

JUDICIAL COUNCIL of CALIFORNIA

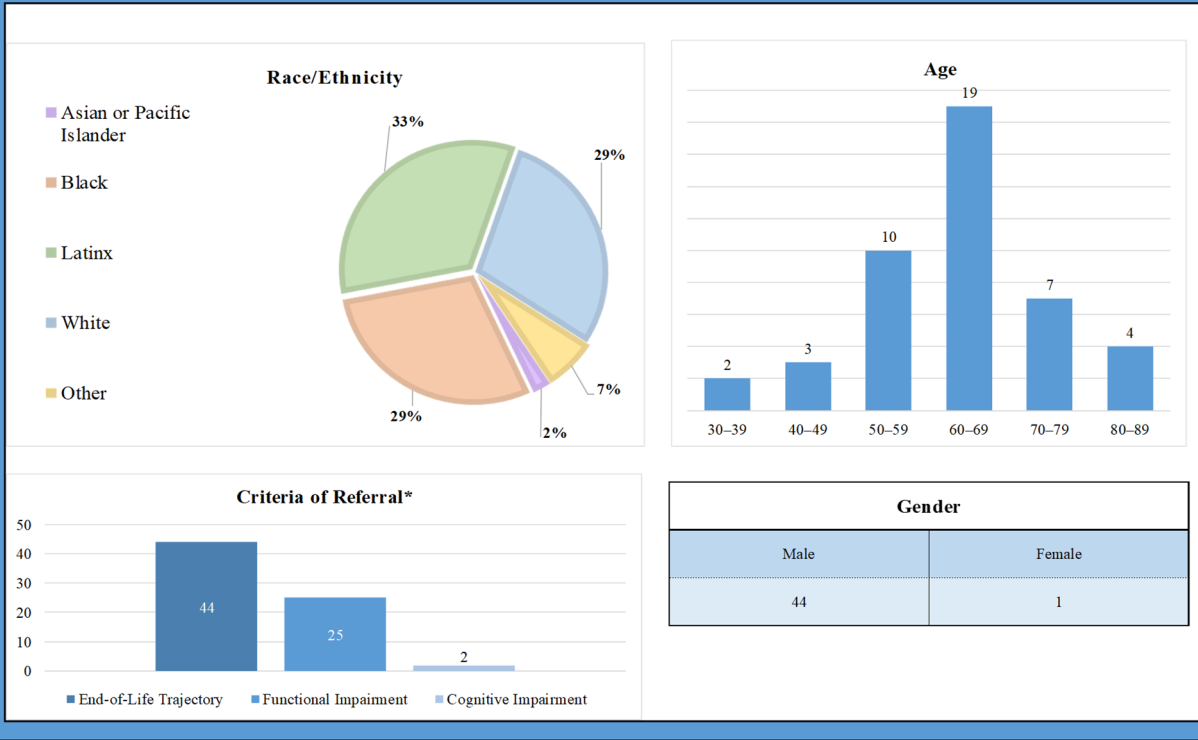

Report on the Compassionate Release Program

January 1, 2024

Penal Code section 1172.2 authorizes the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to recommend recall and resentencing when an incarcerated person has a serious illness with an end-of-life trajectory or is medically incapacitated. This report fulfills the Judicial Council’s mandate to release an annual report that includes demographics and criteria of referral. Note: this report does not include cases which were not referred to the court due to lack of postrelease plans.

Released: 45

Denied: 12

Died prior to recall: 3

Pending: 10

