Proposed by

Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee

Hon. Stephanie E. Hulse, Cochair

Hon. Amy M. Pellman, Cochair

Executive Summary and Origin

The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee recommends revising 14 domestic violence restraining order forms to implement Assembly Bill 2369, Senate Bill 935, and Assembly Bill 1621. The committee also recommends adopting two new forms that would be used to continue a hearing on a request to renew a restraining order.

Background

Effective January 1, 2023, Assembly Bill 2369 (Stats. 2022, ch. 591) requires the court in a domestic violence restraining order proceeding to, on request, award attorney's fees or costs to a prevailing petitioner, or to a prevailing respondent if the prevailing respondent can show by a preponderance of the evidence that the petition or request was frivolous or solely intended to

This proposal has not been approved by the Judicial Council and is not intended to represent the views of the council, its Rules Committee, or its Legislation Committee. It is circulated for comment purposes only.

abuse, intimidate, or cause unnecessary delay.¹ However, before an award of attorney’s fees or costs is made, the court must first determine whether the party ordered to pay has, or is reasonably likely to have, the ability to pay.²

Effective January 1, 2023, Senate Bill 935 (Stats. 2022, ch. 88) changes the duration of a renewed order. Before SB 935, the duration of a renewed order had to be either five years or a permanent order. Under SB 935, a renewed order may be for any length of time, provided that it is at least five years long and could still be made a permanent order of the court. SB 935 also clarifies that a domestic violence restraining order may be renewed more than once. Other changes are also recommended to make the renewal forms more consistent with the other forms in the DV form set.

Currently, no forms are available to request or order to continue (reschedule) a hearing on a request to renew a restraining order. The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee has received comments that continuance forms would be helpful because the existing continuance forms (e.g., forms DV-115 and DV-116) are not designed for renewal proceedings. The committee agrees that continuance forms would be helpful and especially important if the order for continuance extends the Restraining Order After Hearing, because the new expiration would need to be entered into the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS).

As an urgency statute, Assembly Bill 1621 (Stats. 2022, ch. 76) went into effect immediately on approval on June 30, 2022. It prohibits persons subject to a restraining order from possessing or owning certain firearm parts, including a “firearm precursor part,” which it redefined.³ Changes are needed to a number of forms to implement the new definition of firearm precursor part.

The Proposal

This proposal is necessary to implement new changes in the law. Because most litigants in domestic violence restraining order proceedings represent themselves, it is particularly important for the council to act quickly to ensure that litigants have access to the new remedies provided by the Legislature. The proposal also includes a number of other changes that the committee believes will make the forms and process more user-friendly for self-represented litigants. The proposed form changes are listed below.

- Adopt two Judicial Council forms:
 - Request to Reschedule Hearing to Renew Restraining Order (form DV-715); and
 - Order to Reschedule Hearing to Renew Restraining Order (form DV-716).

³ Pen. Code, § 16531(a).

- Revise 14 Judicial Council forms:
 - Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order (form DV-100);
 - Notice of Court Hearing (form DV-109);
 - Temporary Restraining Order (form DV-110);
 - Response to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order (form DV-120);
 - How Can I Respond to a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order? (form DV-120-INFO);
 - Restraining Order After Hearing (form DV-130);
 - Request to Renew Restraining Order (DV-700);
 - How Do I Ask the Court to Renew My Restraining Order? (form DV-700-INFO);
 - Notice of Hearing to Renew Restraining Order (DV-710);
 - Response to Request to Renew Restraining Order (DV-720);
 - Order to Renew Domestic Violence Restraining Order (DV-730);
 - How Do I Turn In, Sell, or Store My Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition? (DV-800-INFO/JV-270-INFO);
 - Notice of Compliance Hearing for Firearms and Ammunition (DV-840/FL-840); and
 - Emergency Protective Order (CLETS-EPO) (EPO-001).

