Commenting on behalf of an organization

General Comment: I write on my own behalf. After having legitimate concerns and suspicions, our Chief Justice appointed a committee to review the AOC. After an exhaustive review lasting over a year, the committee made its findings, and more importantly, its recommendations. Now, the Judicial Council MUST adopt and implement these recommendations. If the Council either delays or dilutes, they risk losing all credibility in addressing these fundamental problems. They also risk insulting this fine committee and the large number of judges who see this committee's work as the last great hope for change.
