposal also recommends revisions to the language on the forms describing firearm parts to make the language consistent with that on other protective order forms.⁷ Specifically, the forms in the proposal describe firearm parts as including "firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531)," which is the language that is already approved by the council on other civil protective order forms⁸ and criminal protective order forms.⁹ A separate proposal this cycle is also updating domestic violence restraining order forms to include that language as well.¹⁰

Continuances on hearing to renew

Currently, no forms exist to request or order to continue (reschedule) a hearing on a request to renew a restraining order. The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee has received comments on a separate proposal that new continuance forms would be helpful because the existing continuance forms (e.g., forms GV-115 and GV-116) are not designed for renewal proceedings. This committee and the Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee are jointly recommending creation of such forms for the Civil Harassment (CH), Elder or Dependent Adult (EA), School Violence (SV), and Workplace Violence (WV) form sets in a separate proposal.¹¹ The corresponding gun violence forms are included in this proposal (new forms GV-715 and GV-716) and are substantively identical to the forms in that joint proposal. They are included here so that all the gun violence forms are together in a single proposal.

Clarification of service requirements after remote appearance

To clarify the service requirements for respondents who appear remotely in protective order proceedings, this committee and the Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee jointly recommend two new rules of court in a separate proposal,¹² along with revisions to the CH, EA, SV, and WV forms That proposal includes revisions to the notice of hearing forms and the order

⁷ The information on the back of form EPO-002 also contains minor updates to refer to a restraining order issued after hearing as a "longer-term" restraining order instead of a "more permanent" restraining order and to clarify that violating the restraining order will result in an additional prohibition on having firearms to begin on the expiration of the existing order.

after hearing forms to advise the respondent that attending the hearing, including through the use of remote technology, will result in immediate enforcement of any orders issued. Identical revisions are made to the gun violence restraining order forms in this proposal. (See form GV-109 at item 3, and form GV-130 at item 8.)

Alternatives Considered

Because AB 2870 made significant and substantial changes to who may bring gun violence restraining orders, the committee determined that it must act and that taking no action would be inappropriate. The committee also determined it would be inappropriate to take no action to update the language about firearm parts, create forms to request continuances on hearings to renew, and clarify the service requirements for an order issued after a hearing where the respondent appeared remotely.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

The committee anticipates that this proposal would require courts to train court staff and judicial officers on the newly adopted and revised forms. Courts will also incur costs to incorporate the new and revised forms into the paper or electronic processes.

Request for Specific Comments

In addition to comments on the proposal as a whole, the advisory committee is interested in comments on the following:

• Does the proposal appropriately address the stated purpose?

The advisory committee also seeks comments from courts on the following cost and implementation matters:

- Would the proposal provide cost savings? If so, please quantify.
- What would the implementation requirements be for courts—for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems?
- Would three months from Judicial Council approval of this proposal until its effective date provide sufficient time for implementation?
- How well would this proposal work in courts of different sizes?

(Pen. Code, §§ 16531 & 18125 et seq.) A violation of this order is a misdemeanor punishable by a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for six months or both. (Pen. Code, §§ 19 & 18205.)

Within 24 hours of receipt of this order, you must turn in all items listed above to a law enforcement agency or sell them to or store them with a licensed firearms dealer until the expiration of this order. (Pen. Code, § 18125 et seq.) A receipt proving surrender, sale, or storage must be filed with the court within 48 hours of receipt of this order, or on the next court business day if the 48-hour period ends on a day when the court is closed. You must also file the receipt with the law enforcement agency that served you with this Order. You may use form GV-800, Receipt for Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, and Magazines.

This Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order is effective when made. It will last until the date and time in item 3 on the front. The court will hold a hearing within 21 days to determine if a longer-term order should be issued. If the date and time are not stated in item 4 on the front, you will get a notice with the date and time of the hearing in the mail at the residential address listed on page 1 of this form. If you would like to respond to this order in writing you must use form GV-020, Response to Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order. A longer-term restraining order may be requested from the court.

If you violate this order, you will also be prohibited from having in your custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, a firearm (gun), firearm part (a receiver, frame, or any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame), ammunition, or magazine for an additional five-year period, to begin on the expiration of the existing gun violence restraining order. (Pen. Code, §§ 16531 & 18205.)

This protective order must be enforced by all law enforcement officers in the state of California who are aware of it or shown a copy of it. The terms and conditions of this order remain enforceable regardless of the acts or any agreement of the parties; it may be changed only by order of the court.

