JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA

NOVEMBER 2020

During the second year of the 2019–2020 Legislative Session, the Legislature and Governor enacted numerous bills that affect the courts or are of general interest to the legal community. Brief descriptions of the measures of greatest interest follow, arranged according to subject matter. Also included is a table summarizing new laws that create new crimes or expand existing crimes, as well as an index listing all the bills and the page numbers on which their descriptions can be found.

The effective date of legislation is stated with each measure. Urgency measures normally take effect upon enactment, and some other measures have early or delayed operative dates.

This Summary is intended to serve only as a guide to identify bills of interest; the bill descriptions are not a complete statement of statutory changes. Code section references are to the sections most directly affected by the bill; not all sections are necessarily cited.

Until the annual pocket parts are issued, bill texts can be examined in their chaptered form in West's California Legislative Service or California Deering's Advance Legislative Service, where they are published by chapter number. In addition, chaptered bills and legislative committee analyses can be accessed on the internet at <http://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov>. Individual chapters may be ordered directly from the Legislative Bill Room, State Capitol, 10th Street, Room B32, Sacramento, California 95814, 916-445-2323.

Enacts the Tenant, Homeowner, and Small Landlord Relief and Stabilization Act of 2020. Provides opportunities for tenants to remain in their homes despite their inability to pay rent related to a COVID-19 financial hardship. Makes landlords, generally with four or fewer units in a dwelling, eligible for protections under the California Homeowner Bill of Rights until 2023, and places requirements on mortgage servicers and lenders addressing mortgage forbearance. Provides that the presumptions established by the bill sunset on January 1, 2023. (LAB add 77.8, add and repeal 3212.86, 3212.87, 3212.88)

CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE

AB 2542 (KALRA), CH. 317

EFFECTIVE/OPERATIVE DATE: JANUARY 1, 2021

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE: DISCRIMINATION

Among other things, prohibits the state from seeking a criminal conviction or sentence on the basis of race, ethnicity, or national origin, as detailed below.

PENAL CODE SECTION 745

Prohibits the state from seeking or obtaining a criminal conviction or imposing a sentence on the basis of race, ethnicity, or national origin. (PEN 745(a).) Also prohibits juvenile adjudications and dispositions. (PEN 745(f).)

“[A]ppplies only prospectively in cases in which judgment has not been entered prior to January 1, 2021.” (PEN 745(j).)

Establishes a violation of this statute if the defendant proves any of the following grounds:

- The judge, an attorney in the case, a law enforcement officer involved in the case, an expert witness, or a juror exhibited bias or animus toward the defendant because of the defendant’s race, ethnicity, or national origin;
- During the trial, one of the persons listed in (1) used racially discriminatory language about the defendant’s race, ethnicity, or national origin (with certain exceptions);
- The defendant was charged or convicted of a more serious offense than defendants of other races, ethnicities, or national origins who commit similar offenses and who are similarly situated and the evidence establishes that the prosecution more frequently sought or obtained these convictions against people who share the defendant’s race, ethnicity, or national origin in the county;
- The defendant received a longer or more severe sentence than what other similarly situated individuals convicted of the same offense received; and
 - Longer or more severe sentences were more frequently imposed on people who share the defendant’s race, ethnicity, or national origin than on defendants of other races, ethnicities, or national origins, in the county; or

- Longer or more severe sentences were more frequently imposed for the same offense on defendants in cases with victims of one race, ethnicity, or national origin than in cases with victims of other races, ethnicities, or national origins, in the county.

(PEN 745(a).)

Allows a defendant to file a motion alleging a violation of subdivision (a). (PEN 745(b).) If the defendant makes a prima facie showing of a violation, requires the trial court to hold a hearing. (PEN 745(c).)

Allows either party, at the hearing, to present evidence including, but not limited to, statistical evidence, aggregate data, expert testimony, and the sworn testimony of witnesses. Allows the court to appoint an independent expert. Requires the court to make findings on the record at the conclusion of the hearing. (PEN 745(c)(1), (3).)

Allows a defendant to file a motion requesting disclosure to the defense of all evidence relevant to a potential violation in the possession or control of the state. On a showing of good cause, and if the records are not privileged, requires the court to order the records to be released. Lets the court allow the prosecution to redact information before disclosure. (PEN 745(d).)

Requires the defendant to prove the violation by a preponderance of the evidence. (PEN 745(c)(2).)

If the court finds a violation of subdivision (a), requires the court to impose a remedy that depends on the type of violation and whether the court violation is established before or after judgment has been entered, such as declaring a mistrial, empaneling a new jury, dismissing enhancements and/or special allegations, reducing charges, vacating the conviction and sentence, and modifying the judgment. (PEN 745(e).)

Provides that a violation renders the defendant ineligible for the death penalty. (PEN 745(e)(3).)

PENAL CODE SECTION 1473

Authorizes a writ of habeas corpus, in cases where a judgment was entered on or after January 1, 2021, based on evidence that a criminal conviction or sentence was sought, obtained, or imposed in violation of PEN 745(a).

