

THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES
BEHAVIORAL HEALTH
EDUCATION SERIES PRESENTS

Serious Mental Health Disorders Webinar

Please join us for a discussion with Dr. Roth about serious mental health disorders among justice-involved individuals. With the recent passage of AB 1810, certain defendants with serious mental health disorders may be eligible for pretrial diversion. This presentation will give helpful information to judges, court personnel, and justice system partners about symptoms of serious mental health disorders, the relationship between symptoms and behaviors, and treatments.

Learning objectives will include:

- + Define serious mental health disorder and review common diagnoses within the criminal justice population.
- + Expand knowledge of symptoms of serious mental health disorders.
- + Increase understanding of mental health treatments for serious mental health disorders.

Thursday, December 13th, 2018
12:15pm to 1:15pm (PT)

Watch the recorded webinar early January 2019 at www.YouTube.com/CaliforniaCourts

FEATURED SPEAKER

LOREN ROTH, MD, is a clinical associate professor in UC San Francisco's Department of Psychiatry. In addition to her duties as an attending psychiatrist, she serves as the medical director for the City and County of San Francisco's Jail Behavioral Health Services.

Dr. Roth received her medical degree from Tufts University, then completed her residency in psychiatry and a fellowship in forensic psychiatry at the New York University School of Medicine. She previously worked on the inpatient jail psychiatry ward at New York's Bellevue Hospital Center.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA
OPERATIONS AND PROGRAMS DIVISION
CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES

For more information, contact:
CrimJusticeOffice@Jud.Ca.Gov