1.0 GENERAL INFORMATION

1.1 Background

- 1.1.1 The Judicial Council of California, chaired by the Chief Justice of California, is the chief policy making agency of the California judicial system. The California Constitution directs the Council to improve the administration of justice by surveying judicial business, recommending improvements to the courts, and making recommendations annually to the Governor and the Legislature. The Council also adopts rules for court administration, practice, and procedure, and performs other functions prescribed by law. The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) is the staff agency for the Council and assists both the Council and its chair in performing their duties.
- 1.1.2 The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) is the staff agency for the Judicial Council, and assists both the Council and its chair in performing their duties. The AOC is located in San Francisco. It is comprised of ten divisions, including the Executive Office Programs Division, which houses the Judicial Council's Court Interpreter Program. The Court Interpreter Program oversees the testing, certification and registration process for the statewide qualification of court interpreters, as well as other administrative functions such as statewide recruitment, and statewide scheduling to insure coverage for court proceedings requiring interpreter services.

1.2 Program Authority and Structure

The California Constitution states that “a person unable to understand English who is charged with a crime has a right to an interpreter throughout the proceedings.” This right is extended by law to certain civil and juvenile proceedings as well. California Government Code §§68560–68566 directs the Judicial Council to adopt programs and standards to insure that qualified interpreters are provided in the courts. This responsibility includes adopting standards for the testing and certification or registration of court interpreters. The Council is also responsible for designating the languages for which a program of certification shall be established, based upon a study every five years of language and interpreter use and need in court proceedings. For all “nondesignated” languages, the Council is responsible for establishing a program of registration.

1.3 Program Context

- 1.3.1 The need for qualified interpreters in the California courts is pressing, and it is growing with the increasing racial and ethnic diversity of the state's population. Approximately 40% of California's population speaks a language other than English in the home. This includes over 200 languages and dialects. Roughly 20% of Californians speak English less than “very well,” which effectively precludes meaningful participation in a judicial proceeding without substantial language assistance. (All data is from the U.S. Census Bureau.)

- 1.3.2 The demographics of interpreter need vary by county. However, in general there is a statewide shortage of interpreters in most languages, in most areas, and there is a shortage in all languages when calculated statewide. The need for interpreters is expected to increase over the coming years as California’s foreign born population continues to grow. Additionally, the Judicial Council is working with the Legislature and the Governor to expand the legal right to provide interpreters to civil as well as criminal matters, thereby significantly increasing the need. While the demand for services continue to grow, the current ranks of court interpreters is insufficient to meet the statewide need. The average age of court interpreters is approximately 53, suggesting that retirement trends will further reduce interpreter ranks.
- 1.3.3 To meet this need, there are currently 1,598 certified or registered interpreters in the Judicial Council’s court interpreter program. 1,095 of these are certified in Spanish. The split between independent contractors and interpreter employees is about half and half. Many in both groups are part-time.
- 1.3.4 Judges are required to use certified or registered court interpreters in court proceedings except for “good cause” (based on specific guidelines), when a noncertified or nonregistered court interpreter may be used. The shortage of court interpreters in California’s courts in relation to demand results in cases having to be rescheduled while the court attempts to secure a qualified interpreter. This causes delays in the administration of justice, and sometimes results in courts having to use noncertified or nonregistered interpreters who may lack the experience or skills of a qualified interpreter.
- 1.3.5 The term “interpretation” is a term of art referring to verbal translation between English and the target language. The term “translation” is used only to refer to translation in writing. The essential function of a court interpreter is to interpret oral court proceedings to a limited-English-proficiency defendant or litigant, and to interpret non-English oral testimony for the court. The interpreter may also be asked to interpret something that is written. Interpretation of testimony is performed consecutively, with the witness speaking phrases or sentences in the target language, followed by the interpreter interpreting what has been said into English. Interpretation of proceedings is performed simultaneously, with the interpreter listening to the proceedings in English and simultaneously interpreting to the defendant or litigant in the target language.