Requires that a petition raising a claim of this nature for the first time, or on the basis of new discovery provided by the state or other new evidence that could not have been previously known by the petitioner with due diligence, not be deemed a successive or abusive petition. If the petitioner has a habeas corpus petition pending in state court that has not yet been decided, allows the petitioner to amend the existing petition with a claim that the petitioner's conviction or sentence was sought, obtained, or imposed in violation of PEN 745(a).

Requires the petition to state whether the petitioner requests appointment of counsel. Requires the court to appoint counsel if the petitioner cannot afford counsel and (1) the petition alleges facts that would establish a violation of section 745(a), or (2) the State Public Defender requests that counsel be appointed. Allows newly appointed counsel to amend a petition that was filed before counsel's appointment.

Requires the court to review a petition raising a claim under section 745 and determine whether the petitioner has made a prima facie showing. If the petitioner makes a prima facie showing, requires the court to issue an order to show cause and hold an evidentiary hearing, unless the state declines to show cause. Requires the defendant to appear at the hearing by video unless counsel indicates that the defendant's physical presence in court is needed.

If the court determines that the petitioner has not established a prima facie showing of entitlement to relief, requires the court to state the factual and legal basis for its conclusion on the record or issue a written order detailing the factual and legal basis for its conclusion.

(PEN 1473(f).)

PENAL CODE SECTION 1473.7

Authorizes a motion to vacate a conviction or sentence that was sought, obtained, or imposed on the basis of race, ethnicity, or national origin in violation of PEN 745(a). (PEN 1473.7(a)(3).)

Requires a motion on this basis to be filed "without undue delay" from the date the moving party discovered—

or could have discovered, with the exercise of due diligence—the evidence that provides a basis for relief. (PEN 1473.7(c).)

Note: Unlike the amendments to PEN 1473, the amendments to PEN 1473.7 do not explicitly state that vacatur relief based on a violation of 745(a) applies only prospectively to cases in which judgment occurs on or after January 1, 2021. As a result, there could be litigation to determine whether this vacatur relief applies to convictions that predate January 1, 2021. However, legislative history indicates that the Legislature intended that the provisions of the entire bill apply prospectively only. (PEN amend 1473, 1473.7, add 745)

Applies to all jury trials in which jury selection begins on or after January 1, 2022. Further provides that this section shall not apply to civil cases until January 1, 2026. (CCP 231.7(k), (n).)

Prohibits parties from exercising a peremptory challenge to remove a prospective juror on the basis of race, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, or religion, or perceived membership in any of those groups.

After the three-step process of an objection to a peremptory challenge—(1) a party, or the trial court on its own motion, objects to the improper use of a peremptory challenge; (2) the party exercising the peremptory challenge states the reasons for exercising the peremptory challenge; and (3) the court evaluates the reasons given in light of the totality of the circumstances—requires the court to sustain the objection if there is a substantial likelihood that an objectively reasonable person would view the peremptory challenge as having been improperly exercised. (CCP 231.7(b)–(d).)

Once an objection is made, requires the court to conduct further discussion outside the presence of the jury panel. (CCP 231.7(b).)

Requires the court, if the objection is granted, to do one or more of the following: start a new jury selection, if requested by the objecting party; declare a mistrial and select a new jury, if requested by the defendant; seat the challenged juror; provide the objecting party additional challenges; or provide another remedy as the court deems appropriate. (CCP 231.7(h).)

Modifies the existing Batson-Wheeler (Batson v. Kentucky (1986) 476 U.S. 79, 85–88; People v. Wheeler (1978) 22 Cal.3d 258) framework for the exercise of a peremptory challenge in several respects, including the following:

- The court is no longer required to find purposeful discrimination to sustain an objection; unconscious bias is sufficient. (CCP 231.7(d).)
- Peremptory challenges, for reasons specified in the statute, are subject to a rebuttable presumption of invalidity, which can be overcome by clear and convincing evidence that an objectively reasonable person would view the rationale for the challenge as unrelated to the prospective juror’s cognizable group membership. (CCP 231.7(e), (f).)
- Peremptory challenges based on behavior specified in the statute as historically associated with improper discrimination in jury selection are also presumptively invalid, unless the court confirms that the asserted behavior occurred and the counsel offering the reason adequately explains why the asserted behavior matters to the case; these presumptively invalid reasons include inattentiveness, problematic attitude or body language, and providing confused answers. (CCP 231.7(g).)

- Trial courts must use the “objectively reasonable person” standards described above in evaluating and adjudicating an objection to the exercise of a peremptory challenge; for purposes of the statute, an objectively reasonable person is defined as one who is aware that both unconscious bias and purposeful discrimination have resulted in the unfair exclusion of potential jurors in California. (CCP 231.7(d)(2)(A).)

- Appellate courts are directed to review de novo the denial of an objection to a peremptory challenge, with express factual findings reviewed for substantial evidence. (CCP 231.7(j).)

