- (a)–(b) ***
- (c) Public access

The Judicial Council must provide copies and updates of the approved jury instructions to the public on the California Courts website. The Judicial Council may contract with an official publisher to publish the instructions in both paper and electronic formats. The Judicial Council intends that the instructions be freely available for use and reproduction by parties, attorneys, and the public, except as limited by this subdivision. The Judicial Council may take steps necessary to ensure that publication of the instructions by commercial publishers does not occur without its permission, including, without limitation, ensuring that commercial publishers accurately publish the Judicial Council's instructions, accurately credit the Judicial Council as the source of the instructions, and do not claim copyright of the instructions. The Judicial Council may require commercial publishers to pay fees or royalties in exchange for permission to publish the instructions. As used in this rule, "commercial publishers" means entities that publish works for sale, whether for profit or otherwise.

22 (d) Publication

24The Judicial Council may contract with an official publisher and other publishers to25publish the instructions in both paper and electronic formats. The Judicial Council26may take appropriate actions to maintain the integrity of the jury instructions,27including, without limitation, ensuring that publishers accurately publish the28Judicial Council's instructions, accurately credit the Judicial Council as the source29of the instructions, and do not claim copyright in the instructions.