- 1.3.6 The 2005 Language Need and Interpreter Use Study, conducted by the Judicial Council, reports that “the top 14 languages by days of interpreter service were Spanish (160,396), Vietnamese (8,477), Korean (3,743), Eastern and Western Armenian (3,093), Mandarin (2,439), Khmer (Cambodian) (2,365), Cantonese (2,320), Hmong and Mien (1,824), Russian (1,789), Tagalog (1,215), Farsi (1,072), Punjabi (1,032), Lao (1,011), and Japanese (601)”. These statistics show the overwhelming predominance of Spanish as the most highly-needed language in the California courts, representing almost 84% of the interpreter service days for the 14 top languages.
- 1.3.7 Additional information about the Council’s court interpreter program can be accessed at: <http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/programs/courtinterpreters/>.

With the question, the vendor must submit a statement explaining why the question is sensitive. If the AOC concurs that the disclosure of the question or answer would expose proprietary information, the question will be answered, and both the question and answer will be kept in confidence. 11.1 Prospective service providers are specifically directed NOT to contact any AOC personnel or its consultants for meetings, conferences, or discussions that are specifically related to this RFP at any time prior to any notice of intent to award a contract. The Administrative Office of the Courts policy is to follow the intent of the California Public Records Act (PRA). If a vendor's proposal contains material noted or marked as confidential and/or proprietary that, in the AOC's sole opinion, meets the disclosure exemption requirements of the PRA, then that information will not be disclosed pursuant to a request for public documents. If the AOC does not consider such material to be exempt from disclosure under the PRA, the material will be made available to the public, regardless of the notation or markings. If a vendor is unsure if its confidential and/or proprietary material meets the disclosure exemption requirements of the PRA, then it should not include such information in its proposal.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA
ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES GOVERNING REQUESTS FOR PROPOSALS

A. General

1. This solicitation document, the evaluation of proposals, and the award of any contract shall conform with current competitive bidding procedures as they relate to the procurement of goods and services. A vendor's proposal is an irrevocable offer for 90 days following the deadline for its submission.
2. In addition to explaining the Administrative Office of the Courts' (AOC's) requirements, the solicitation document includes instructions which prescribe the format and content of proposals.

B. Errors in the solicitation document

1. If a vendor submitting a proposal discovers any ambiguity, conflict, discrepancy, omission, or other error in this solicitation document, the vendor shall immediately provide the AOC with written notice of the problem and request that the solicitation document be clarified or modified. Without disclosing the source of the request, the AOC may modify the solicitation document prior to the date fixed for submission of proposals by posting an addendum to the solicitation on the AOC Courtinfo website (<http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/reference/rfp/>).
2. If, prior to the date fixed for submission of proposals, a vendor submitting a proposal knows of or should have known of an error in the solicitation document but fails to notify the AOC of the error, the vendor shall propose at its own risk, and if the vendor is awarded the contract, it shall not be entitled to additional compensation or time by reason of the error or its later correction.

C. Questions regarding the solicitation document

1. If a vendor's question relates to a proprietary aspect of its proposal and the question would expose proprietary information if disclosed to competitors, the vendor may submit the question in writing, conspicuously marking it as "CONFIDENTIAL." With the question, the vendor must submit a statement explaining why the question is sensitive. If the AOC concurs that the disclosure of the question or answer would expose proprietary information, the question will be answered, and both the question and answer will be kept in confidence. If the AOC does not concur regarding the proprietary nature of the question, the question will not be answered in this manner and the vendor will be notified.

2. Vendors interested in responding to the solicitation may submit questions on procedural matters related to the RFP or requests for clarification or modification of this solicitation document to the email address set forth under Submission of Questions section of the coversheet of this RFP (solicitations@jud.ca.gov). If the vendor is requesting a change, the request must set forth the recommended change and the vendor's reasons for proposing the change. All questions and requests must be submitted in writing no later than the deadline set forth under Submission of Questions section of the coversheet of this RFP; questions or requests submitted after the due date will not be answered. Without disclosing the source of the question or request, a copy of the questions and the AOC's responses will be posted on the Courtinfo website (<http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/reference/rfp/>).

