Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 8.46(f)(3), this court contemplates unsealing the April 21, 2017, declaration and related exhibits (quoting from and presenting copies of public social media posts and conditionally confidential probation reports) on the ground that access by petitioner Facebook, Inc., and intervenor San Diego County District Attorney is necessary to fairly address and resolve whether the underlying subpoena's request for private and restricted social media communications is supported by good cause. Order to show cause issued, returnable in Superior Court

The Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation is ordered to show

Maryland* (1963) 373 U.S. 83), that trial counsel's failure to introduce exculpatory statements by prosecution witness Israel Sept violated petitioner's right to the effective assistance of counsel, and that petitioner has come forward with new evidence that he is innocent of the charges (see Pen. Code, § 1473, subd. (b)(3)(A)). The return must be served and filed on or before August 9, 2019.
