Re: Notification of Vacancies and Allocation of Conversion of Subordinate Judicial Officer
Positions as Required Under Government Code Section 69615

Dear Senator Steinberg, Senator Corbett, Speaker Pérez, and Assembly Member Feuer:

Assembly Bill 159 (Stats. 2007, ch. 722) authorized the Judicial Council to convert 162 subordinate judicial officer (SJO) positions, upon vacancy, to judgeships at a rate of up to 16 per fiscal year. Government Code section 69615 requires the Judicial Council to file notice of the vacancies in SJO positions that the council would be seeking to convert in the coming fiscal year, as well as the allocation of conversions among the courts eligible for conversion of SJO positions.

For fiscal year 2010–2011, the Judicial Council has approved the following methodology for allocating the 16 conversions among the remaining courts eligible for conversions:

Superior Courts (by County)	Number of Conversions Set Aside for FY 2010–2011
Group 1: Los Angeles	7
Group 2: Orange	2
Group 3: Alameda, Contra Costa, Riverside, Sacramento, San Diego, San Francisco	3
Group 4: El Dorado, Fresno, Imperial, Kern, Marin, Merced, Napa, Placer, San Luis Obispo, San Mateo, Santa Barbara, Santa Cruz, Solano, Sonoma, Stanislaus, Tulare, Yolo	4

The Judicial Council has approved conversions to judgeships of 12 vacant or soon to be vacant positions for fiscal year 2010–2011, contingent on the Legislature’s ratification of the council’s exercise of this authority. The Budget Act of 2009, (Sen. Bill X3 1; Stats. 2009, ch. 1) included the authorization for conversion of subordinate judicial officers in 2009–2010. Item 0250-101-0932, provision 11 stated: “Sixteen (16.0) subordinate judicial officer positions are authorized to be converted to judgeships in the 2009–10 fiscal year in the manner and pursuant to the authority described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 69615 of the Government Code, as described in the notice filed by the Judicial Council under subdivision (b) of paragraph (3) of Section 69615.” The same language is included in this year’s budget bills, Senate Bill 874 and Assembly Bill 1609.

The 12 positions approved by the council for conversion are allocated as follows: 1 position has been approved for conversion to a judgeship in each of the following superior courts: Alameda, Fresno, Imperial, Sonoma, and Stanislaus. Five positions have been approved for conversion in Los Angeles, and 2 positions in Orange. In accordance with the Judicial Council methodology, 2 additional conversions are set aside for Los Angeles, and 2 conversions are set aside for the 6 courts that compose Group 3: Alameda, Contra Costa, Riverside, Sacramento, San Diego, and San Francisco. Under Judicial Council policy, if the courts for whom the conversions are set aside do not report any subordinate judicial officer vacancies or anticipated vacancies by January 1, the remaining positions set aside for conversion will be distributed to any other eligible court on a first-come, first-served basis.

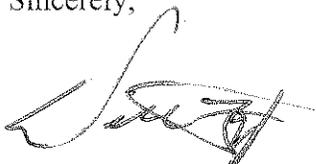

The methodology for allocating the annual 16 conversions among the eligible courts balances the long-term goal of achieving a more appropriate balance between judgeship and SJO positions in the superior courts with the short-term, immediate needs of the courts to handle their workload. The Judicial Council determined that compiling a full list of all the positions that come vacant in a given year and waiting until the end of that year to allocate those positions among the eligible courts would create unnecessary uncertainty and place an added burden on courts with vacant positions by requiring that they hold open positions that may not be converted in the near term. The adopted allocation methodology allows the Judicial Council to make an immediate determination if a court with a vacant SJO position qualifies to have the position converted.

As a result of the 16 conversions in FY 2007–2008, 2008–2009, and 2009–2010, along with the 12 conversions already tentatively approved for FY 2010–2011, 5 of the 25 courts designated for conversions have converted all of their eligible positions to judgeships, leaving 20 courts and 102 subordinate judicial officer positions remaining to be converted to judgeships.