D. Addenda

1. The AOC may modify the solicitation document prior to the date fixed for submission of proposals by posting an addendum on the AOC Courtinfo website (<http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/reference/rfp/>). If any vendor determines that an addendum unnecessarily restricts its ability to bid, it must notify the State by sending an email to the email address set forth under Submission of Questions section of the coversheet of this RFP, no later than two days following the posting of the addendum.

E. Withdrawal and resubmission/modification of proposals

1. A vendor may withdraw its proposal at any time prior to the deadline for submitting proposals by notifying the AOC in writing of its withdrawal. The notice must be signed by the vendor and submitted to the individual and address set forth under Submission of Proposal section of the coversheet of this RFP. The vendor may thereafter submit a new or modified proposal, provided that it is received at the AOC no later than the Proposal Due Date and Time section listed on the coversheet of this RFP. Modifications offered in any other manner, oral or written, will not be considered. Proposals cannot be changed or withdrawn after the Proposal Due Date and Time section listed on the coversheet of this RFP.

F. Evaluation process

1. An evaluation team will review in detail all proposals that are received to determine the extent to which they comply with solicitation document requirements.
2. If a proposal fails to meet a material solicitation document requirement, the proposal may be rejected. A deviation is material to the extent that a response is not in substantial accord with solicitation document requirements. Material deviations cannot be waived. Immaterial deviations may cause a bid to be rejected.

3. Proposals that contain false or misleading statements may be rejected if in the AOC's opinion the information was intended to mislead the state regarding a requirement of the solicitation document.
4. Cost sheets will be checked only if a proposal is determined to be otherwise qualified. All figures entered on the cost sheets must be clearly legible.
5. During the evaluation process, the AOC may require a vendor's representative to answer questions with regard to the vendor's proposal. Failure of a vendor to demonstrate that the claims made in its proposal are in fact true may be sufficient cause for deeming a proposal nonresponsive.

G. Rejection of bids

1. The AOC may reject any or all proposals and may or may not waive an immaterial deviation or defect in a bid. The AOC's waiver of an immaterial deviation or defect shall in no way modify the solicitation document or excuse a vendor from full compliance with solicitation document specifications. The AOC reserves the right to accept or reject any or all of the items in the proposal, to award the contract in whole or in part and/or negotiate any or all items with individual vendors if it is deemed in the AOC's best interest. Moreover, the AOC reserves the right to make no selection if proposals are deemed to be outside the fiscal constraint or against the best interest of the State of California.

H. Award of contract

1. Award of contract, if made, will be in accordance with the solicitation document to a responsible vendor submitting a proposal compliant with all the requirements of the solicitation document and any addenda thereto, except for such immaterial defects as may be waived by the AOC.
2. The AOC reserves the right to determine the suitability of proposals for contracts on the basis of a proposal's meeting administrative requirements, technical requirements, its assessment of the quality of service and performance of items proposed, and cost.

I. Decision

1. Questions regarding the AOC's award of any business on the basis of proposals submitted in response to this solicitation document, or on any related matter, should be addressed to the individual listed in the Submission of Proposals section on the coversheet of this RFP who will forward the matter to the appropriate contracting officer.

J. Execution of contracts

1. Unless otherwise stated in the RFP, the AOC will make a reasonable effort to execute any contract based on this solicitation document within 30 days of selecting a proposal that best meets its requirements. However, exceptions taken by a vendor may delay execution of a contract
2. A vendor submitting a proposal must be prepared to use a standard state contract form rather than its own contract form.

K. Protest procedure

1. General

Failure of a vendor to comply with the protest procedures set forth in this Section K, will render a protest inadequate and non-responsive, and will result in rejection of the protest.

