III. DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION ITEMS (ITEMS 4)

Item 1

Advancing the Hybrid Courtroom's Final Findings and Recommendations (Action Requested)

Review and consider approval of the final findings and recommendations from the Advancing the Hybrid Courtroom Workstream. If approved by the Technology Committee, the recommendations will then be considered for approval by the Judicial Council.

Presenters: Hon. Samantha P. Jessner and Adam Creiglow, Hybrid Courtroom Workstream Executive Sponsors

Item 2

Appellate Information Technology Budget (Action Requested)

Consider the recommended FY 2023-24 appellate court technology budget for Judicial Council Information Technology services.

Presenter: Heather L. Pettit, Chief Information Officer / Director, Judicial Council Information Technology

Item 3

Information Technology Modernization Funding Program (Action Requested)

Consider a proposal to add additional projects for Superior Court of Merced County as part of its direct allocations to the trial courts previously approved by the committee.

Presenter: Hon. Sheila F. Hanson, Chair Information Technology Advisory Committee

Item 4

Update on Digitizing Court Records

Receive an update on the Superior Court of Madera County request to receive funding to complete their goal of digitizing over 13.4 million pages of court records and transform a court that relies on paper files into a digital court. Funding was previously awarded to the court; however, the court needed additional time to complete this work.

Presenter: Heather L. Pettit, Chief Information Officer / Director, Judicial Council Information Technology