A LA PERSONA RESTRINGIDA: Tiene prohibido ser dueño de, o poseer, comprar, recibir, o tratar de comprar o recibir un arma de fuego, un componente de armas de fuego (un receptor o armadura, o cualquier artículo que puede ser usado como receptor o armadura o fácilmente convertido en receptor o armadura), municiones o cargadores. (Código Penal, §§ 16531 & 18125 y siguientes). Una violación de esta orden es un delito menor que está sujeta a una multa de $1000 o encarcelamiento de seis meses o ambos. (Código Penal, §§ 19 & 18205.)

Dentro de las 24 horas de recibir esta orden, tiene que entregar todos los artículos indicados arriba a una agencia del orden público o venderlos a un comerciante de armas autorizado, o almacenarlos con el mismo hasta el vencimiento de esta orden. (Código Penal, § 18125 y siguientes). Se tiene que presentar a la corte una prueba de haberlos entregado, vendido, o almacenado dentro de las 48 horas de recibir esta orden, o el próximo día hábil, si el periodo de 48 horas termina un día en que está cerrada la corte. También tiene que presentar el recibo a la agencia del orden público que le entregó esta Orden. Se puede usar el formulario GV-800, Recibo por armas de fuego, componentes de armas de fuego, munciones, y cargadores.

Esta orden de protección de emergencia de armas de fuego entra en vigencia en el momento en que se emite. Durará hasta la fecha y hora indicadas en el punto 3 de la primera página. Se realizará una audiencia dentro de 21 días para determinar si es necesario emitir una orden que dure por más tiempo. Si la fecha y la hora no se indican en el punto 4 de la primera página, recibirá un aviso con la fecha y la hora de la audiencia por correo a la dirección residencial indicada en la primera página. Si desea responder a esta orden por escrito, tiene que usar el formulario GV-020, Respuesta a la orden de protección de emergencia de armas de fuego. Se puede solicitar a la corte una orden de restricción a más largo plazo.

Si contraviene esta orden de restricción, se le prohibirá tener en su posesión o control, comprar, poseer o recibir, o tratar de comprar o recibir un arma de fuego, un componente de armas de fuego (un receptor o armadura, o cualquier artículo que puede ser usado como receptor o armadura o fácilmente convertido en receptor o armadura), municiones o cargadores por otro periodo de cinco años más, comenzando a partir del vencimiento de la orden de restricción de armas de fuego existente. (Cód. Penal, §§ 16531 & 18205.)

Todo agente del orden público del estado de California que tenga conocimiento de la orden o a quien se le muestre una copia de la misma tiene que hacer cumplir esta orden de protección. Los términos y condiciones de esta orden se podrán hacer cumplir independientemente de las acciones de las partes; solo la corte podrá cambiar esta orden.

To law enforcement: The Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order must be served on the restrained person by the officer if the restrained person can reasonably be located. Ask the restrained person if he or she has any firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control. A copy must be filed with the court as soon as practicable, but not later than three court days, after issuance, so a hearing can be set, if one was not already scheduled. If the court did not give you a hearing date when issuing the order (to put in item 4 on the front), the court will set a hearing within 21 days and will provide you with notice of the hearing. Also, the officer must have the order entered into the computer database system for protective and restraining orders maintained by the Department of Justice.

The provisions in this temporary Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in another existing protective order remain in effect.

What is a Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002)?

It is a court order requested by law enforcement that prohibits someone from having any of the following prohibited items:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531) (these may also be called "ghost guns");
- o Ammunition; and

GV-020-INFO

• Magazines (any ammunition feeding device).

The person must turn in, sell, or store all prohibited items listed above that they currently own.

For more information about prohibited items, please see https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders/ prohibited-items.

Who can ask for a gun violence emergency protective order?

The gun violence emergency protective order must have been requested by a law enforcement officer and was issued by a judicial officer based on the statements made under penalty of perjury in the protective order.

I've been served with a Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) and a Notice of Court Hearing. What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing or form EPO-002 tells you when to appear for court and where the court is located. If you want to attend the hearing remotely, such as by phone or videoconference, check your local court's website for instructions and availability. Follow the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) prohibiting you from having any prohibited items listed above and requiring you to surrender, sell, or store any prohibited items that you currently own or possess. You must obey the order until the expiration date on the form.