(CCP add, repeal, and add 231.7)

APPENDIX D

2019–2020 LEGISLATION AFFECTING CALIFORNIA APPELLATE PROCEDURE

BILL NUMBER AND CHAPTER, EFFECTIVE DATE, AND TITLE	SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF NEW LAW
AB 2512 (Mark Stone), CH. 331 Effective/Operative Date: January 1, 2021 Death penalty: person with an intellectual disability	Authorizes a defendant in a death penalty case to apply for an order directing that a hearing to determine intellectual disability be conducted as part of a habeas corpus petition and revises the definition of intellectual disability. Seeks to modernize Penal Code section 1376, which was enacted in response to the holding in Atkins v. Virginia (2002) 536 U.S. 304, 321, finding that the Eighth Amendment forbids the execution of an intellectually disabled defendant.
AB 2731 (Gloria), CH. 291 Effective/Operative Date: January 1, 2021 California Environmental Quality Act: City of San Diego: Old Town Center redevelopment	Establishes expedited administrative and judicial review procedures under the California Environmental Quality Act for the “transit and transportation facilities” project, a regional transportation facility in San Diego, including a hub on the Old Town Center site and transportation linkages to the regional transportation system and the airport, requiring the courts to resolve lawsuits within 270 business days, including appeals, to the extent feasible.
AB 3070 (Weber), CH. 318 Effective/Operative Date: January 1, 2021 Juries: peremptory challenges	Prohibits the use of peremptory challenges in jury selection on the basis of the prospective juror’s race, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, or religious affiliation, or perceived membership in any of those groups, and outlines new court procedures for evaluating and addressing peremptory challenges that are potentially discriminatory. Seeks to address perceived deficiencies in the Batson-Wheeler (Batson v. Kentucky (1986) 476 U.S. 79, 85–88; People v. Wheeler (1978) 22 Cal.3d 258) procedure by addressing unlawful discrimination in jury selection—from both conscious and unconscious bias—by implementing an objective test to determine when discrimination has occurred in the use of a peremptory challenge, replacing the subjective Batson test; requiring the party exercising a potentially discriminatory challenge to state the reasons for dismissing the prospective juror; and disallowing a number of reasons for the challenge that are currently allowed but often closely associated with discriminatory stereotypes based on race or ethnicity. Makes these provisions applicable to civil cases commencing January 1, 2026.

APPENDIX E

2019–2020 LEGISLATION RESPONDING TO CALIFORNIA APPELLATE AND SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

BILL NUMBER AND CHAPTER, EFFECTIVE DATE, AND TITLE	SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF NEW LAW
AB 1512 (Carrillo), CH. 343 Effective/Operative Date: Effective Immediately Security officers: rest periods	Abrogates, for the security industry only, the court's decision in Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, holding that rest periods must be free from duties and employer control by authorizing a private patrol operator, as specified, to require its security officer employees, who are covered by a valid collective bargaining agreement, to remain on call during rest periods.
AB 2805 (Eggman), CH. 356 Effective/Operative Date: January 1, 2021 Juveniles: reunification	Expands the scope of evidence that a court may consider when determining whether to order reunification services for a child who has been made a dependent of the juvenile court because the child, before reaching five years of age, was the victim of severe physical abuse by a parent or by any person known by the parent. Note: In the case of In re A.E. (2019) 38 Cal.App.5th 1124, the trial court's decision to order reunification was overturned. In overturning the juvenile court's decision, the court stated that the record contained no competent testimony to support the findings. In addition, the reviewing court stated that, after having read the entire reporter's transcript, it independently determined that the record did not contain competent testimony to support the juvenile court's findings. In its decision, the court said the following: "The term 'testimony' refers to in-court oral statements of a live witness. 'Testimony' thus is not synonymous with 'evidence.' Rather, testimony is a specific type of evidence." (In re A.E. (2019) 38 Cal.App.5th 1124, 1146, citations omitted.)
AB 2944 (Mark Stone), CH. 104 Effective/Operative Date: Effective Immediately Foster care	Includes an Indian tribe, as defined, that has approved or licensed an applicant, as provided, among the entities that a foster family agency or county is required to contact when performing a reference check for purposes of placement of an Indian child, or a child for whom there is reason to know might be an Indian child. Note: In In re Austin J. (2020) 47 Cal.App.5th 870, the court reflected on recent statutory changes to the process for determining whether a child is an Indian child for the purpose of the Indian Child Welfare Act. Affirming that the "reason to believe" standard in AB 3176 (Waldron; Stats. 2018, ch. 833) referred to in In re Austin J. was to be a low threshold for requiring further inquiry into the child's status when there is information suggesting that the child or a parent is, or may be, a member of an Indian tribe, AB 2944 clarifies the definition of Indian child and Indian tribe and states that any Indian tribe or tribal agency that has approved or licensed an applicant for placement shall be contacted by a foster family agency in conducting a reference check to determine whether a proposed placement is safe and appropriate.
SB 145 (Wiener), CH. 79 Effective/Operative Date: January 1, 2021 Sex offenders: registration	Exempts a person convicted of certain offenses involving minors from the duty to register as a sex offender if the person is not more than 10 years older than the minor. Seeks to abrogate the decision of the California Supreme Court in Johnson v. Department of Justice (2015) 60 Cal.4th 871.