AB 2369

To implement the new legislation regarding attorney’s fees and costs in domestic violence restraining order proceedings, the committee recommends the following:

- On the request form (DV-100), remove the requirement that petitioner provide a completed Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) if they are requesting attorney’s fees or costs. Before AB 2369, the petitioner’s ability to pay these costs was at issue even if they were the prevailing party. Under AB 2369, the court looks only to whether the person ordered to pay has, or would likely have, the ability to pay. Therefore, petitioner’s ability to pay is only at issue if respondent prevails, seeks attorney’s fees or costs, and can prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the request was frivolous or solely intended to abuse, intimidate, or cause unnecessary delay.
- On response form (DV-120), state that respondent completes the Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) only if the petitioner has asked for attorney’s fees or costs. As described above, respondent does not need to complete form FL-150 if respondent is the only party seeking attorney’s fees or costs; only petitioner’s ability to pay would be relevant. The committee also recommends adding a plain-language description of the new showing that respondent must make if respondent is seeking attorney’s fees or costs.⁴

To reflect the new duration for which a Restraining Order After Hearing can be renewed, the committee recommends changes to the request form (DV-700), an information form for ⁴ See item 23(c) on form DV-120.

petitioner (DV-700-INFO), the response form (DV-720), and the order form (DV-730). The committee also recommends a number of changes to the renewal forms to make the format and content consistent with changes that have been made to other DV forms over the past few years, and a few substantive changes that are described below.⁵

Request form (DV-700)

In response to a suggestion from a domestic violence organization, the committee recommends including an instruction at the top of the request form to indicate that the form may be used to request a renewal of a juvenile restraining order that was issued to prevent domestic violence. Under Family Code section 6345, on request of a party, the court may renew the personal conduct, stay-away, and residence exclusion orders for a period of at least five years, or permanently. The availability of renewals under the Family Code is not limited to those cases arising from family court but applies to all restraining orders issued under the Domestic Violence Prevention Act.⁶ Therefore, a protected party in a juvenile restraining order to prevent domestic violence would use the DV forms to request a renewal of a juvenile restraining order.

The committee also recommends providing more space for the requesting party to include their reasons for requesting the renewal, and an item for the party to seek attorney's fees and costs.⁷

Response form (DV-720)

Additional space is provided for respondent who opposes the request to renew to explain why they do not agree. An item would also be added to allow the respondent to respond to or make a request for attorney's fees or costs consistent with the new requirements under AB 2369 (described above).

Notice and Order forms (DV-710 and DV-730)

The committee recommends adding an item to address service of the order on the respondent. The committee notes that the Domestic Violence Prevention Act is silent on the issue of service of the order to renew when the respondent did not attend the hearing. Because a renewed restraining order changes only the duration of the restraining order, the committee recommends applying the requirement in Family Code section 6384(a) that applies to temporary restraining orders where the court may order service by first-class mail if the only change to the restraining order is the duration of the order.⁸ The committee also recommends including notice of this new procedure on form DV-710, informing the restrained person that they will receive a copy of the renewed restraining order at the address provided on form DV-710 if they do not appear at the hearing. A similar notice is already provided on the existing temporary restraining order (form DV-110, at page 7).

⁵ Because the formatting changes are so widespread on these forms, highlighting the proposed changes would result in highlighting the entire forms. For that reason, in order to make it easier to read the forms, the changes have not been highlighted.

Information form (DV-700-INFO)

This form provides information for the protected party (person requesting the renewal). The committee recommends adding information on what the protected party will have to prove to the court at the renewal hearing, as provided by the Court of Appeal in Richie v. Konrad.⁹ The committee also recommends adding information on when a juvenile restraining order involves domestic violence.

Continuance forms (DV-715 and DV-716)

The committee recommends adopting a new request to continue form and an order for continuance form, to be used when a request to renew a restraining order has been filed with the court. The request form (DV-715) could be used by either party to ask the court to continue a hearing. The order form (DV-716) would be used by the court to indicate its decision on a request to continue a hearing or to continue a hearing on its own motion. Substantially similar forms are also being recommended in a separate proposal by the Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee, for the CH, EA, GV, SV, and WV protective order form sets.¹⁰

AB 1621

Changes are needed to seven forms to reflect the new definition of “firearm precursor part” under Penal Code section 16531.¹¹ The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory committee worked with other advisory committees who have purview over protective order forms to construct a plain-language description of firearm precursor parts. The committees recommend referring to precursor parts as “any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame.” The council has already approved this language for use in other protective order forms.