NOT APPROVED BY THE

What if I don't obey the emergency protective order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine. You may also be prohibited for a longer period of time from having access to firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, and magazines.

What if I don't want the order to be extended?

If you disagree with the order that has been issued and do not want the court to extend it for a longer time, fill out Response to Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form GV-020), before your hearing date. File the form with the court and serve it on the requesting law enforcement agency. You can get the form from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. You also may be able to find it at your local courthouse or county law library.

Will I have to pay a filing fee?

No.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of the completed Response to Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form GV-020) to the law enforcement agency that issued the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002). (This is called "service by mail.")

The person who serves the form by mail must fill out Proof of Service by Mail (form GV-025). Have the person who did the mailing sign the original form GV-025. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Judicial Council of California, www.courts.ca.gov Rev. January 1, 2024, Optional Form Penal Code, § 18125 et seq.

GV-020-INFO

Should I attend the court hearing?

Yes. You should attend the hearing listed on the Notice of Court Hearing or the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002). You can do so remotely, such as by telephone or videoconference, or go to court in person. If you do not attend the hearing, the judge can extend the order against you for a period of time between 1–5 years without hearing from you.

Can I attend the court hearing remotely, such as by telephone or videoconference?

Yes. Remote appearances are permitted for parties and witnesses. Check with your local court for instructions on how to appear remotely. Information is also available on the court's website, which you can find at www.courts.ca.gov/find-my-court.htm.

Can I bring a witness to the court hearing?

Yes. You can bring witnesses or documents that support your case to the hearing. But if possible, you should also bring the witnesses' written statements of what they saw or heard. Their statements must be made under penalty of perjury. (You can use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose.)

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required, and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

How long does the order last?

The Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) will last until the expiration date listed on the front of the form in item 3. The court will decide at the hearing whether to issue a gun violence restraining order that can last for a period of time between 1–5 years.

Will I see the person who asked for the court order at the court hearing?

It's possible the law enforcement officer may appear at the court hearing.

What if I need help to understand English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/ request-interpreter.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

5) Findings

- a. \Box The court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the following are true:
 - (1) The Restrained Person poses a significant danger of causing personal injury to themself or another person by having in their custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).
 - (2) A gun violence restraining order is necessary to prevent personal injury to the Restrained Person or to another person because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and found to be ineffective, or have been determined to be inadequate or inappropriate for the current circumstances.
 - (3) The court has received credible information that the Restrained Person owns or possesses one or more firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or one or more magazines.
 - (4) ☐ The facts as stated in the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) and supporting documents submitted at the time of the hearing, which are incorporated here by reference, and for the reasons set forth below, establish sufficient grounds for the issuance of this Order.

See the attached Attachment (form MC-025)

b. \square A gun violence restraining order is not being issued for the reasons below:

6) No Firearms (Guns), Firearm Parts, Ammunition, and Magazines

- a. You cannot have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any prohibited items listed below in b.
- b. Prohibited items are:
 - (1) Firearms (guns);
 - (2) Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531);
 - (3) Ammunition; and
 - (4) Magazines (ammunition feeding devices).
- c. You must surrender (turn in, sell, or store) all prohibited items in your custody or control or that you possess or own. If a law enforcement officer asks you to turn over prohibited items, you must do so immediately. If no request is made by a law enforcement officer, you must surrender all prohibited items within 24 hours of being served with this Order. You may surrender these items by turning them in to law enforcement, selling them to a licensed gun dealer, or storing them with a licensed gun dealer for as long as this Order or any more permanent order granted at the hearing in item (4) is in effect.
- d. Within 48 hours of receiving this Order, you must file a receipt with the court that proves that all your prohibited items have been turned in, sold, or stored. (You may use Receipt for Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, and Magazines (form GV-800) for the receipt.) You must also file a copy of the receipt with the law enforcement agency that served you with this order. FAILURE TO FILE THIS RECEIPT IS A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER.
- e. 🗌 Order dissolving (terminating) Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order.

The court dissolves (terminates) the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002)originally issued on (date):as of (date of hearing):

7) Service of Order on the Restrained Person

- a. The Restrained Person was present in court at the time the order was issued. No other proof of service is needed. The clerk has provided the Restrained Person with a blank copy of Request to Terminate Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-600), if a restraining order was granted.
- b. The Restrained Person was not present in court at the time the order was issued. The Restrained Person must be personally served with a court file-stamped copy of this order and a blank copy of Request to Terminate Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-600), if a restraining order was granted.

