Executive Summary and Origin
This proposal would adopt amendments (Amendments) to the Judicial Council Conflict of Interest Code (Code) and bring the Code up to date with its current organization that after a recent consolidation now includes the former Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC). In accordance with Government Code sections 87303 and 87306, the Code must be updated “when change is necessitated by changed circumstances” (id., § 87306). The council must review proposed amendments to the Code and approve the Code as amended or direct that it be further revised and resubmitted for approval.

Background
Political Reform Act
The Political Reform Act of 1974 (Gov. Code, § 81000 et seq.) requires public agencies to adopt conflict of interest codes. (Gov. Code, § 87300.) In 1984, the Legislature amended the Political Reform Act to require agencies and employees of the judicial branch to comply with the act. (Stats. 1984, ch. 717, amending Gov. Code §§ 82011, 82041, 82048, 82049, and 82700 and adding § 87311.5.) Every conflict of interest code, including amended codes, must be submitted to and approved by a “code reviewing body.” (Gov. Code, §§ 87303, 87306.)

The Judicial Council is the code reviewing body for “any state agency within the judicial branch of government” where no other code reviewing body has been specified (Gov. Code § 82011 (h)), which includes the Judicial Council and its staff. In 1985, the Judicial Council first approved a conflict of interest code for Judicial Council employees. An agency’s conflict of interest code must be amended when new positions and duties are created or eliminated. (Gov.
Since 1985, the Judicial Council Conflict of Interest Code has been periodically amended.

A conflict of interest code is a document that states the rules and procedures by which designated officers and employees of a public agency must disclose certain personal financial interests. The financial interests required to be disclosed are those that foreseeably could be materially affected by decisions that these officers or employees are authorized to make or influence. In brief, Government Code section 87302 specifies that a conflict of interest code must:

- Designate the classifications of officers or employees who make or influence financial decisions ("designated employees");
- Identify the categories of interest that foreseeably may be affected by such decisions ("disclosure categories");
- Require officers and employees to file periodic reports of their financial interests ("disclosure statements"); and
- Require officers and employees to disqualify themselves from decisions affecting matters in which they have financial interest.

A conflict of interest code must designate the officers and employees who make or participate in the making of government decisions that foreseeably can have a material effect on their personal financial interests. (Gov. Code, § 87302(a).) The disclosure categories for each job classification must correspond to those interests that employees foreseeably can affect. (Gov. Code, § 87302 (c).) Thus, disclosure categories reflect the powers and responsibilities assigned to employees within each job classification.

Judicial Council Name Consolidation

The current Judicial Council Conflict of Interest Code does not designate its staff organization. In the past, the Judicial Council’s staff had a separate Conflict of Interest Code because it was thought to be a separate entity under the title “Administrative Office of the Courts.” However, on July 29, 2014, the Judicial Council acted on the rule amendment to unite the governing body and staff under the same name and retired the use of “the Administrative Office of the Courts.” Discontinuing the use of the names “Administrative Office of the Courts” and “AOC” necessitates the consolidation of the Judicial Council’s and former Administrative Office of the Courts’ Conflict of Interest Codes.

Conflict of Interest Code for members of the Judicial Council

The current Judicial Council Conflict of Interest Code requires council members who are justices, judges, legislators, court executive officers, and court clerk and administrators to disclose their financial interests whether they are voting or non-voting members and must disclose “[a]ll investments, sources of income, interests in real property, and positions in business entities.” While justices, judges, legislators, court executive officers, and court clerk and administrators perform unique duties in their capacity as council members they are only required to indicate on the cover sheet of Conflict of Interest-Form 700 that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions. All attorneys, voting or non-voting, must turn in form FPPC-2 that discloses whether or not they were required to disqualify themselves from making, participating in making, or attempting to influence a decision of the Judicial Council during the reporting period because of a conflict of interest.

Conflict of Interest Code for Judicial Council Staff
The current Judicial Council Conflict of Interest Code for staff contains 19 disclosure categories. The broadest category, Category 1, provides for disclosure of “[a]ll investments, sources of income, interests in real property, and positions in business entities.” Those who fall within this category include certain classification designations with foreseeable decision making authority that could be affected by personal financial interests. Other employees must disclose a narrower range of financial interests that could be affected by their specific job duties.

