Court Sends Restraining Order POS Issuance/Cancel Notification (INI918)

Exchange Description

A trial court uses this NIEM-based data exchange to send a restraining order proof of service (POS) or cancellation of a previously submitted restraining order POS to the California Department of Justice (DOJ).

The trial court uses this exchange to:

- Issue a restraining order POS
- Cancel a restraining order POS

The notification message sent by the trial court to the integration partner contains the restraining order POS issuance/cancel information (e.g., restraining order file control number, date served, served by).

No response message is sent by the integration partner upon successful receipt of the notification message. Successful delivery of the notification message is assumed unless an error in delivery or processing by the integration partner occurs.

Business Response Exchanges

The business response refers to any subsequent exchanges that may occur as a direct result of this exchange, as follows:

- There is no business response to this exchange.

PROBABLE INTERESTED INTEGRATION PARTNERS

- Administrative Office of the Courts
California Courts Protective Order Registry (CCPOR)
- California Department of Justice

RELATED EXCHANGES

Related data exchanges are any preceding or subsequent data exchanges that may be used by an integration partner as part of the overall business process related to this exchange.

- Court Sends Restraining Order Issuance/Cancel/Update Notification (DSP917), which is used by the trial court to send restraining order issuances, modifications, and removals to an integration partner.

For more information about this and other data exchanges, contact integrationpartners@jud.ca.gov

Error Handling

If the integration partner does not successfully receive and process the incoming notification message, the trial court will receive an error message with an error code and error reason.

Additional Information

- A single exchange message is sent for each restraining order POS notification.
- The response to this exchange message only occurs after receipt and processing by the integration partner. The only allowable response to this exchange is an error message. The error response message must be sent as a separate message using the error format defined in this exchange.