An example of the proposed language is provided below.

¹¹ See proposed changes on forms DV-100, at item 9; DV-110, at item 5; DV-120-INFO at page 2; DV-130, at item 7; DV-800-INFO; DV-840 at item 4; and EPO-001 at item 3e.

Form DV-110

No Firearms (Guns), Firearm Parts, or Ammunition

- a. You cannot own, possess, have, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or in any other way get any prohibited item listed below in b.
- b. Prohibited items are:
 - (1) Firearms (guns);
 - (2) Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531); and
 - (3) Ammunition.

These same changes have already been made to other civil protective order forms (CH, GV, EA, SV, and WV), which became effective on January 1, 2023, and will be reflected in revisions to the criminal protective orders (forms CR-160 and CR-161), which became effective on March 1, 2023.

Additional changes to form EPO-001

The committee also recommends simplifying the warning and notices contained on page 2 of the EPO form. Many of the existing notices unnecessarily repeat information that is on page 1 of the order. Also, some of words used are legalese and could be stated more plainly. Simplifying the content on this page also provides for more space to allow for a complete translation of all the content on page 2. The existing version does not translate the bolded “Warnings and Information” section, which is directed at the restrained person.

Clarification of service requirements after remote appearance

To clarify the service requirements for respondents who appear remotely in protective order proceedings, this committee and the Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee jointly recommend two new rules of court and revisions to the CH, EA, SV, and WV forms in a separate proposal.¹² Within that proposal are revisions to the notice of hearing forms and the order after hearing forms to specify to the respondent that attending the hearing, including through the use of remote technology, will result in immediate enforcement of any orders issued. Substantially similar changes are being recommended to forms DV-109 and DV-130 in this proposal.

Form DV-109

On this notice form, the committees recommend alerting respondents that attending the hearing—whether physically, by phone, or by videoconference—will result in immediate enforcement of any orders issued. The committees also recommend including a notice to respondent regarding the consequences of not appearing at the hearing. These changes are shown below:

¹² The proposal, “Protective Orders: Service Requirements After Remote Appearances (SPR23-30)”, is available at www.courts.ca.gov/policyadmin-invitationstocomment.htm.

To the person in ②:

- At the hearing, the judge could grant a restraining order against you that could last up to five years, even if you do not attend the hearing. For more information, see page 3.
- If you attend the hearing (in person, by phone, or by videoconference) and the judge grants a restraining order against you, the order will be effective immediately and you could be arrested if you violate the order.

In response to a comment received by a court, the committees also recommend removing, at item 6, form 250 (proof of service by mail) as a form that must be served by the petitioner on respondent. This requirement can lead to delays in service by the sheriff when the petitioner does not have this form ready for the sheriff. The committees note that service of a blank proof of service form is atypical and not a requirement in other proceedings and should be removed if it can lead to delays in service.

Form DV-130

The item for service would be revised to state that no other proof of service is needed if the respondent attends the hearing “either physically or through the use of remote technology.” This conforms with the new rules in the joint proposal.

Alternatives Considered

For the new continuance forms for renewal proceedings, the committee considered revising existing forms DV-115 and DV-116. However, the committee rejected this approach because some of the provisions of the Family Code apply only to continuances of the initial request for restraining order (e.g., under Family Code section 245, a respondent is entitled to one continuance, for a reasonable period of time, to respond to the petition). Creating a form that would work both for the initial request for restraining order and for a renewal would make the forms more complicated. Instead, the committee decided that a separate continuance form set for renewals would be more user-friendly. The committee also considered whether to adopt a new information form, similar to form DV-115-INFO. The committee decided against a separate information form at this time and instead included more instruction on new form DV-715, under “Your Next Steps.”

