Subject: Comments on the SEC Report
Date: Thursday, July 19, 2012 11:40:48 AM

The SEC Report is the result of a sound process initiated and administered by the Branch. The report makes it clear members of the SEC took their charge seriously and that they worked very hard to present a meaningful, objective and thoughtful report. The recommendations contained within the report are sound and will result in improvements in the Branch and the trial courts.

The SEC recommendations should be immediately adopted so that we can proceed with the process of improving the Branch in these challenging times.