2. Prior to Submission of Proposal

An interested party that is an actual or prospective proposer with a direct economic interest in the procurement may file a protest based on allegedly restrictive or defective specifications or other improprieties in the solicitation process that are apparent, or should have been reasonably discovered prior to the submission of a proposal. Such protest must be received prior to the Proposal Closing Time. The protestor shall have exhausted all administrative remedies discussed in this Attachment B prior to submitting the protest. Failure to do so may be grounds for denying the protest.

3. After Award

A vendor submitting a proposal may protest the award based on allegations of improprieties occurring during the proposal evaluation or award period if it meets all of the following conditions:

- a. The vendor has submitted a proposal that it believes to be responsive to the solicitation document;
- b. The vendor believes that its proposal meets the administrative and technical requirements of the solicitation, proposes services of proven quality and performance, and offers a competitive cost; and,
- c. The vendor believes that the AOC has incorrectly selected another vendor submitting a proposal for an award.

Protests must be received no later than five (5) business days after the protesting party receives a Non-Award letter.

4. Form of Protest

A vendor who is qualified to protest should submit the protest to the individual listed in the Submission of Proposals section on the coversheet of this RFP who will forward the matter to the appropriate Contracting Officer.

Therefore, the initial protest submittal must include all grounds for the protest and all evidence available at the time the protest is submitted. If the protestor later raises new grounds or evidence that was not included in the initial protest but which could have been raised at that time, the AOC will not consider such new grounds or new evidence.

5. Determination of Protest Submitted Prior to Submission of Proposal

Upon receipt of a timely and proper protest based on allegedly restrictive or defective specifications or other improprieties in the solicitation process that are apparent, or should have been reasonably discovered prior to the submission of a proposal, the AOC will provide a written determination to the protestor prior to the Proposal Due Date. If required, the AOC may extend the Proposal Due Date to allow for a reasonable time to review the protest. If the protesting party elects to appeal the decision, the protesting party will follow the appeals process outlined below and the AOC, at its sole discretion, may elect to withhold the contract award until the protest is resolved or denied or proceed with the award and implementation of the contract.

6. Determination of Protest Submitted After Submission of Proposal

Upon receipt of a timely and proper protest, the AOC will investigate the protest and will provide a written response to the vendor within a reasonable time. If the AOC requires additional time to review the protest and is not able to provide a response within ten (10) business days, the AOC will notify the vendor. If the protesting party elects to appeal the decision, the protesting party will follow the appeals process outlined below. The AOC, at its sole discretion, may elect to withhold the contract award until the protest is resolved or denied or proceed with the award and implementation of the agreement.

7. Appeals Process

The Contracting Officer's decision shall be considered the final action by the AOC unless the protesting party thereafter seeks an appeal of the decision by filing a request for appeal with the AOC's Business Services Manager, at the same address noted in the Submission of Proposal section of the coversheet of this RFP, within five (5) calendar days of the issuance of the Contracting Officer's decision.

The justification for appeal is specifically limited to:

8. Protest Remedies

If the protest is upheld, the AOC will consider all circumstances surrounding the procurement in its decision for a fair and reasonable remedy, including the seriousness of the procurement deficiency, the degree of prejudice to the protesting party or to the integrity of the competitive procurement system, the good faith efforts of the parties, the extent of performance, the cost to the AOC, the urgency of the procurement, and the impact of the recommendation(s) on the AOC. The AOC may recommend any combination of the following remedies:

- a. Terminate the contract for convenience;
- b. Re-solicit the requirement;
- c. Issue a new solicitation;

M. Disposition of materials

All materials submitted in response to this solicitation document will become the property of the State of California and will be returned only at the AOC's option and at the expense of the vendor submitting the proposal. One copy of a submitted proposal will be retained for official files and become a public record. Any material that a vendor considers as confidential but does not meet the disclosure exemption requirements of the California Public Records Act should not be included in the vendor's proposal as it may be made available to the public.