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person

To the restrained person: This order will last until the expiration date and time noted on page 1. If you have not done so already, you must surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that you own or possess in accordance with section 18120 of the Penal Code. You may not have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm, ammunition, or magazine, while this Order is in effect. Pursuant to section 18185, you have the right to request a hearing on an annual basis to terminate this Order during its effective period. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the order.

Violation of this Order is a misdemeanor punishable by a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for six months or both. (Pen. Code, §§ 19, 18205.) If you violate this Order, you will be prohibited from having in your custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, any prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, for a period of up to five years. This Order must be enforced by any law enforcement officer in the state of California who is aware of or shown a copy of this Order. The Order remains enforceable regardless of the acts of the parties; it may be terminated only by an order of the court.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any of the prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, or has custody or control of any of those items that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use form GV-200 for this purpose.
- Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Duties of Agency on Surrender of Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, and Magazines

The law enforcement agency that has received the surrendered prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, must do the following:

- Retain the prohibited items until the expiration of this Order or of any other gun violence restraining order issued by the court.
- On the expiration of this order or of any later gun violence restraining order issued by the court, return the prohibited items to the Restrained Person as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850). Section 34000 provides for the sale or destruction of any unclaimed items.
- If someone other than the Restrained Person claims title to any of the prohibited items surrendered, determine whether that person is the lawful owner. If so, return the prohibited items to that person as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850).

Enforcing This Order

The law enforcement officer should determine if the Restrained Person had notice of the order. Consider the Restrained Person "served" (given notice) if:

- The officer sees a copy of the proof of service or confirms that the proof of service is on file;
- The Restrained Person was informed of the order by an officer; or
- Item 7a is checked, indicating the Restrained Person was present in court at the time the order was issued.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the respondent cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it (see above: Duties of Officer Serving This Order).

The provisions in this Gun Violence Restraining Order After Hearing on EPO-002 do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in another existing protective order remain in effect.

Request for Gun Violence Restraining Order

I request that the court issue an order prohibiting Respondent from having in their custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, any firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531). I further request that Respondent be ordered to immediately surrender (turn in, sell, or store) all firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, and magazines currently in their possession to a law enforcement officer or to sell those items to or store them with a licensed gun dealer.

a. I request the order above for years. (Please include a number of years between one and five years.)

These instructions cannot cover all of the questions that may arise in a particular case. If you do not know what to do to protect your rights, you should see a lawyer or a self-help center.

What is a gun violence restraining order?

It is a court order that temporarily prohibits someone from having any of the following items:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531) (these may also be called "ghost guns");
- o Ammunition; and
- Magazines (any ammunition feeding device).

The person must turn in, sell, or store any prohibited items listed above that that person currently owns. The police will come and remove the items or the person can store them with a licensed gun dealer while the restraining order is in effect. The restrained person also cannot buy any of the prohibited items during this time.

For more information about prohibited items, please see http://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining- orders/prohibited-items.

Can I get a gun violence restraining order against someone?

You can ask for one if you are connected to the person you think is dangerous as:

- An immediate family member;
- An employer;
- A coworker who has substantial and regular interactions with the person and has worked with them for at least a year. You must have permission from your employer to ask for the restraining order;
- An employee or teacher at a school that the person has attended in the last six months, where you have permission from a school administrator or staff member who has a supervisorial role;
- A law enforcement officer or agency;
- A roommate who resided in the household in the past six months and has had substantial and regular interactions with the person for at least a year;
- Somebody in a dating relationship; or
- Somebody who shares a child with the person and has had substantial and regular interactions with the person for at least a year.

Immediate family members include:

- Your spouse or domestic partner;
- You or your spouse's parents, children, siblings, grandparents, and grandchildren and their spouses, including any stepparents or stepgrandparents; and
- You or your spouse's aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, first and second cousins, greatgrandparents, and great-grandchildren if you have had substantial and regular interactions for at least a year.

If you do not have the necessary relationship, advise a law enforcement officer of the situation. The officer may investigate and file the petition if grounds exist.

Will I have to pay a filing fee to request the order?

No.

Will the order protect me in other ways, such as keeping the person from coming near me?

No, the only order the court can make is to force the person to not have the prohibited items listed above. If you need personal protection from a family member, you should proceed under the Domestic Violence Prevention Act. See Can a Domestic Violence Restraining Order Help Me? (form DV-500-INFO) for information on how to proceed. For information on other civil restraining orders, please see http://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders-california.

