Re: In re Reno on Habeas Corpus – S124660

Dear Counsel:

The Court is interested in the parties' views concerning whether financial sanctions are a proper remedy in general for a party who has filed an abusive habeas corpus petition. Should the court decide the petition in the instant case is abusive, and that financial sanctions may be appropriate, a future hearing will be ordered at which time counsel will be able to fairly address whether they should be subject to such sanctions.

Very truly yours,

FREDERICK K. OHLRICH
Court Administrator and
Clerk of the Supreme Court
