

Background for email vote:

On March 14, the subcommittee, agreed to vote by email once clarifying language was made to point #4, regarding attendance at courses that pertained to preparatory activities to pass any professional certification or licensing exams. Old language for #4 is in red, new in purple.

Please review and submit your vote by or on WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 2019, COB. All subcommittee members may vote. Your votes will be recorded as part of the official record.

Action: Should CIP add the following bolded courses to the list of non-CIMCE approved activities? Text currently reads: Page 9 section 3.2.8 CIMCE credit is not approved for the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Rating candidates for any state, federal, or Consortium for Language Access in the Courts court interpreter exam.2. Developing any state, federal, or consortium court interpreter exam, or exam development for any profession.3. Attending classes in person or via distance learning activities for any state or federal certification and/or registration exam that provide instruction on how to take and pass any state or federal court certification and/or registration court exam.4. Attending preparatory activities for any professional licensing or credentialing exams.5. Courses on brand development, marketing, running or building a business, or engaging in marketing or consulting activities.6. Self-directed research or publishing.7. Courses primarily based on works of fiction (novels, movies, podcasts)	Courses are @95% approved, but we get submissions for attending how to pass test prep exams, sitting for a real estate license prep course (for example), publishing a book, courses on building a business. We have received applications for example, on cooking classes due to learning cooking terms (in English only) 4. New language will read: Attending classes in person or via distance learning that provide instruction on how to take and pass any professional exam, and/or prepares one for any professional certification or licensing examination.
---	--

8. Completing the same CIMCE-approved activity more than once within the same compliance period. 9. Time spent on doing homework. 10. Attending or conducting activities unrelated to continuing education requirements. 11. CIMCE credit is not guaranteed for participation in activities, such as interpreter vacations or conferences offered in a foreign country. Foreign travel per se, is not CIMCE eligible.
---	--