bodily injury enhancement (§ 12022.7, subd. (a)) and admitting prior conviction allegations. We affirm the conviction.

FACTS AND PROCEDURE

On October 7, 2015, defendant assaulted John Doe with a firearm. During the assault, defendant inflicted great bodily injury on John Doe.

On October 9, 2015, the People filed a felony complaint charging defendant in count 1 with attempted murder (§§ 664/187) and alleged defendant discharged a firearm causing great bodily injury (§ 12022.53, subd. (d)). The People also alleged defendant had a prior “strike” felony (§§ 667, subds. (c) & (e)(1), 1170.12, subd. (c)(1)), a prior serious felony (§ 667, subd. (a)), and three prior prison convictions (§ 667.5, subd. (b)).

On March 9, 2016, the court granted the People’s motion to amend the complaint to add a new count, assault with a firearm with a great bodily injury enhancement. Defendant then pled guilty to the new count and enhancement, and admitted the prior strike felony, the prior serious felony, and one of the prior prison convictions. The court sentenced defendant, as agreed, to 15 years in prison as follows: the middle term of three years for the assault, doubled to six for the prior strike; three years for the great bodily injury enhancement; five years for the prior serious felony; and one year for the prior prison conviction.

This appeal followed. The trial court granted defendant’s request for a certificate of probable cause.

DISCUSSION

After defendant appealed, and upon his request, this court appointed counsel to represent him. Counsel has filed a brief under the authority of People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, and Anders v. California (1967) 386 U.S. 738, setting forth a statement of the case, a summary of the facts, and a potential arguable issue, and requesting this court to undertake a review of the entire record. We offered defendant an opportunity to file a personal supplemental brief, but he has not done so. Pursuant to the mandate of People v. Kelly (2006) 40 Cal.4th 106, we have conducted an independent review of the record and find no arguable issues.

DISPOSITION

The judgment is affirmed.