What forms do I need to get the order?

You must fill out the following forms:

- Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-100);
- Confidential CLETS Information (form CLETS-001);
- Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109), items 1 and 2 only; and
- Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-110), items 1 and 2 only.

You may need other local forms. Ask your self-help center or visit your court's website.

Where can I get these forms?

You can get the forms from legal publishers or the internet at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

What do I need to do to get the order?

You must file your papers with the superior court in the county where the person to be restrained lives. Check online or ask the court how to file your request for a gun violence restraining order. (A self-help center or legal aid association may be able to assist you in filing your request.) File your forms electronically or give your forms to the clerk of the court. The court will give you a hearing date on the Notice of Court Hearing form.

How soon can I get the order?

You can ask for a temporary gun violence restraining order, which will be effective right away if granted. The court may decide whether or not to grant the temporary order based only on the facts that you have stated in your petition. If so, the court will decide within 24 hours whether or not to make the temporary order. Sometimes the court will want to examine you personally under oath. If you file in person, the clerk will tell you whether you should wait to talk to the judge or come back later to find out if the court has signed a temporary order.

If you don't ask for a temporary restraining order, you will have to wait until the hearing, at which the court will decide whether to make an order that will last for a period of time between 1-5 years.

How will the person to be restrained know about the order?

If the court issues a temporary restraining order, someone age 18 or older—not you—must personally "serve" (give) the person to be restrained a copy of the order. The server must then fill out Proof of Personal Service (form GV-200) and give it to you to file with the court. If the person to be restrained attends the hearing, no further proof of service is required. But if they do not attend the hearing, then any order issued at the hearing must also be personally served. For help with service, ask the court clerk for What Is "Proof of Personal Service"? (form GV-200-INFO). Note: A sheriff or marshal can serve the order for free.

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

What do I have to prove to get the order?

You will have to convince the judge that the person to be restrained poses a significant danger in the near future of causing personal injury to themself or another person by having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving any of the prohibited items listed on page 1.

You will also have to convince the judge that a gun violence restraining order is needed to prevent personal injury to the person to be restrained or to another person because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and haven't worked, or are inadequate or inappropriate for the current circumstances.

How can I convince the judge?

You will need to give the judge specific information. You should tell the judge everything that you know about the firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines that the person to be restrained currently owns, including how many the person owns, the types, and where they are kept.

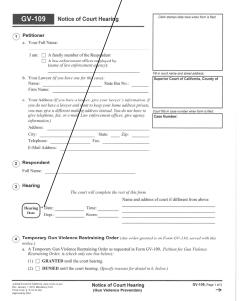

Then you will need to present facts to show that the person to be restrained is dangerous. This could be information about any threat of violence that the person to be restrained has made, any violent incident in which the person has been involved, or any crime of violence the person has committed. It could also be evidence that the person to be restrained has violated a protective order or abuses controlled substances or alcohol. It could also be evidence of the unlawful and reckless use, display, or brandishing of a firearm or the recent acquisition of a firearm. Or it could be evidence that the person to be restrained has been identified by a mental health provider as someone prohibited from purchasing, possessing or controlling any firearms.

You should include all of this information in your Petition and also be prepared to present it to the judge at the hearing.

 \rightarrow

Do I have to attend a court hearing?

Yes. Attend the hearing on the date listed on Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109).

You can attend the hearing remotely, such as by telephone or videoconference, or go to court in person. Check with your local court for instructions on how to appear remotely. Information is also available on the court's website, which you can find here: www.courts.ca.gov/ find-my-court.htm.

Can someone attend the hearing with me?

Yes. Someone can sit with you during the hearing, but that person cannot speak for you to the court. Only you or your lawyer (if you have one) can speak for you.

Do I need to bring a witness to the hearing?

Witnesses are not required, but it helps to have more proof than just your word. For example, consider bringing:

- Witnesses
- Written statements from witnesses made under oath
- Photos
- · Medical or police reports
- Damaged property
- Threatening letters, emails, or telephone messages

The court may or may not let witnesses speak at the hearing. So, if possible, you should bring their written statements under oath to the hearing. (You can use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose.)

Will I see the restrained person at the court hearing?

If the person attends the hearing, yes. If you are afraid, tell the court.

How long does the order last?