The Proposal

Adoption of updated Conflict of Interest Code
The proposed Judicial Council Conflict of Interest Code (attached) amends the current Conflict of Interest Code and reflects the organization’s changes since it combined with the Judicial Council staff (the former AOC). Appendix A explains how voting and nonvoting Judicial Council members must disclose their financial interests. Appendix B is a list of designated job classifications and their designation category. Appendix C explains the designation categories, and Appendix D instructs designated incumbents on the parameters of submitting their statements of financial interests.

The proposed Judicial Council Conflict of Interest Code (Code) would:

1. Combine the separate Codes for Judicial Council members and Judicial Council staff into one consolidated Code.
2. Reference the laws requiring a public agency to adopt a Conflict of Interest Code.
3. Accurately designate Judicial Council members by separating them into voting and nonvoting categories, and sub-categorizing the voting members into Justices, Judges, Legislators, and Attorneys.
4. Accurately address the number of Judicial Council staff designations required to submit disclosure statements thereby improving the efficiency of the collection process.
5. Consolidate and clarify the disclosure categories, streamlining the submittal process for designated employees by having a clarifying statement in the opening paragraph of Appendix C.
Alternatives Considered
The proposed Amendments are required under the Political Reform Act of 1974 that does not provide for any alternative actions other than those presented in this report.

Implementation Requirements, Costs, and Operational Impacts
To implement the amended Code, the Judicial Council will need to ensure that its members and employees in the newly reduced classifications timely submit the Statement of Economic Interests required under the code and the Political Reform Act.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST CODE
FOR THE
JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA
(Revised effective December 11, 2014 June 21, 2000)

Section 1. Purpose
The Political Reform Act (Gov. Code, § 81000 et seq.) requires state and local government agencies to adopt and promulgate conflict of interest codes. The Fair Political Practices Commission has adopted a regulation, California Code of Regulations, title 2, section 18730 which contains the terms of a standard conflict of interest code, and can be incorporated by reference into an agency’s code. After public notice and hearing, the code may be amended by the Fair Political Practices Commission to conform to amendments in the Political Reform Act. Therefore, the terms of (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, § 18730), and any amendments to it duly adopted by the Fair Political Practices Commission are hereby incorporated by reference. This regulation and the attached appendices shall constitute the Conflict of Interest Code for the Judicial Council of California.

Designated employees and contractors shall file statements of economic interests with the Administrative Director as prescribed by the Fair Political Practices Commission.

This conflict of interest code is adopted in order to comply with the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Gov. Code, § 81000 et seq.).
Section 2. Appendix A. Judicial Council Members

Under Article VI, section 6, of the California Constitution, Judicial Council voting membership is limited to justices, judges, legislators, and attorneys. Two nonvoting court administrators and such other nonvoting members are determined by the voting membership of the council. Council members, voting or nonvoting, who are justices, judges, state legislators, court executive officers, and court administrator and clerks are required to file disclosure statements at their primary position because they are subject to comprehensive disclosure requirements arising out of their primary offices, pursuant to Government Code sections 87200 and 87300. When filing their annual statement of economic interests, council members, voting or non-voting, should indicate on the cover sheet of the Conflict of Interest-Form 700 that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions.

Designation of Positions

1. Voting Council Members
   a. Justices, Judges, Legislators
      i. Disclosure of Financial Interests: Council members must disclose all investments, sources of income, interests in real property, and positions in business entities.
      ii. Manner of Reporting: When filing their annual statement of economic interests, council members should indicate on the cover sheet of Conflict of Interest-Form 700 that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions.

   b. Attorneys
      i. Disclosure of Financial Interests: The disclosure requirements under this code for the designated attorney members are limited to those in Business and Professions Code section 6036, subdivision (d). Under this provision, a member required to disqualify himself or herself because of a conflict of interest shall (1) immediately disclose the interest, (2) withdraw from any participation in the matter, (3) refrain from attempting to influence another member, and (4) refrain from voting. Consistent with section 6036, subdivision (d), it is sufficient that the member indicate only that he or she has a disqualifying financial or personal interest, without disclosing the specific interest.
      ii. Manner of Reporting: Attorney members of the Judicial Council of California shall file the Statement of Economic Interests (form FPPC-2). This form requires members to (1) disclose whether or not they were required to disqualify themselves from making, participating in making, or attempting to influence a decision of the Judicial Council during the reporting period because of a conflict of interest under Business and Professions Code section 6036, and (2) identify each decision requiring disqualification.