The committee considered not adding an item on form DV-730 to address service on respondent. However, the committee rejected this approach because adding the information provides clarity to both parties on when further service of the order is required. It would also inform law enforcement as to whether further service is required for enforcement purposes, because this information would be entered into CLETS.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

The committee anticipates that this proposal would require courts to train court staff and judicial officers on the newly approved and revised forms. Courts will also incur costs to incorporate the revised forms into the paper or electronic processes.

Request for Specific Comments

In addition to comments on the proposal as a whole, the advisory committee is interested in comments on the following:

- Does the proposal appropriately address the stated purpose?

The advisory committee also seeks comments from courts on the following cost and implementation matters:

- Would the proposal provide cost savings? If so, please quantify.
- What would the implementation requirements be for courts—for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems?
- Would three months from Judicial Council approval of this proposal until its effective date provide sufficient time for implementation?
- How well would this proposal work in courts of different sizes?

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any of the prohibited items listed in (6), or has custody or control of any that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use form DV-200 for this purpose.

Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Penal Code sections 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Penal Code section 13710(b).)

Child Custody and Visitation

Child custody and visitation orders are listed on form DV-140 or another attached form. If the judge made these orders, look at items (10) and (11) of this order to see if the judge granted an exception for brief and peaceful contact with the person in (1) as needed to follow court-ordered visits. Contact by the person in (2) that is not brief and peaceful is a violation of this order. Forms DV-100 and DV-105 are not orders. Do not enforce them.

This is a Court Order.

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Penal Code section 136.2 and Family Code sections 6383(h)(2), 6405(b)):

1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must be enforced.
2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. Item ⑩ is an example of a no-contact order.
3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders include an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Family Code sections 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b).) Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Penal Code section 136.2(e)(2).) All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must be enforced.
4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must be enforced.

This is not a Court Order.

DV-120-INFO How Can I Respond to a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order?

I was served with form DV-100, DV-109, or DV-110. What does this mean?

Someone has asked for a domestic violence restraining order against you. On the forms, you are the "person in ②" and the person who wants a restraining order against you is listed in ① on all the forms.

Form DV-100: This form has all the orders that the person in ① has asked the judge to order.

Form DV-109: Your court hearing (court date) is listed on this form. You should attend the court hearing if you do not agree to the orders requested. If you do not attend, the judge can make orders against you without hearing from you.

Form DV-110: If you were served with form DV-110, it means that the judge granted a temporary restraining order against you. You must follow the orders.

What is a Domestic Violence Restraining Order?

It is a court order that can help protect people who have been abused by someone they have been intimate with, or are closely related to. To be eligible, the person asking for the restraining order must be:

- Someone you date or used to date
- A spouse, ex-spouse, registered domestic partner, or ex-domestic partner
- Someone you live or lived with (more than a roommate)
- Your parent, sibling, child, grandparent, or grandchild related by blood, marriage, or adoption

What can a restraining order do?

A restraining order can include orders for you to:

- Not contact or harm the protected person, including children or others listed as protected people
- Stay away from all protected people and places
- Not have any firearms (guns), firearm parts, or ammunition. This includes homemade or untraceable guns, like "ghost guns."
- Move out of the place that you share with the protected person
- Follow custody and visitation orders
- Pay child support
- Pay spousal support
- Pay debt for property
- Give control of property (examples: cell phone, car, home) to the person asking for protection.

What if I have children with the person asking for a restraining order?

A restraining order can include orders for your children, including listing them as protected persons. It can also include child custody and visitation orders and orders to limit your ability to travel with your children.

How long does the order last?

If the judge granted a temporary restraining order (form DV-110), it will last until the hearing date. At your court hearing, the judge will decide whether to extend the order or cancel the order. The judge can extend the order for up to five years. Custody, visitation, child support, and spousal support orders can last longer than five years and they do not end when the restraining order ends.

What do I do next?Part 1: Turn in or sell prohibited items

If there is a temporary restraining order against you (see form DV-110), then you must immediately turn in, sell, or store any prohibited items you have or own.