If the court makes a temporary order, it will last until your hearing date, which must be within 21 days of the date of the temporary order. If at the hearing the court issues a more permanent order, it will last for one to five years. It may be renewed for an additional one to five years.

What if the restrained person does not obey the order?

Call the police. The restrained person can be arrested and charged with a crime.

Can I agree with the restrained person to terminate the order?

No. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or terminate it. The restrained person would have to file a request with the court to terminate the order.

What if I need help to understand English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/request-interpreter.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

Information about the process is also available online.

\bigcirc		Restraining Order (form GV-100) are:

(1) The facts as stated in form GV-100 do not show that there is a substantial likelihood that both of the following are true:

Respondent poses a significant danger of causing personal injury to themself or another person by having custody or control of, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).

A gun violence restraining order is necessary to prevent personal injury to Respondent or to another person because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and found to be ineffective, or have been determined to be inadequate or inappropriate for the current circumstances.

- For information about service, read What Is "Proof of Personal Service"? (form GV-200-INFO).
- If you are unable to serve the Respondent in time, you may ask for a later hearing date, which will give you more time to serve the documents. Use Request to Continue Court Hearing for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-115).
- You must attend the hearing if you want the judge to make any of the orders you requested on form GV-100, Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order. Bring any evidence or witnesses you have. For more information, read form GV-100-INFO, Can a Gun Violence Restraining Order Help Me?

Warnings and Notices to the Respondent

To the restrained person: This Order is valid until the expiration date and time noted on page 1. You are required to surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that you own or possess in accordance with section 18120 of the Penal Code and you may not have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any firearm, ammunition, or magazines while this order is in effect. A hearing will be held on the date and at the time noted on Page 1 to determine if a more permanent gun violence restraining order should be issued. Failure to appear at the hearing may result in a court making an order against you that is valid for a period between one and five years. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the order. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that the attorney may assist you in any matter connected with the order.

Violation of this Order is a misdemeanor. If you violate this Order, you will be prohibited from having in your custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, any prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, for a period of five years. This Order must be enforced by any law enforcement officer in the state of California who is aware of or shown a copy of this Order. The Order remains enforceable regardless of the acts of the parties; it may be changed only by an order of the court.

After You Have Been Served With a Temporary Order

- Obey the order by turning in all firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, and magazines to a law enforcement agency or selling them to or storing them with a licensed gun dealer.
- Read How Can I Respond to a Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order? (form GV-120-INFO) to learn how to respond to this Order.
- If you do not oppose the petition, fill out Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order and Surrender of Firearms (form GV-125) and file it with the court clerk.
- If you disagree with the petition, fill out Response to Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-120) and file it with the court clerk.
- You must have form GV-120 served by mail on the Petitioner or the Petitioner's attorney. You cannot do this yourself. The person who does the mailing should complete and sign Proof of Service by Mail (form GV-250). File the completed proof of service with the court clerk before the hearing date or bring it with you to the hearing.
- In addition to the response, you may file and have declarations served, signed by you and other persons who have personal knowledge of the facts. You may use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose. It is available from the clerk's office at the court shown on page 1 of this form or at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. If you do not know how to prepare a declaration, you should see a lawyer.
- Whether or not you file a response, you should attend the hearing. If you have any witnesses, they must also attend the hearing. You and your witnesses may attend the hearing remotely (check with your court for instructions).
- At the hearing, the judge can make a gun violence restraining order against you that lasts between one to five years. Tell the judge why you disagree with the order requested.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any of the prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, or has custody or control of any that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use form GV-200 for this purpose.
- Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Duties of Agency on Surrender of Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, or Magazines

The law enforcement agency that has received the surrendered prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, must do the following:

- Retain the prohibited items until the termination or expiration of this Order or of any other gun violence restraining order issued by the court.
- On the expiration of this Order or of any later gun violence restraining order issued by the court, return the prohibited items to the respondent as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850). Section 34000 provides for the sale or destruction of any unclaimed items.

• If someone other than the Respondent claims title to any of the prohibited items surrendered, determine whether that person is the lawful owner. If so, return the prohibited items to that person as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850).

Enforcing This Order

The law enforcement officer should determine if the Respondent had notice of the order. Consider the Respondent "served" (given notice) if:

- The officer sees a copy of the proof of service or confirms that the proof of service is on file; or
- The Respondent was informed of the order by an officer; or
- The officer sees a filed copy of form GV-125.

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the Respondent cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it (see above: Duties of Officer Serving This Order).

