Proposed by Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee Hon. Jerilyn L. Borack, Cochair Hon. Mark A. Juhas, Cochair	Contact Jenie Chang, 415-865-4268 jenie.chang@jud.ca.gov

Executive Summary and Origin

The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee proposes revising six Judicial Council forms and amending one of the California Rules of Court to accurately reflect updated code references, revoking one form in its entirety, and adopting three new Judicial Council forms. These changes are required by modifications to the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (Sen. Bill 646 [Jackson]), which was chaptered in October 2015 as Family Code sections 5700.101–5700.905. (Stats. 215, ch. 493, § 5.)

Background

The Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA) provides universal and uniform rules for the enforcement of family support orders. UIFSA represents a collaborative effort among the Uniform Law Commission (“ULC”), federal and state child support officials, and representatives of national child support organizations.

In 2008, the ULC approved amendments to UIFSA to incorporate the provisions of the Convention on the International Recovery of Child Support and Other Forms of Family Maintenance concluded at The Hague on November 23, 2007 (“the Convention”). The Convention contains numerous provisions that establish uniform procedures for the processing of international child support cases.

The proposals have not been approved by the Judicial Council and are not intended to represent the views of the council, its Rules and Projects Committee, or its Policy Coordination and Liaison Committee. These proposals are circulated for comment purposes only.

In 2014, section 666(f) of Title 42 of the United States Code required all states to adopt and have in effect the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, including any amendments officially adopted by the National Council of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws as of September 30, 2008. California adopted these changes in 2015 as Family Code sections 5700.101–5700.905. The proposed rule and forms changes are required to conform to these statutory changes.

The Proposal

Code references on six forms and one rule would be revised to reflect the new sections of the Family Code per the UIFSA conversion chart. The committee recommends the following specific changes:

- Revise form FL-510 to replace the reference to Family Code section 4925 with section 5700.311
- Revise form FL-515 to replace the reference to Family Code section 4925 with section 5700.311
- Revise form FL-520 to replace the reference to Family Code section 4925 with section 5700.311
- Amend rule 5.324 to replace the reference to Family Code section 4930 with section 5700.316
- Revise form FL-570 to replace the reference to Family Code section 4952 with section 5700.603
- Revise form FL-570 to replace the reference to Family Code section 4954 with section 5700.605
- Revise form FL-575 to replace the reference to Family Code section 4955 with section 5700.606
- Revise form FL-575 to replace the reference to Family Code section 4956 with section 5700.607
- Revise form FL-560 to replace the reference to Family Code section 5001 with section 17404.2

Additionally, the proposal would:

- Revoke Judicial Council form FL-511, Ex Parte Application for Order for Nondisclosure of Address and Order (UIFSA) which was needed under former Family Code sections 4926 and 4977. Section 4926 has been recodified as section 5700.312 and now provides for a nonjudicial, nondisclosure process, thus removing the need for form FL-511.
- Adopt UIFSA Child Support Order Jurisdictional Attachment (form FL-590) to make assumption or loss of continuing exclusive jurisdiction a standard order in California. This will simplify the process and improve clarity when these forms are sent out of state. UIFSA is built on the principle of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction, where the state issuing the order retains jurisdiction to modify a child support order unless and until a certain set of conditions applies. The proposed form lays out each of those conditions to allow courts to identify when jurisdiction is shifting or being retained. This will improve usability for private litigants seeking to modify their orders and also make California orders more easily read by other states. UIFSA requires a state assuming jurisdiction to provide notice and a copy of the resulting order to the original issuing state.

- Adopt Request for Hearing Regarding Registration of a Convention Support Order (form FL-592) which lists the appropriate defenses for the convention support order, thereby minimizing confusion on the part of the obligors.
- Adopt Notice of Registration of a Convention Support Order-Family (form FL-594) as it clearly delineates the timeframes within which one may contest the validity or enforcement of a registered order, and provides the necessary next steps towards contesting the convention support order.

The process set out for registration of a convention support order under Family Code sections 5700.706–5700.708 is distinct from the process to register an out-of-state or non-Convention foreign support order under Family Code sections 5700.605-5700.608. The defenses to registration and timeframe to file a contest are expanded for those cases under the convention. The committee recommends utilization of separate forms for this registration and contest process, to reduce confusion for parties regarding the available defenses and timeframes for each kind of order. The United States is not yet party to the 2007 Hague Convention, so Article VII (Fam. Code, §§ 5700.701–713) is not available for use until that time. Standalone forms would lead to less confusion regarding that delay.