Prohibited items include:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon
- Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame
- Ammunition, including bullets, shells, cartridges, and clips

You must then prove to the court that you've complied with the orders. Bring form DV-800/JV-270, Receipt for Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition, to a gun dealer or law enforcement when you turn in your items. After DV-800/JV-270 is complete, file it with the court. You may ask the court for information on how to turn in, sell, or store these items in your city or county. You can also read form DV-800-INFO/JV-270-INFO, How Do I Turn In, Sell, Or Store My Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition?

Part 2: Respond in writing (optional)

"Respond" means to let the judge and the other side know whether you agree or disagree with the request for restraining order, and why. Responding in writing is optional and there is no penalty if you don't. If you need more time to prepare for your case, talk to a lawyer or self-help center staff before you file a response.

If you want to respond in writing, complete form DV-120, Response to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order. After you complete the form, file it with the court. There is no court fee to file this form. Then "serve" the form on the person asking for the restraining order. "Serve" means to have someone 18 years old or older mail a copy to the person asking for the restraining order. You cannot be the one to mail your papers. The person who mails your form must fill out form DV-250, Proof of Service by Mail. After form DV-250 is completed, file it with the court.

Part 3: Get ready and go to your court hearing

Your court hearing is listed on form DV-109, Notice of Court Hearing. You have the option of attending your hearing in-person or remotely (by phone, or videoconference if available). For information on how to attend your hearing remotely, go to the court's website. Some courts may require advance notice. At the hearing, you and the other side will have the opportunity to tell your side of the story. For more information, read form DV-520-INFO, Get Ready for the Restraining Order Court Hearing. If you need more time to prepare your case, you may ask the judge for a new court date. The judge will decide whether to grant your request. Read form DV-115-INFO, How to Ask For a New Hearing Date, for more information. Note that if the judge does give you a new court date and if there is a temporary restraining order against you, the judge will usually extend the temporary restraining order until the next court date.

What if I need an interpreter?

You may use form INT-300 to request an interpreter or ask the clerk how you can request one.

What if I have a disability and need an accommodation?

You may use form MC-410 to request assistance. Contact the disability/ADA coordinator at your local court for more information.

Request for Accommodations

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five days before the hearing. Contact the clerk's office or go to www.courts.ca.gov/forms.htm for Disability Accommodation Request (form MC-410). (Civil Code section 54.8.)

DV-120-INFO How Can I Respond to a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order?

Do I need a lawyer?

It's possible to go through this process without a lawyer. But having a restraining order against you may have a lot of consequences, and you may want to hire a lawyer. If you don't hire a lawyer, you can get free help from your court's self-help center.

What if I was arrested or have criminal charges against me?

Anything you write in your court papers or say at a hearing for this case and for any criminal case can be used against you. Talk to a lawyer if you have any concerns about what you can do and say.

Where can I find a self-help center?

Free legal help is available at your court's self-help center. Find your local court's self-help center at www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp. Self-help center staff will not act as your lawyer but may be able to give you information to help you decide what to do in your case, and help you with the forms. Staff may also refer you to other agencies who may be able to help you.

What if I don't obey the order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine. You must still follow the orders even if you are not a U.S. citizen. If you are worried about your immigration status, talk to an immigration lawyer.

Can I use the restraining order to get divorced or end a domestic partnership?

No. These forms will not end your marriage or registered domestic partnership. You must file other forms to end your marriage or registered domestic partnership.

What if I want to leave the county or state?

You must still comply with the restraining order, including custody and visitation orders. The restraining order is valid anywhere in the United States.

What if I have more than one restraining order against me?

If the police are called to enforce the order, they will need to follow the rules of enforcement (see "Priority of Enforcement" listed on the back of form DV-110, DV-130, and CR-160). If you have questions about any of the orders against you, contact your local self-help center or talk to a lawyer. Find your local court's self-help center at:

www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp.

What if I am a victim or survivor of domestic violence?

The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides free and private safety tips. Help is available in over 100 languages. Visit online at www.thehotline.org or call 1-800-799-7233; 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

What if I need a restraining order against the other person?

