FTB Court-Ordered Debt Program

COD Background

- In 1994, the State Legislature authorized the FTB to collect delinquent court-ordered debt as a pilot program.
- In 2004, the Legislature made the program permanent and expanded it statewide. (California Revenue and Taxation Code Sections 19280–19282).
- Funding is provided by the participating courts and agencies. These costs cannot exceed 15 percent of the amount FTB-COD collects (RTC Section 19280) on behalf of their clients.

FTB Court-Ordered Debt Program Eligibility and Enrollment

Eligibility

- State Agencies:
 - Any type of Restitution Orders and fines imposed by juvenile or superior court of the State of California.
- Courts:
 - Any type of fines, state or local penalties, bail and forfeitures.
 - All offenses involving a violation of the Vehicle Code, and any amounts due pursuant to Section 903.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

FTB Court-Ordered Debt Program

How the Program Works

- Our clients issue a series of delinquent notices.
- We validate the essential collection information: National Change of Address (NCOA), DMV, & Social Security Number (SSN) validation.
- We create an account for the case and begin the collection cycle:
 - Issue Demand Notice
 - After 45 days we send a wage garnishment or bank levy
 - If no payment received, we repeat the process
 - We keep the case up to 24 months
- We will return the case sooner if:
 - We are unable to locate a good address or SSN
 - Case is deemed uncollectable
 - Client withdraws the case

FTB Court-Ordered Debt Program

Case Highlight

- In 2001, the debtor rented a motel room and set up a methamphetamine lab that caused more than $25,000 worth of damage to the motel.
- Since 2002, debtor's payments totaled less than $3,000.
- In June 2015, we sent the debtor a Demand Notice.
- Debtor paid the entire balance.

14 years after the motel was badly damaged, they received full restitution and were made whole.

FTB Intercept Program

How to Participate

FTB Intercept Program

How the Program Works

- Participating agencies submit debtor accounts via Secure Web Internet File Transfer.
- We flag accounts with an offset indicator.
- We reject debtor accounts that do not meet our criteria.
- Other considerations:
 - Debt type must qualify under program authority.
 - Pre-Intercept Notice mailed at least 30 days prior to submission.
 - Debt amount is at least $10.

FTB Intercept Program

How the Program Works

- FTB notifies you when offset occurs.
- FTB sends the debtor an Intercept Notice with:
 - Debtor's account number with the agency.
 - Original payment amount.
 - Offset amount.
 - Remaining refund amount.
 - Agency's public contact address and telephone number.
 - Government code authorizing the Intercept Program.

FTB Intercept Program

How Much It Costs You

- State Controllers Office charges a fee
 - Reimburse the administrative costs of the program.
 - Based on actual costs incurred.
 - Varies each year.
 - In 2015, the fee was approximately $2 per offset.
- Annual bill each April
 - You get billed only for each successful offset we collect during the previous calendar year.

FTB Intercept Program

Program Support

FTB services and support

- Answer client questions.
- Provide copies of missing reports.
- Reconcile weekly reports to monthly fund transfer.