2. Nonvoting Council Members
   a. Justices, Judges, Court Executive Officers, Court Administrator and Clerks, and such other nonvoting members as determined by the voting membership of the council.

   i. Disclosure of Financial Interests: Council members must disclose all investments, sources of income, interests in real property, and positions in business entities.

   ii. Manner of Reporting: When filing their annual statement of economic interests, council members should indicate on the cover sheet of Conflict of Interest-Form 700 that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions.

Designated positions

(a) [Voting council members] Under Article VI, section 6, of the California Constitution, Judicial Council voting membership is limited to judges, legislators, and attorneys. The voting members of the Judicial Council who are required to file statements of economic interests under this code are the attorney members appointed by the State Bar of California. Council members who are judges or state legislators are not required to file disclosure statements because they are subject to comprehensive disclosure requirements arising out of their primary offices, pursuant to Government Code section 87200. While judges and legislators perform unique duties in their capacity as council members, these duties do not create the need for any additional disclosure of their financial interests.

(b) [Nonvoting council members] Under Article VI, section 6, of the California Constitution, two nonvoting court administrators and such other nonvoting members as determined by the voting membership of the council are appointed. Because these nonvoting members participate in the making of council decisions, they must file disclosure statements. However, nonvoting members who file disclosure statements for their primary offices pursuant to Government Code section 87200 are not required to file disclosure statement under this code for the reasons stated in section 2(a).

Section 3. Disclosure of financial interests

(a) [Attorney council members] The disclosure requirements under this code for the designated attorney members are limited to those in Business and Professions Code section 6036, subdivision (d). Under this provision, a member required to disqualify himself or herself because of a conflict of interest shall (1) immediately disclose the interest, (2) withdraw from any participation in the matter, (3) refrain from attempting to influence another member, and (4) refrain from voting.
Consistent with section 6036, subdivision (d), it is sufficient that the member indicate only that he or she has a disqualifying financial or personal interest, without disclosing the specific interest.

(b) [Nonvoting council members] Nonvoting council members must disclose all investments, sources of income, interests in real property, and positions in business entities.

Section 4. Manner of reporting

(a) [Attorney members] The designated attorney members shall file the Statement of Economic Interests for Judicial Council Members form (form FPPC-2). This form requires members to (1) disclose whether or not they were required to disqualify themselves from making, participating in making, or attempting to influence a decision of the Judicial Council during the reporting period because of a conflict of interest under Business and Professions Code section 6036, and (2) identify each decision requiring disqualification.

(b) [Other voting members] When filing their annual statement of economic interests, council members who are judges and state legislators should indicate on the cover sheet that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions.

c) [Nonvoting council members] When filing their annual statement of economic interests, nonvoting members may indicate on the cover sheet that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions. The statements must disclose all the information required by section 3(b).

Section 5. Time of filing statements and reporting period

(a) [Annual statements] Each designated attorney member shall file an annual statement by October 15. The statement shall disclose the information required in section 3 for the previous 12-month period.

(b) [Statements after leaving office] Each former designated attorney member shall file a statement within 30 days after leaving office. The statement shall disclose the information required by section 3 for the period between the closing date of the last statement required to be filed and the date of leaving office.

Section 6. Place of filing statements

Designated attorney members shall file the statements required by section 4 with the Secretary of the Judicial Council (Administrative Director of the Courts) on the Statement of Economic Interests for Judicial Council Members form (form FPPC-2).
Section 7. Assistance to members

A member may request assistance concerning duties under this code from the Fair Political Practices Commission under section 83114 of the Government Code.