The provisions in this Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in any other another existing protective order remain in effect.

What is a gun violence restraining order?

It is a court order that temporarily prohibits someone from having any firearms (guns), firearm parts (also called "ghost guns"), ammunition, or magazines (any ammunition feeding device). This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531). The person must turn in, sell, or store all such items that the person currently owns. For more information about prohibited items and obeying these orders, please see http://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/ restraining-orders/prohibited-items.

I've been served with a Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order. What do I do?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109) tells you when to appear in court. There may also be a Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-110) prohibiting you from having any firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines and requiring you to turn in, sell, or store any such items that you currently own or possess. You must obey the order until the hearing.

Who can ask for a gun violence restraining order?

The petition must have been filed by a:

- Law enforcement officer or agency,
- An employer, •
- A coworker who has had "regular interactions" . with you for at least a year,
- A teacher or employee of a school that you have • attended in the last 6 months,
- An immediate family member of yours, •
- A roommate, •
- Somebody in a dating relationship with you, or .
- Somebody who shares a child with you.

Immediate family member is defined to include people who are not blood relatives. The definition includes (1) your spouse or domestic partner; (2) you or your spouse's parents, children, siblings, grandparents, and grandchildren and their spouses, including any stepparent or stepgrandparent; and (3) you or your spouse's aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, first and second cousins, greatgrandparents, and great-grandchildren if you have had substantial and regular interactions for at least a year.

How Can I Respond to a Petition for a Gun Violence Restraining Order? (Gun Violence Prevention)

JUDICIAL COUNCIL What if I don't obey the temporary order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine. You could lose access to firearms and other items for a longer period of time.

What if I don't agree with what the order says?

If you disagree with the order that the Petitioner is asking for, fill out Response to Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-120) before your hearing date and file it with the court. You can get the form from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms.You also may be able to find it at your local courthouse or county law library.

What if I don't oppose the Petition?

If you agree to give up your access to firearms and your rights to own, possess, and buy guns, firearm parts, ammunition, and magazines for the time period requested in the petition, which is between one and five years, then you can fill out Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order and Surrender of Firearms (form GV-125) and check the box for item 4a. Make sure you take it to the court clerk and file it, and then mail it to the person or law enforcement agency that applied for the petition. The court will issue the gun violence restraining order before the hearing and remove the hearing from the calendar. You do not have to go to your court date, and the court will mail you a copy of the order. Make sure you check with the court to see if you have to show up for your court date.

Will I have to pay a filing fee?

No.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older-not you-mail a copy of completed Response to Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-120) to the person who asked for the order (or that person's lawyer). (This is called "service by mail.")

The person who serves the form by mail must fill out Proof of Service by Mail (form GV-250). Have the person who did the mailing sign the original. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

GV-120-INFO How Can I Respond to a Petition for a Gun Violence Restraining Order?

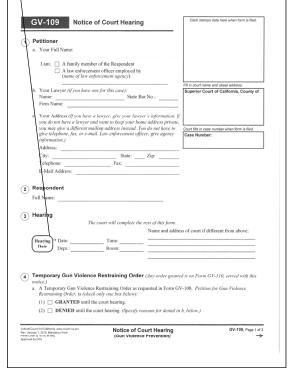

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required, and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

Should I attend the court hearing?

Yes. You should attend the hearing on the date listed on Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109). If you do not attend the hearing, the judge can extend the order against you for a period between one and five years without hearing from you.

You can attend the hearing by remotely, such as by telephone or videoconference, or go to court in person. Check with your local court for instructions on how to appear remotely. Information is also available on the court's website, which you can find here: www.courts.ca.gov/find-mv-court.htm.

Information about the process is also available online.

http://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/GV-restraining-order.

How long does the order last?

If the court issued a temporary restraining order before the hearing, it will last until your hearing date. At that time, the court will decide whether to issue a gun violence restraining order that can last for one to five years.

Will I see the person who asked for the order at the court hearing?

Assume that the person who is asking for the order will attend the hearing. It is probably best not to talk to them unless the judge or that person's attorney says that you can.

Can I bring a witness to the court hearing?

Yes. You can bring witnesses or documents that support your case to the hearing. But if possible, you should also bring the witnesses' written statements of what they saw or heard. Their statements must be made under penalty of perjury. (You can use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose.)

Can I agree with the protected person to terminate the order?

No. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or terminate it. You would have to file a request with the court to terminate the order.