Do not use form DV-120 to request a domestic violence restraining order. For information on how to file your own restraining order, read form DV-505-INFO. You can also ask the court clerk about free or low-cost legal help.

Judge or Judicial Officer

This is a Court Order.

Certificate of Compliance With VAWA

This restraining (protective) order meets all “full faith and credit” requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. section 2265 (1994) (VAWA) upon notice of the restrained person. This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been or will be afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in each jurisdiction throughout the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, commonwealths, and possessions and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This order starts on the earlier of the following dates:

- The hearing date in item ⑤(a) on page 2; or
- The date next to the judge’s signature on this page.

This order ends on the expiration date in ④. If no date is listed, they end three years from the hearing date.

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any of the prohibited items listed in ⑦b, or has custody or control of any that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use form DV-200 for this purpose.
- Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer’s name and law enforcement agency.

Enforcing the Restraining Order in California

Any law enforcement officer in California who receives, sees, or verifies the orders on a paper copy, in the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS), or in an NCIC Protection Order File must enforce the orders.

Notice/Proof of Service

Law enforcement must first determine if the restrained person had notice of the orders. If notice cannot be verified, the restrained person must be advised of the terms of the orders. If the restrained person then fails to obey the orders, the officer must enforce them. (Family Code section 6383.)

Consider the restrained person “served” (notified) if:

- The officer sees a copy of the Proof of Service or confirms that the Proof of Service is on file; or
- The restrained person was at the restraining order hearing or was informed of the order by an officer. (Family Code section 6383; Penal Code section 836(c)(2).) An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order in the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS). (Family Code section 6381(b)-(c).)

This is a Court Order.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Penal Code sections 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Penal Code section 13710(b).)

Child Custody and Visitation

Child custody and visitation orders are listed on form DV-140 or another attached form. If the judge made these orders, look at items 13 and 14 of this order to see if the judge granted an exception for brief and peaceful contact with the person in 1 as needed to follow court-ordered visits. Contact by the person in 2 that is not brief and peaceful is a violation of this order.

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Penal Code section 136.2 and Family Code sections 6383(h)(2), 6405(b)):

1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must be enforced.
2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. Item 13 is an example of a no-contact order.
3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders include an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Family Code sections 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b)). Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Penal Code section 136.2(e)(2)). All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must be enforced.
4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must be enforced.

Your Next Steps

- After you complete this form, complete items 1 and 2 of form DV-710, Notice of Hearing to Renew Restraining Order.
- File this form and form DV-710 with the court clerk. You must do this before your restraining order expires.
- Once you get your forms back from the court, have someone "serve" a copy of all forms on the person in (2). The sheriff or marshal can do this for free. See form SER-001, Request for Sheriff to Serve Court Papers. Learn more about service at <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/sheriff-serves-your-request-restraining-order>.
- Learn more about how to prepare for your hearing at <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/DV-restraining-order/renew/court>.

This is not a Court Order.

DV-700-INFO How Do I Ask the Court to Renew My Restraining Order?

What does "renew" mean?

It means to extend your current restraining order (form DV-130). If renewed, the judge would extend it for at least five years, or make the order permanent (no expiration).

What if I want to renew a juvenile restraining order?

If you have a juvenile restraining order (on form JV-255 or JV-265), that was based on domestic violence, you can ask the judge to renew your restraining order. Your restraining order is based on domestic violence if it was granted to protect you or your child from the other parent, or to protect you from someone you dated or had an intimate relationship with. If you are not sure whether your juvenile restraining order was based on domestic violence, talk to your lawyer. If you do not have a lawyer, your local self-help center may be able to help you. Find your local court's self-help center at www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp.

What if I also want to change (modify) my restraining order?

There is another process to ask to change your restraining order. If you ask to renew your restraining order, and also ask to change your restraining order, you can ask the judge to decide both requests at the same time. For information on how to ask to change your order, read form DV-400-INFO, How Do I Ask to Change or End a Domestic Violence Restraining Order After Hearing.

When do I ask for the renewal?