*Consultants (contractors) shall be included in the list of designated employees and shall disclose pursuant to the broadest disclosure category in the code subject to the following limitation:

The Administrative Director may determine in writing that a particular consultant, although a “designated position,” is hired to perform a range of duties that are limited in scope and thus is not required to fully comply with the disclosure requirements described in this section. Such written determination shall include a description of the consultant’s duties and, based upon that description, a statement of the extent of disclosure requirements. The consultant must comply with all other provisions of this code. The Administrative Director’s determination is a matter of public record and shall be retained for public inspection in the same manner and location as this Conflict of Interest Code.
Appendix C. Judicial Council Staff Disclosure Categories

An employee need only disclose a financial interest in a business entity included in an assigned category if the employee’s duties involve making recommendations and/or decisions concerning that type of business entity. In this appendix, “positions” includes employee, partner, officer, director, trustee, and any other management position. “Providers” includes business entities and individuals that are manufacturers, distributors, vendors, sellers, lessors, suppliers, contractors, subcontractors, and other providers of the supplies, equipment, real property, and services indicated in the category.

1. Executive authority
   All investments, sources of income, interests in real property, and positions in business entities

   a. Council members who are justices, judges, legislators, court executive officers, court administrator and clerks are required to file disclosure statements at their primary position because they are subject to comprehensive disclosure requirements arising out of their primary offices, pursuant to Government Code section 87200 and 87300. When filing their annual statement of economic interests, council members, voting or non-voting, should indicate on the cover sheet of Conflict of Interest-Form 700 that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions.

2. Attorneys
   Attorneys are required to (1) disclose whether or not they were required to disqualify themselves from making, participating in making, or attempting to influence a decision of the Judicial Council during the reporting period because of a conflict of interest under Business and Professions Code section 6036, and (2) identify each decision requiring disqualification.

   a. Attorneys who are Judicial Council members shall file the Statement of Economic Interests for the Judicial Council on form FPPC-2.

   b. Attorneys who are Judicial Council staff shall file the Statement of Economic Interest for the Judicial Council on Form FPPC-1.

3. Decision-making authority affecting the purchasing of office equipment, materials and supplies Investments, sources of income and business positions in entities that are providers of office equipment, materials, and supplies including, but not limited to, commercial and non-commercial furniture, fixtures, publication materials, printing, graphics, publishing services, audiovisual equipment and/or any other non-IT electronic devices of the type used by the Judicial Council.
4. Decision-making authority affecting external consultants and contracts
   Investments, sources of income, and business positions in business entities that are providers of services used by any office in the Judicial Council for the purposes of, including, but not limited to, personnel and employment services, editing, publications, data gathering, data management, researching and surveying, policy analysis, real estate management, fleet management, conference and travel services, financial services, external legal counsel, and court security.

5. Decision-making authority affecting information technology
   Investments, sources of income, and business positions in business entities that are providers of information technology, data management systems, computer software, computer equipment and hardware of the type used by the Judicial Council.

6. Decision-making authority affecting judicial education
   Investments, sources of income, and business positions in business entities that are providers of training and educational development services of the type used by the Judicial Council.

7. Decision-making authority affecting real property and management
   Investments, sources of income, and business positions in business entities that are providers of real estate purchasing, maintenance, construction, and development.
Appendix D. Reporting Instructions

1. Time of filing statements and reporting period
   a. Annual Statement: The statement shall disclose the information required in section 3 for the previous 12-month period.
      i. Each Judicial Council member shall file an annual statement by October 15.
      ii. Designated Judicial Council staff incumbents shall file by April 15.
   b. Statements when assuming office: As pursuant to codes 87200 and 87300, every Judicial Council member or designated staff incumbent shall file a statement within 30 days after assuming office.
   c. Statements after leaving offices: As pursuant to codes 87200 and 87300, each former council member or designated staff incumbent shall file a statement within 30 days after leaving office. The statement shall disclose the information required by section 3 for the period between the closing date of the last statement required to be filed and the date of leaving office.

2. Place of filing statements
   a. Judicial Council members and designated staff incumbents shall file the required statements with the Secretary of the Judicial Council (Administrative Director) on the Statement of Economic Interests for Judicial Council Members Conflict of Interest-Form 700, FPPC-1, or FPPC-2.

