1	Does the Form F need to be completed with the products and discounts for the RFQ submission?	Form F – Product and Cost Worksheet	Yes, the Form F should be filled out with all products/manufacturers lines that the dealerships want to represent to the Judicial Council. All discounts and tiers should be included on the spreadsheet. If a furniture line is not on the spreadsheet, the dealership will not be allowed to specify the furniture line on any bids submitted. Dealerships are also required to provide their rates in the hourly rate cost box at the bottom of the spreadsheet. Please include any other services that you offer if not included in the list.
2	The regional map does not match the Zone Map.	Attachment B	Please use the listed counties in Attachment A as the guideline to what counties the dealerships will work in.
3	Bonds		Payment Bond: Yes. At this time, supply and installation bonds are not required and should not be included in your pricing.
4	Is this RFQ for modular systems furniture only?	Attachment S – Systems Furniture Specification	No, this RFQ is intended to be full furniture services from seating, filing, casework, outdoor furniture, tables, ancillary, modular systems etc.

Q #	Questions	RFP Reference (Document & Page-Section-Item)	Answers
5	This section states the Vendor MUST hold a California contractor’s license and their subcontractors MUST as well. On the June 3 teleconference it was stated this was NOT a requirement for Vendors if they did not have an installation department in-house. Our experience is that Vendors MUST have a contractor’s license even when they subcontract labor, in that State law states that only a Contractor can hire a licensed Subcontractor on State projects.	IDIQ page 5 section 3.3 License Requirements	The Vendor must hold a California contractor’s license. The license required is either a B license or a C-61/D-34. Note: If there anymore questions on the licensing requirements, please send your questions to: CapitalProgramSolicitations@jud.ca.gov
6	Is the cost of required bonds reimbursable from the JCC through the project P.O.?	IDIQ page 8 section 3.6 Bonds	When a project is bid, the bond costs need to be listed in the bid documents.
7	These paragraphs refer to the “construction value” of projects. This implies to us that this RFQ is only for new furniture that is part of new construction projects that are administered, procured and managed by the JCC and not local courts. Does this RFQ include or exclude the day-to-day business and projects that are currently managed and procured by local courts through their Facility and Procurement Departments?	The “Purpose of this RFQ” and IDIQ page 4 1. 2 Introduction	This RFQ is meant to cover all projects that are procured through the Judicial Council of California.

23	There could be multiple dealers responding for a single major manufacturer, including having several responding within a Zone. This would allow the Judicial Council to provide local service to a related Court Facility particularly based on territory and existing installed base of furniture. Will the Judicial Council consider awarding multiple dealers from a single major manufacturer within a zone?	Page 4 of 62 Item 2.0	Yes
24	Does a proposer have to respond to an entire zone?	Page 4 of 62 Item 2.0	No, see Attachment A and fill out completely which counties the dealership will work in.
25	Must the bidding Vendor hold a California Contractors licence (B, C, or D) or just the installation subcontractors?	Page 6 Item 3.3, Page 37 Item 1, Page 40, Item 6, 7, 8	The Vendor must hold a California contractor’s license. Q #	Questions	RFP Reference (Document & Page-Section-Item)	Answers
27	Since projects over $75,000 will be competed between 3 awarded vendors do you recommend pricing tiers above the $75,000 threshold?	Page 11 5.3.3 Proposed Products – Attachment F	Please see Attachment F. The ranges set are up to the dealership and the dollar value ranges are just an example in the attached Attachment F.
28	Since labor rates vary greatly by County and City do you recommend separate rates by the locations on attachment “A” and detailed on attachment “F”?	Page 11 5.3.3 Proposed Products – Attachment F	Yes, please provide a list of your separated rates. The rates will be in the contract and the vendor will be bound to those rates.
29	Should the warranty include labor to replacing defective parts?	Page 11 5.3.4 Proposed Products – Warranty	If the product is under warranty, then labor should be included in the replacement of defect parts and the Judicial Council should not be liable.
30	In reference to the Cost Worksheet and example – We represent hundreds of manufacturers and discount structure would depend on volume/discount contracts available. Will only those listed be included in a potential contract w/ RDI and non-listed manufacturers may not be purchased through RDI?	Attachment F, Cost Worksheet	Only the manufacturers/products listed on Attachment F will be included in the contract. Meaning include “ALL” your products.
31	The specifications refer mainly to systems furniture, storage, and lighting. Are there base requirements/specifications we should consider when suggesting ancillary manufacturers?	Exhibit A, Bid Specification	We do not have a specification for ancillary furniture but require the same off gassing and code requirements be followed for furniture purchased for installation in California.

36	In order to list a Product Line or additional Manufacturer's Products to Attachment F, the RFQ states that products must meet or exceed all Technical Specifications in Attachment S. Attachment S appears to only apply to Modular System Furniture (MSF) and does not include specifications for products categories such as seating, office casegoods, lounge, etc.. Should the Pricing on Attachment F only include Products that are considered MSF components that comply with technical specifications? How would you like us to proceed with adding manufacturer pricing on products whose product specifications are not outlined in Attachment S?		We do not have a specification for ancillary furniture but require the same off gassing and code requirements be followed for furniture purchased for installation in California. The pricing on Attachment F should include all products the vendor would like to represent. If a manufacturer/product is not listed on Attachment F, then the Judicial Council cannot purchase that manufacturer/product. Meaning include "ALL" your products.

38	The RFQ “Proposed Products – Attachment F” instructions states that “Proposed products must meet or exceed all minimum specifications details in Attachment S” Is there a required submission document or form that should be used to document that proposed product meets or exceeds minimum specifications, or does the inclusion of a product line on Attachment F by a proposer indicate that the proposer is declaring compliance to specifications and does not need to include any additional documentation?	Attachment F	The inclusion of a product line on Attachment F by a proposer indicates to the Judicial Council that these products are in compliance to the specifications and that all other products meet California code requirements.
39	What vehicle will be used over the course of the term of the contract to add new product categories and associated discounting?		Discounting provided will be set and will be applied to the most current set of retail price catalogues provided by the manufacturer. At the time of contract renewal or if an amendment to contract is required to update new listing, vendors can submit a list of discontinued manufacturers/products and request new manufacturer/products to be added. It will be up to the Judicial Council to add products.
