Court Sends Case Summary Notification (CAS902)

Exchange Description

Trial courts use this NIEM-based data exchange to send case summary information to the integration partner. Some of the notifications sent by the trial court include:

- Assigned court location for a case to California Department of Child Support Services (DCSS)
- Case details, such as case number, agency, and officer name for traffic citations that have hearing dates created
- Case details, such as plea by charge, plea by allegation, and disposition by charge/allegation by a minor for a juvenile case

The notification message sent to the integration partner contains the case summary notification information (e.g., CCMS case number, participant, event, and filing summary).

No response message is sent by the integration partner upon successful receipt of the request message. Successful delivery of the request message is assumed unless an error in delivery or processing by the integration partner occurs.

Business Response Exchanges

The business response refers to any subsequent exchanges that may occur as a direct result of this exchange.

- There are no business response exchanges to this exchange.

Error Handling

If the integration partner does not successfully receive and process the incoming message, the trial court will receive an error message with an error code and error reason.