Alternatives Considered

Not making these changes is not a feasible alternative. Failure to make the modifications to the forms would result in California being out of compliance with the federal mandates and suffering adverse fiscal impacts. Moreover, without the updated code references, litigants using the forms could be confused by the obsolete citations. Failure to adopt the new forms would result in litigants not providing all the information they are required to report to the court.

The committee also reviewed new Family Code section 17404.3, which replaced Family Code section 5003 regarding telephonic and other remote appearances. That statute was amended to reflect the change in statute numbering under UIFSA by referring to section 5700.316 rather than the previous reference to section 4930. While it could be read to require courts to permit hearings by telephone, audiovisual means or other electronic means,¹ it has not been substantially changed from section 5003. Rather, the language of Family Code section 4930(f) was simply moved into new Family Code section 5700.316.

¹ Hearings by telephone, audiovisual means, or other electronic means shall be permitted in child support cases in which the local child support agency is providing child support services. The Judicial Council shall adopt court rules implementing this provision and subdivision (f) of Section 5700.316 on or before January 1, 2017

The committee reviewed the language in rule 5.324 of the California Rules of Court and concluded that the rules previously adopted by the Judicial Council regarding telephonic appearances are sufficient if amended to reflect the new code section reference. While rule 5.324 does not allow telephonic or other remote appearances in all cases, it provides substantial due process protections and presumably met the previous code requirements. Thus, the committee recommends that only the required technical changes be made to the rule regarding telephonic and other remote appearances at this time. The committee will consider substantive changes to the rule as part of a future proposal that would address remote appearances in all family law matters.

Implementation Requirements, Costs, and Operational Impacts

The committee does not anticipate that this proposal will result in any costs to the branch other than the one-time cost of implementing the forms, nor does the committee anticipate any requirements for implementation—or fiscal or operational impacts on the courts. Courts do not commonly make multiple copies of these forms. Providing the guidance set forth in the forms regarding the interstate requirements is intended to save time.

Request for Specific Comments

In addition to comments on the proposal as a whole, the advisory committee is interested in comments on the following:

- Are there specific changes that would improve the forms in this proposal? (If so, please specify the individual form and the particular recommended changes.)
- Does the proposal appropriately address the stated purpose?
- What is the impact of this proposal on low- and moderate-income persons?

The advisory committee also seeks comments from courts on the following cost and implementation matters:

- Would the proposal provide cost savings? If so please quantify.
- What would the implementation requirements be for courts—for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems?
- Would two months from Judicial Council approval of this proposal until its effective date provide sufficient time for implementation?
- How well would this proposal work in courts of different sizes?

(c) If the nonregistering party fails to contest the registered Convention support order by the time specified in subsection (b), the order is enforceable.

(d) A contest of a registered Convention support order may be based only on grounds set forth in Section 708. The contesting party bears the burden of proof.

and

(2) may not review the merits of the order.

(f) A tribunal of this state deciding a contest of a registered Convention support order shall promptly notify the parties of its decision.

(g) A challenge or appeal, if any, does not stay the enforcement of a Convention support order unless there are exceptional circumstances.

SECTION 708. RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF REGISTERED CONVENTION SUPPORT ORDER.

5700.708

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a tribunal of this state shall recognize and enforce a registered Convention support order.

(b) The following grounds are the only grounds on which a tribunal of this state may refuse recognition and enforcement of a registered Convention support order:

(6) a proceeding between the same parties and having the same purpose is pending before a tribunal of this state and that proceeding was the first to be filed;

(7) the order is incompatible with a more recent support order involving the same parties and having the same purpose if the more recent support order is entitled to recognition and enforcement under this [act] in this state;

(8) payment, to the extent alleged arrears have been paid in whole or in part;

(9) in a case in which the respondent neither appeared nor was represented in the proceeding in the issuing foreign country:

(A) if the law of that country provides for prior notice of proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard; or

(B) if the law of that country does not provide for prior notice of the proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the order and an opportunity to be heard in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal; or

(10) the order was made in violation of Section 711.

(c) If a tribunal of this state does not recognize a Convention support order under subsection (b)(2), (4), or (9):

(1) the tribunal may not dismiss the proceeding without allowing a reasonable time for a party to request the establishment of a new Convention support order; and

(2) the [governmental entity] shall take all appropriate measures to request a child-support order for the obligee if the application for recognition and enforcement was received under Section 704.
