

THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES
BEHAVIORAL HEALTH
EDUCATION SERIES PRESENTS

AB 1810: Mental Health Diversion Webinar

This AB 1810 webinar will discuss the basic eligibility requirements of the new mental health diversion law, the effect of legislative amendments, the procedural process, and strategies to implement the law effectively. It will also discuss how the collaborative court model can be used to implement the law and how the new law may impact existing collaborative courts.

Thursday, November 1st, 2018
12:15pm to 1:15pm (PT)

Registration for the webinar is closed

Watch the recorded webinar mid-November at www.YouTube.com/CaliforniaCourts

FEATURED SPEAKERS

AMY KIMPEL is an Attorney with Criminal Justice Services. At the Judicial Council, Amy's work has focused on the intersection of criminal justice and mental health. Before joining the Judicial Council in March 2018, Amy worked as a trial attorney at San Diego Federal Defenders, Inc. (2009-2016) and as a deputy public defender in Santa Clara County (2016-2018). Amy has a B.A. in English from Columbia University, an M.A. in Education from Columbia University Teachers College, and a J.D. from New York University School of Law.

ARLEY LINDBERG is a Senior Analyst with Criminal Justice Services and has worked at the Judicial Council since 2009 where she works on mental health-related projects. She is a licensed clinical social worker (LCSW) and has volunteered and worked in schools, non-profit agencies, and prison. Arley has a Master's in Social Welfare from UC Berkeley, and a B.A. in Cultural Anthropology from UC Santa Cruz.