OFFICE NAME	Human Resources Services Office
JUDICIAL COUNCIL DIRECTIVE NUMBER	<input type="text" value="97.1"/>
JUDICIAL COUNCIL DIRECTIVE	E&P recommends that the Judicial Council direct the Administrative Director of the Courts to consider SEC Recommendation 7-34 and implement the necessary organizational and staffing changes, contingent upon the council's approval of an organizational structure for the AOC and taking into account the results of the classification and compensation studies to be completed.
SEC RECOMMENDATION	The current number of higher-level positions in the HR Division should be reduced, as follows:  The number of manager positions should be reduced from five to three, with some of the resulting resources allocated to line HR functions.
RESPONSE (check applicable boxes)
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> This directive has been completed and implemented:
Recommendation has been implemented. There were a number of staffing changes within the HR Services Office that were implemented prior to the realignment recommendations by the Judicial Council. One of those staffing changes included the abolishment of the HR Division Director position. HR Services Office has only had three manager positions. Two of the three positions are at the Senior Manager level. One of the positions is at the Manager level and is currently vacant. The vacant Manager position will be reclassified to a staff level position at a later date if the office is given approval to backfill critical vacancies. This is in alignment with SEC recommendation 7-34 (d), which states that "consideration should be given to redirecting the resources from those positions to support vacant HR analyst positions."

EFFICIENCIES

An analyst-level position will provide the necessary staff support to multiple areas of HR and will relieve the heavy backlog of work created by the multiple vacancies within the office - it will also allow for a balanced distribution of workload among staff. At the analyst-level, the position can support the day-to-day functions associated with critical trial court programs such as labor relations or compensation & benefits. With the current structure of the HR Office, the management team has been

	designed so that they can continue to provide oversight and direction across multiple areas of HR in the event high level policy decisions are needed.  File Attachment
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> SERVICE LEVEL IMPACT	Staffing continues to be an issue and the increasing workload as a result of multiple labor contract negotiations and the classification/compensation study associated with the organizational-wide realignment will add to the existing plate of responsibilities within the office. Service levels to the trial courts and appellate courts will be maintained, but additional new programs may have to be redirected or placed on hold until staffing resources are available.  File Attachment