You must ask for the renewal before your current restraining order expires. You can make the request up to three months before it expires. The expiration date is listed on the first page of your current restraining order.

Is there a court fee to ask for a renewal?

No.

Do I have to go to court?

Yes, if you ask for a renewal, you will get a court date. At your court hearing, the judge will ask you why you want your restraining order renewed. If you do not attend your hearing, your restraining order will not be renewed.

Where can I find free help?

Free legal help is available at your court's self-help center. Find your local court's self-help center at www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp. Self-help center staff will not act as your lawyer but may be able to give you information to help you decide what to do in your case, and help you with the forms. Staff may also refer you to other agencies who may be able to help you.

What if I am worried about my safety?

The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides free and private safety tips. Help is available every day, 24 hours a day, and in over 100 languages. Visit online at www.thehotline.org or call 1-800-799-7233; 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

Steps to ask for a renewal

① Complete two forms:

- Form DV-700, Request to Renew Restraining Order; and
- Form DV-710, Notice of Hearing to Renew Restraining Order (items 1 and 2 only).

② File forms with court

File both forms with the court clerk. Make sure you include a copy of your current restraining order (DV-130, JV-255, or JV-265) with form DV-700. You can file in person or electronically. For more information on how or where to file, go to the court's website.

③ Get your papers back from the court

Make sure you get at least two copies back: one for you and one to have served on the restrained person.

④ Have restrained person served with papers

You must have an adult personally give a copy of all the court papers (all forms listed on form DV-710, item 5) to the person you want a restraining order against. It cannot be you or anyone listed on the restraining order. Your server must then complete a proof of service form (DV-200). Make a copy of the completed form DV-200 and file it with the court.

Serving papers can be a dangerous situation. If you want the sheriff to serve your papers, they will do so for free. If you want the sheriff to serve your papers, complete form SER-001, Request for Sheriff to Serve Court Papers. Give the sheriff a copy of the completed form and all papers that need to be served on the other side (all forms listed on form DV-710, item 5). For more information on service, go to <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/DV-restraining-order/renew/sheriff-serves>.

If you can't serve the restrained person before your court date, contact the court's self-help center or a lawyer. Ask them how to ask the judge for permission to serve your forms another way (called alternative service). Make sure you attend your court date (listed on DV-710 or DV-716) and let the judge know you were unable to serve the restrained person.

⑤ Get ready and attend your court hearing

At your court hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant your request to renew your restraining order. What you will need to prove at your court hearing will depend on if the other side attends the hearing:

- If the restrained person does not attend the hearing, the judge can renew your restraining order based on only your request.
- If the restrained person attends the hearing and does not agree to the renewal, then you must prove that you have a reasonable fear or concern that the restrained person will abuse you or is likely to abuse you in the future. But you don't have to prove that you've been abused by the person since the restraining order has been in effect.

At the hearing, you and the other side will have the opportunity to tell your side of the story. Bring any evidence or witnesses you have.

If you don't want to attend your court hearing in person, go to the court's website to find out more information about attending by phone or videoconference. For information on your court hearing go to <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/DV-restraining-order/renew/court>.

What if the judge renews my restraining order?

- ① You will need form DV-730, Order to Renew Domestic Violence Restraining Order, signed by the judge. If the court does not complete this form for you, make sure you complete it and give it to the court clerk. Contact the court's self-help center if you need help.
- ② You will need to get copies of form DV-730, once it is signed by the judge. Ask the court clerk when your forms will be ready. There is no fee for turning in this form, and you should receive some free copies.
- ③ Look at form DV-730 to see if the judge ordered you to serve the form by mail or in person. If you are ordered to serve the form by mail, this means your server only has to mail a copy of the restraining order. But, serving someone in person is always best. When you mail court papers, it may be hard to prove that the person actually received a copy especially if the person moves a lot. Learn more about service at <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/DV-restraining-order/renew/serve-order>.

What if I need an interpreter?

You may use form INT-300 to request an interpreter or ask the clerk how you can request one.

What if I have a disability and need an accommodation?

You may use form MC-410 to request assistance. Contact the disability/ADA coordinator at your local court for more information.