3. Assistance to members
   a. A member may request assistance concerning duties under this code from the Fair Political Practices Commission under section 83114 of the Government Code.
The Political Reform Act (Gov. Code, § 81000 et seq.) requires state and local government agencies to adopt and promulgate conflict of interest codes. The Fair Political Practices Commission has adopted a regulation (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, § 18730) that contains the terms of a standard conflict of interest code, which can be incorporated by reference into an agency’s code. After public notice and hearing, the code may be amended by the Fair Political Practices Commission to conform to amendments in the Political Reform Act. Therefore, the terms of California Code of Regulations, title 2, section 18730, and any amendments to it duly adopted by the Fair Political Practices Commission are hereby incorporated by reference. This regulation and the attached appendices designating officials and employees and establishing disclosure categories shall constitute the Conflict of Interest Code of the Administrative Office of the Courts.

Designated employees shall file statements of economic interests with the secretary of the Judicial Council (Administrative Director of the Courts) on forms prescribed by the Fair Political Practices Commission.

FOR THE
(Revised effective June 21, 2000)

Section 1. Purpose

This conflict of interest code is adopted in order to comply with the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Gov. Code, § 81000 et seq.).

Section 2. Designated positions

(a) [Voting council members] Under Article VI, section 6, of the California Constitution, Judicial Council voting membership is limited to judges, legislators, and attorneys. The voting members of the Judicial Council who are required to file statements of economic interests under this code are the attorney members appointed by the State Bar of California. Council members who are judges or state legislators are not required to file disclosure statements because they are subject to comprehensive disclosure requirements arising out of their primary offices, pursuant to Government Code section 87200. While judges and legislators perform unique duties in their capacity as council members, these duties do not create the need for any additional disclosure of their financial interests.

(b) [Nonvoting council members] Under Article VI, section 6, of the California Constitution, two nonvoting court administrators and such other nonvoting members as determined by the voting membership of the council are appointed. Because these nonvoting members participate in the making of council decisions, they must file disclosure statements. However, nonvoting members who file disclosure statements for their primary offices pursuant to Government Code section 87200 are not required to file disclosure statement under this code for the reasons stated in section 2(a).

Section 3. Disclosure of financial interests

(a) [Attorney council members] The disclosure requirements under this code for the designated attorney members are limited to those in Business and Professions Code section 6036, subdivision (d). Under this provision, a member required to disqualify himself or herself because of a conflict of interest shall (1) immediately disclose the interest, (2) withdraw from any participation in the matter, (3) refrain from attempting to influence another member, and (4) refrain from voting. Consistent with section 6036, subdivision (d), it is sufficient that the member indicate only that he or she has a disqualifying financial or personal interest, without disclosing the specific interest.

(b) [Nonvoting council members] Nonvoting council members must disclose all investments, sources of income, interests in real property, and positions in business entities.

Section 4. Manner of reporting

(a) [Attorney members] The designated attorney members shall file the Statement of Economic Interests for Judicial Council Members form (form FPPC-2). This form requires members to (1) disclose whether or not they were required to disqualify themselves from making, participating in making, or attempting to influence a decision of the Judicial Council during the reporting period because of a conflict of interest under Business and Professions Code section 6036, and (2) identify each decision requiring disqualification.

(b) [Other voting members] When filing their annual statement of economic interests, council members who are judges and state legislators should indicate on the cover sheet that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions.

(c) [Nonvoting council members] When filing their annual statement of economic interests, nonvoting members may indicate on the cover sheet that their statements are being filed for both their primary and their Judicial Council positions. The statements must disclose all the information required by section 3(b).

Section 5. Time of filing statements and reporting period

(a) [Annual statements] Each designated attorney member shall file an annual statement by October 15. The statement shall disclose the information required in section 3 for the previous 12-month period.

(b) [Statements after leaving office] Each former designated attorney member shall file a statement within 30 days after leaving office. The statement shall disclose the information required by section 3 for the period between the closing date of the last statement required to be filed and the date of leaving office.

Section 6. Place of filing statements

Designated attorney members shall file the statements required by section 4 with the Secretary of the Judicial Council (Administrative Director of the Courts) on the Statement of Economic Interests for Judicial Council Members form (form FPPC-2).

Section 7. Assistance to members

A member may request assistance concerning duties under this code from the Fair Political Practices Commission under section 83114 of the Government Code.