What if I need help to understand English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/ request-interpreter.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

Order on Request for Renewal

The request to renew the attached Gun Violence Restraining Order After Hearing or Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-130), originally issued on (date): , is:

DENIED. The attached order expires as stated in item (3) of the order.
 CRANTED. The attached order is renewed for one year and will new expire.

GRANTED. The attached order is renewed for one year and will now expire:

on (date): ______ at (time): ______ a.m. ___ p.m. or ____ midnight

If no expiration date is written here, the order expires one year from the date of the hearing in item (3).

- a. The court finds by clear and convincing evidence that both of the following are true:
 - (1) Respondent continues to pose a significant danger of causing personal injury to themself or another person by having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).
 - (2) A gun violence restraining order remains necessary to prevent personal injury to Respondent or to another person because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and found to be ineffective, or have been determined to be inadequate or inappropriate for the current circumstances.
- b. The facts as stated in the Request to Renew Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-700) and supporting documents, which are incorporated here by reference, establish sufficient grounds for the issuance of this Order. Any reasons stated below apply as well.

See the attached Form MC-025, Attachment.

c. To the restrained person: If this order is renewed, it will last until the date and time noted above. If you have not done so already, you must surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that you own or possess in accordance with section 18120 of the Penal Code. You may not have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm, ammunition, or magazine, while this order is in effect. Pursuant to section 18185, you have the right to request one hearing on an annual basis to terminate this Order at any time during its effective period. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the order.

To the Prevailing Party:

5) Service of Order

Someone age 18 or older—not you—must serve a copy of this order on the other party.

- Order Granted—The Respondent was present in court at the time the order was renewed. No further service is required.
- □ Order Granted—The Respondent was not present in court at the time the order was renewed. Personal service is required. The Respondent must be personally served with this Order. (After the Respondent has been served, file form GV-200, Proof of Personal Service, with the court clerk. For help with service, read form GV-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?)
- □ Order Denied—Service by Mail—If the Petitioner was not present in court at the hearing, the Petitioner may be served with this Order by mail. (After the Petitioner has been served, the person doing the mailing should fill out form POS-030, Proof of Service by First-Class Mail—Civil. File the form with the court clerk. For help with service by mail, read the Information Sheet on page 2 of form POS-030.)

What items do I need to turn in, sell, or store?

You must turn in, sell, or store all of the following prohibited items that you have or control:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531) (these may also be called "ghost guns");
- Ammunition, also called ammo, including bullets, shells, cartridges, and clips; and
- Magazines (any ammunition feeding device, whether fixed or removable).

How do I properly turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

You must take them to:

• Law enforcement, who will accept all prohibited items and may store them or destroy them;

OR

A licensed gun dealer, who can buy or store firearms. If you have firearms parts, ammunition, or magazines, call ahead for more information.

When do I have to turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

Immediately if law enforcement asks you for the items. Otherwise, within 24 hours.

Who can I turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items with?

Only law enforcement or a licensed gun dealer. You cannot give your prohibited items to a family member, friend, or anyone else.

Where can I sell the prohibited items?

At a licensed gun dealer in your area. You can search the internet for "Gun Dealers" or "Firearms Dealers" to find one. Make sure the dealer is licensed.

Do I have to pay a fee to store prohibited items?

You may have to pay a fee. Contact your local law enforcement agency or a licensed gun dealer about fees and whether they have space to store your items.

How do I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement?

Call your local law enforcement agency to ask about their procedures. Unload your firearms and take a copy of the court order with you.

Do not bring firearms to court.

If I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement, how long will they keep them?

It depends. There are procedures for getting your firearms back after the restraining order has expired. Ask the law enforcement agency for more information.

After I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement, can I change my mind?

Yes. You are allowed to sell firearms, ammunition, and magazines to a licensed gun dealer. To do this, the gun dealer must present a bill of sale to your local law enforcement agency. The law enforcement agency will give the licensed gun dealer the items that you are selling.

Do I have to prove that I have turned in, sold, or stored the prohibited items?

Yes. Within 48 hours you must file a receipt with the court and the law enforcement agency showing that you have surrendered the prohibited items to a law enforcement agency or sold them to or stored them with a licensed gun dealer. You may use Receipt for Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, and Magazines (form GV-800) for this purpose.

Additional Questions?

Contact an attorney for legal advice. Call your local law enforcement agency, for example, your city police or county sheriff for their procedures.