Request for Accommodations

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five days before the hearing. Contact the clerk's office or go to www.courts.ca.gov/forms.htm for Disability Accommodation Request (form MC-410). (Civil Code section 54.8.)

DV-800-INFO/JV-270-INFO

How Do I Turn In, Sell, or Store My Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition?

What do I need to turn in, sell, or store?

You must turn in, sell, or store all of the following prohibited items that you have or own:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, includes receivers, frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (also called “ghost guns”); and
- Ammunition, including bullets, shells, cartridges, and clips.

How do I properly turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

You must take them to:

- Law enforcement, who will accept all prohibited items for safekeeping or to destroy, or
- A licensed gun dealer, who can buy or store your firearms. If you have firearm parts or ammunition, call ahead for more information.

When do I turn in, sell, or store prohibited items?

Immediately, if law enforcement asks you to. Otherwise, within 24 hours of being served, or told by a judge to do so.

Can I give my prohibited items to family or friends?

No, only to law enforcement or a licensed gun dealer. You cannot give your prohibited items to a family member, friend, or anyone else.

Do I have to pay a fee to store prohibited items?

You may have to pay a fee. Contact law enforcement or a licensed gun dealer about fees and whether they have space to store your items.

How do I take prohibited items to law enforcement?

Call your local law enforcement agency to ask about their procedures. They will give you specific instructions, like making sure your firearms are unloaded and in the trunk of the car. Take a copy of the restraining order with you. Do not bring your firearms to court.

If I turn in my firearms to law enforcement, how long will they keep them?

It depends. There are procedures for getting your firearms back after a restraining order expires. Ask the law enforcement agency.

After I give my firearms to law enforcement, can I change my mind?

Yes. You are allowed to make one sale through a licensed gun dealer. To do this, a licensed gun dealer must present a bill of sale to your local law enforcement agency. The law enforcement agency will give the licensed gun dealer the firearms you are selling.

How do I prove to the judge that I have complied with (obeyed) the orders?

- ① Bring a copy of form DV-800/JV-270, Receipt for Firearms, Firearm Parts, and Ammunition, with you, and ask the dealer or officer to complete and sign the form.
- ② File form DV-800/JV-270 with the court. Make sure you get two copies. All receipts must be filed with the court within 48 hours from the time you were served with the restraining order, unless the judge gave you another deadline.

Do I need to bring a copy of the receipt to anyone besides the judge?

Yes, if:

- ▶ Law enforcement served you with the restraining order, you must give them a copy of your receipt (example: form DV-800/JV-270). If you don't know who served you with the restraining order, ask the court clerk for a copy of the proof of service form for the restraining order. The law enforcement agency is listed on that form.
- ▶ You did not obey the order when you were supposed to, and the court notified law enforcement or a prosecuting attorney. (Tip: Look at forms DV-110, DV-130, or DV-820 to see if the court notified another agency. If the court did, give a copy of the receipt to the agencies listed on any of the forms).

Where can I find free help?

Free legal help is available at your court's self-help center. Find your local court's self-help center at www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp. Self-help center staff will not act as your lawyer but may be able to give you information to help you decide what to do in your case, and help you with the forms. Staff may also refer you to other agencies who may be able to help you.

More information on how to obey these orders is available online

Spanish translation

This emergency protective order is effective when made and must be enforced by all law enforcement officers in the State of California who are aware of or shown a copy of this order. The terms and conditions of this order are enforceable regardless of the acts of the parties; it may be changed only by order of the court (Penal Code section 13710(b)). A law enforcement officer shall use every reasonable means to enforce this order. An officer acting in good faith to enforce the order will not be held liable.

The provisions of this emergency protective order take precedence in enforcement over provisions of other existing protective orders between the same protected and restrained persons if the provisions of this order are more restrictive. The provisions in another existing protective order remain in effect and take precedence if they are more restrictive than the provisions in this emergency protective order.

The availability of an emergency protective order shall not be affected by the fact that the endangered person has vacated the household to avoid abuse.
