Re: People v. Henry Arsenio Lara, No. S243975, E065029;
Notice of Erratum and Request to Correct Petitioner's Reply Brief on the Merits

To the California Supreme Court and Respondent:

Petitioner wishes to alert the court and respondent to an error in Petitioner's Reply Brief on the Merits. Argument heading I-B, appearing on pages i and 3, currently states:

Petitioner's felony conviction cannot stand because the record does not establish jurors convicted appellant of a felony violation of Vehicle Code section 10851, i.e., post-theft driving of a vehicle over $950.

But it should include the language italicized below and state:

Petitioner's felony conviction cannot stand because the record does not establish jurors convicted appellant of a felony violation of Vehicle Code section 10851, i.e., post-theft driving of a vehicle, or taking a vehicle over $950.

Petitioner apologizes for this error.

Respectfully submitted,
